Revenue Men Inquire About His Taxes

NO INCOME FILED

Officer Holds Summons for Ex-Governor

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 19.—The accounts of Jack Walton, deposed governor and defeated candidate for United States senator, with Oklahoma City banks were being probed today by three inspectors from the United States internal revenue department to determine whether provisions of the income tax law had been violated.

It was revealed that Walton filed no income tax report since 1921. Local bankers declined to comment on the investigation saying they would make a branch of confidence in doing so.

Walton held a lengthy conference with the internal revenue officer who held a summons for him to appear, it was disclosed here today.

Guerilla Warfare is Feared In Fight Over Water Right

'Silent Men of the Mountains' Aroused by Threat To Send Armed Guards to Close Flood Gates

LONE PINE, Cal., Nov. 19.—Talk of guerilla warfare with the "embattled farmers" of the Owens river valley arrayed against guards from Los Angeles, was in the air today as the newest development of the struggle for possession of the water of the Owens river.

Word came during the night that Los Angeles may send guards to close the flood gates of the Los Angeles viaduct, opened Sunday by the farmers.

Finally it aroused the "silent men from the mountains, who continued their watch over the gates they had opened and increased fears of Inyo county authorities that violence and even bloodshed may be the final outcome.

Reports went around that the mountaineers were ready to dynamite a section of the aqueduct and do permanent damage to Los Angeles' water supply.

Another rumor was that their plan of action would be merely stubborn resistance to any attempt by Los Angeles to drive them from control of the gates which now stand opened and through which the water in the aqueduct is supposed to carry to Los Angeles, 200 miles away, is flowing down the natural channel of the Owens river and watering the farms of the district.

Word came this morning that Governor Richardson had again refused to send state troops to take charge.

Business in Bishop, one of the leading towns, came to a standstill as merchants and citizens deserted their stores and work to join the "army."

Attack of Acute Indigestion Proves Fatal

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Nov. 19.—Thomas H. Ince, noted motion picture producer and promoter died at his Beverly Hills residence today.

His wife, Nell Ince, his two sons and two brothers, Ralph and John, were at his bedside when the end came.

Ince, with his wife and children, had been guests of William R. Hearst at his upstate ranch for several days.

Late yesterday, the pioneer film man was stricken with acute indigestion.

In a special car, attended by two specialists and three nurses, Ince was hurried back to Los Angeles last night and taken to his home. He was unconscious during the night.

Early today he regained consciousness and apparently realized the end was near.

He smiled at his wife, and trying to speak—died.

Wilson and the City Manager Plan

"I regard the commission-city manager plan of municipal government as a marked advance over any plan hitherto tried in this country, from the standpoint of both efficiency and democracy."

Woodrow Wilson.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Nov. 19.—New London passed through the throes of a decentralized political form of government which not only taxed the taxpayers high above the present city manager form but taxed their patience.

The voters adopted the city manager plan when it became apparent that affairs of the city steadily were growing worse, that favoritism in the city's operation had given place to efficiency, and that many in charge of city departments who had gained place through political influence in ability to deliver the vote were distressingly incompetent in carrying out the duties for which they were paid.

No Avoiding Responsibility.

The great advantage of the more modern city manager form of city government rests in the fact that there is no avoiding responsibility.

The manager form definitely fixes the burden and proof where it belongs. There are no political bosses who can keep a man in a position of responsibility and trust when he is incompetent to act as such, unwilling so to act, or hedged in by political obligations which he feels he must pay to the disadvantage of the public interest.

It was a proven fact that city officials who were paid by the citizens to attend to the city's affairs spent a great part of that time building up a political machine which would keep them in office.

Politicians Liked Old Way.

The political form was profitable to them and to their supporters, the men who could deliver the votes, and these benefitted in dictatorial matters of public policy, favoritism in letting contracts, creation of positions which

BABY'S SLIPPER HALTS CONCERT

Radio Fans Hear Query of Local Doctor

In scores of cities throughout the United States, hundreds of radio fans listening in on the Port Arthur Business college program broadcasted from the Magnolia company's Beaumont station Tuesday night learned where the baby's slippers were kept in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Sappington, of Port Arthur.

Telling the world where Mrs. Sappington put the baby's slippers before she left home to take part in the radio concert was not scheduled on the program, but it was included just the same when Dr. Sappington wired the broadcasting station for the information.

"Enjoying the radio concert very much, and please ask Mrs. Sappington where in the San Hill she put the baby's slippers?" Dr. Sappington wired, and for a moment facts and figures about Port Arthur and Port Arthur Business college were silenced while the Port Arthur physician was directed how to find the slippers.

"But the joke was on the doctor," Mrs. Sappington said today, explaining that she had put the baby's slippers out before she went to the concert.

A flood of telephone and telegraph messages of congratulation poured in to the Magnolia broadcasting room as the program was given. A. B. Chenier, president of Port Arthur Business College, said today. The messages came from former students of the college, from scores of Port Arthur radio fans who "listened in" on the program, and from fans in Florida, Chicago, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Texas.

Numbers were given on the program by a saxophone sextette, directed by G. E. Westcott: Miss Julia Jack Routt, violinist; Mrs. Thomas Sappington and Mrs. Joe Park, pianists and accompanists; Mrs. R. L. Drake, Mrs. Fred P. Dodge, Mrs. Clifford Hall and Joe Park, vocal soloists; and Miss Ina Parish, of Orange, and Miss Madge Nordyke, of Crowley, La., students in the college, who sang several duets with ukelele accompaniment.

Mayor Wants Voters To Study Ordinance

Request that all citizens carefully read Ordinance 642, passed to the second reading by the city council, and which appears on page seven of the Monday issue of The News, which gives the provisions under which a franchise is being made between the city and Port Arthur Traction company, was made today by Mayor J. P. Logan.

"This ordinance is of such importance every citizen should be acquainted with it. The council would appreciate any suggested changes or any criticism of the ordinance as it now stands, should there be any who disapprove. Now is the time to register criticism before the ordinance is passed on its final reading," Mayor Logan said.

Pastors Leave For Church Conference

Rev. V. A. Godbey, pastor, and Rev. B. A. Watson, assistant, have departed for Mount Pleasant, Tex., where they are in attendance on the East Texas conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, it was announced here today.

Rev. Godbey departed with a splendid financial and activity report, and carrying a plea from his congregation for his return to Port Arthur for another year.

Rev. Watson will stand the examination for full rights to preach in Texas.

LOST REST FROM TETTER ON FACE

In Pimples, Itched and Burned. Cuticura Heals.

"I had tetter for about two years. It broke out in little pimples on my face and kept getting worse all the time. It itched and burned causing me to scratch, and the scratching caused eruptions. I lost my rest at night because of the irritation, and my face was so badly disfigured that I had to stay in the house."

"I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using six cakes of Cuticura Soap and five boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Cecil McGinnis, Mooresburg, Tenn.

Use Cuticura for every-day toilet purposes. Bathe with Soap, soothe with Ointment, dust with Talcum. Samples Free by Mail. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. H, Malden 45, Mass." Sold everywhere. Beware of cheap imitations. Try our new Shaving Stick.

FIFTH HORSEMAN DRAWS CROWDS

"The Fifth Horseman," depicted in the Revelations of St. John, attracted a capacity house at the Pearce theater last night when the picture, which was brought to Port Arthur this week, began a week's run at the moving picture house.

The story of a typical reprobate of the Twentieth century, grippingly told, with a dash of romance and a thrilling tale of love for the country, America, has been weaved out of the narrative written by E. M. McMahon.

The author, a native Texan who lives in Wichita Falls, takes a role in the picture, which was produced by a New York film company.

Beginning in a typical "east side joint," the leading character who at first has devoted his life to iniquity, is brought from the mire of degradation by the helping hand of a social service organization, and made to realize that violations of the law in which he has had a hand in smuggling booze into the land, is wrong. Turning in wrath on the crooked associates he once had, this man lives to be a real American.

"The Fifth Horseman," as depicted in the Book of Revelations, is revealed in the picture in a vivid way.

Pt. Arthur Product Is Found Near Volcano

Discovery of a Port Arthur product near the summit of Mount Mauna Loa, in far off Hawaii, was made recently by Captain John P. Moran, formerly of the Texas Company in Port Arthur, and commander of the company of soldiers which guarded this city during the war.

With a party of officers stationed in Hawaii, Captain Moran was climbing Mount Mauna Loa when an old tin was sighted by the way with the inscription "American Kerosene, Manufactured by the Texas Company, Port Arthur, Texas, U. S." The sight of the can was like a glimpse of home, Captain Moran explained in writing relatives here.

Repairs and renovations of the Bert Hughes tire and filling station which have been under way for some time are practically complete, and will probably be finished sometime this week, it was said this morning. The roofing which covers the filling station driveway has been arched with sheet metal, to prevent fire hazards, while the woodwork on the interior of the building has also been overhauled.

Frocks And Wraps Take On Colorful Tints With The Approach of Winter

IF THERE is one time in the year when smart new clothes are necessary it is Thanksgiving time, when football games and dances and week-end trips are in order. Port Arthur shops are showing frocks, wraps, and hats which are not only correct for such events but are new and smart.

Among the loveliest evening gowns of the season are those fashioned of lace. A stunning one has a touch of brown in the mesh of the gold lace, and is made over a slip of black satin. The mesh is of wide or gold-motif ribbon with a smartly flat bow square in the

Even a griddon hero would be proud to be seen with a young woman in a coat of black kashanua, lavishly trimmed in fox, and further embellished with gold and black braid.

A modish little sports frock is of sand jersey, striped in brown. The sand jersey on the long sleeves are very new. A plaited apron ties with a brown sash in the back. Another smart sports dress of jersey is of huge lipstick red and black squares. The red belt has gilt buckles and slides. It is most individual in style.

A stunning ensemble costume has a frock of sand color crepe Elizabeth, made in tunic style, with flame insets trimmed in brown velvet ribbon and gold braid. The same trimming appears on the undershirt. The coat which accompanies it is of black wide waist silk bengaline, lined with sand crepe like that of the frock, and is trimmed with Russian silver pom-pom and gold braid. The braid is applied to the fur collar in an unusual and attractive manner.

Altar Society Has Benefit Card Party

Lovely chrysanthemums were everywhere evident on the Knights of Columbus hall yesterday afternoon when the Altar Society of St. Mary's Catholic church entertained with a delightful benefit card party. More than seventy-five guests enjoyed the pleasures of the afternoon, seven tables of bridge players and nine tables of five hundred players being assembled for the occasion.

In the games of five hundred Mrs. Theo. Gentil received the first prize and Mrs. R. H. Armstrong was awarded the second favor. Boozy fell to Mrs. E. C. Kuhlman. For success in the games of bridge Mrs. R. T. Hebert was presented with the first prize and Miss Mary Louise Bartel cut consolation. Mrs. J. M. Goodwin received the boot.

During the late hours of the afternoon a delicious refreshment course of hot chocolate and cake were served by Mrs. A. H. Barras, Mrs. L. McGuire, and Mrs. A. J. Krohn.

W. S. I. Club Plans Thanksgiving Dinner

The members of the Women's Self Improvement club will be entertained with the annual Thanksgiving dinner next Tuesday at the Department club, with Mrs. T. W. Hughes as hostess. Plans for the dinner were discussed at yesterday's session of the W. S. I. club at Mrs. John Imhoff's home, 1117 Procter street, and during the business session Mrs. Harold Peck and Mrs. Ralph Smith were welcomed into the membership of the club.

An interesting program on the pirate legends was given during the afternoon, opening with the roll call which was responded to with pirate legends. Mrs. T. W. Hughes followed with an interesting pirate story, following which Mrs. J. P. Landes gave a sketch of the life and legends of Lafitte, the pirate, and Mrs. S. E. Schunk told of "The Unlucky Ghost of Lafitte." Mrs. Ada Smith's reading, "The Pirate Ship of San Bernard" concluded the program.

Those responding to roll call were Mrs. Cora Bunker, Mrs. Guy Carroll, Mrs. R. A. Collins, Mrs. P. S. DeWitt, Mrs. F. E. Gifford, Mrs. T. W. Hughes, Mrs. A. L. Humphreys, Mrs. J. P. Landes, Mrs. John Imhoff, Mrs. B. A. McGeehan, Mrs. Laura Miller, Mrs. C. A. Pearson, Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mrs. S. E. Schunk, Mrs. G. M. Sims, Mrs. Ada Smith, Mrs. W. J. Steck, and Mrs. W. S. Thomas.

Mrs. C. H. Gunthrope Entertains Club

Mrs. C. H. Gunthrope, Jr., entertained the Thimble club yesterday afternoon at her home in the Model addition. The home was decorated with chrysanthemums of various hues. The afternoon hours were spent in needlework and chatting. Plans were also discussed for a Christmas entertainment at the home of Mrs. J. R. Nertus, Lake Shore drive, Tuesday, Dec. 16.

A salad course was served during the late afternoon hours. Those present were Mrs. H. B. Pugh, Mrs. A. E. Scott, Mrs. H. C. Crawford, Mrs. O. M. Bailey, Mrs. J. R. Nertus, Mrs. James Ellender, Mrs. A. L. Carter, Mrs. L. A. Glackler, Mrs. Fred Borden, Mrs. A. T. McLaughlin, Mrs. Frank Lough, Mrs. Rensley and Mrs. C. H. Gunthrope, Jr.

Mrs. Frank Lough will be the club's hostess next week at her home, 2821 Fifth street.

PRESBYTERIAN AID TO MEET TOMORROW

The Ladies Aid of the First Presbyterian church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. T. Eddington, 2735 Procter street, at 2:30 o'clock. Assisting Mrs. Eddington in hostess duties will be Mrs. W. W. Montagne.

Final arrangements for the Christmas bazaar will be made on this occasion, and Thursday's session will be the last meeting before the bazaar. It is hoped that all members will be in attendance.

LADIES AID ENTERTAINS

The Ladies Aid of the Congregational church entertained the Men's club and their friends with a dinner Monday evening at the church. The dinner was a social get-together meeting for the purpose of presenting to the men an outline of a campaign against illiteracy in Port Arthur. Committees will be appointed that will confer with civic organizations of the city in this movement to stamp out illiteracy.

Pretty Bridge Party Given by Mrs. Autrey

A gracious hospitality of the week was Mrs. A. R. Autrey's bridge yesterday afternoon at her home in the Model addition. The personnel of guests including members of the Tuesday Bridge club, beautiful pink and white chrysanthemums gave a floral beauty to the rooms, their tints being reflected in the bridge table appointments.

Three tables of players enjoyed the games in which Mrs. D. P. Sheeks captured the club prize and Mrs. D. F. Snyder was presented with the guest favor. A lovely refreshment course was offered after the games. The personnel of players included Mrs. S. O. Latimer, Mrs. D. F. Snyder, Mrs. Pat Reed, Mrs. D. P. Sheeks, Mrs. M. F. Blodgett, Mrs. Herbert Henderson, Mrs. M. Swearingen, Mrs. G. L. Prichard, Mrs. L. L. Abshire, Mrs. W. D. Johnson, Mrs. G. N. Bliss, and Mrs. Frank Maloy.

Mrs. L. L. Abshire will entertain the club next week at her home, 1945 Procter street.

W. B. A. OF MACABEES WILL HAVE PICNIC

The W. B. A. of the Macabees and the Knights of Macabees will hold a basket picnic at Port Neches park Thanksgiving day. Committees from both organizations met yesterday afternoon and worked out plans for the outing. Carnival features are planned. The general public is invited to participate.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Pleasingly Surprised

Mr. and Mrs. Votaw Harrison, whose marriage was an event of this month, were surprised with an old-fashioned pounding party Monday evening at their home, 1548 Eighth street, by members of the Barthea Sunday school class and the Trinity league of the First M. E. church, south. The young people met at the church and went to the Harrison home. The evening was spent in games and contests, following which a frozen salad was served. Mrs. Harrison's pantry was filled with the many pounds of foodstuffs, brought by her many friends.

Those who took part were Misses Ann Welch, Lenora Latimer, Evelyn Curry, Daisy Edwards, Ethel King, Sallie V. Fore, Maxine Watler, and Mary Elizabeth Hamilton; Messrs. Leslie Lee, M. Collins, Bradshaw, and Willie Dillon; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Odum, Mr. and Mrs. Aguilard, Mrs. H. C. Crawford, Mrs. James Watler, Mrs. L. A. Glecker, and Mr. and Mrs. Votaw Harrison.

MRS. FAWCETT HAS GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fawcett have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. I. Crook and daughter, Miss Elsie Crook, and Inez LaFlur of Kinder, La., and Mr. Fawcett's nephew, Clyde Stephens of Houston.

MINNEHAHA CAMP TO GO TO PARK

The Minnehaha Camp Fire girls will go to Port Neches park at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The girls will meet at the home of the guard, Mrs. Emmett Welch, 1708 Eighth street, and bring with them potatoes and bacon to cook at the park.

MRS. G. L. ROOT TO ENTERTAIN

Mrs. G. L. Root will entertain a few friends at bridge tomorrow afternoon at her home, 1827 Eighth street at 2 o'clock.

LADIES AID WILL HOLD BAKERY SALE

The Ladies Aid of the First Methodist Episcopal church will hold a bakery sale tomorrow afternoon in the lobby of the Crowell-Gifford company and in front of the First National bank. Cakes, pies, doughnuts, pop corn, candies and nut bread will be sold. The sale will be repeated Saturday.

WOODMEN CIRCLE MANAGER IN CITY

Mrs. Siddle Stephenson, district manager of the Woodmen Circle, is in the city and will attend the meeting of the Woodmen Circle tomorrow evening at the hall in Hartford building. While here Mrs. Stephenson will assist the organization in conducting a membership drive. During her stay in Port Arthur she will be the guest of Mrs. John Baunert of 2019 Procter street.

Miss Lena Holtman And A.W. Smith Wed

The wedding of Miss Lena Holtman and Mr. A. W. Smith, both young people of this city, was quietly solemnized Saturday evening in Beaumont at 8:30 o'clock at the Magnolia Avenue Baptist church with Rev. Walter Rogers officiating. The only attendant was a sister of the bride, Mrs. C. M. Litchfield.

The bride wore a becoming frock of brown canton and smart hat and accessories in harmony. Both the bride and groom are well known in church circles in Port Arthur. Mr. Smith being superintendent of the Central Baptist Sunday school. He is an employee of the Gulf Refining company. The wedding comes as a surprise because during the past few months Mrs. Smith had been visiting in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home at 935 Woodworth boulevard.

Y. W. A. HAS MEET MONDAY NIGHT

Members of the Y. W. A. of the Central Baptist church met in a short business session Monday evening at the church, at which time Miss Gladys Adams was accepted as a new member. Following the business session the girls rehearsed the play which they will present next Sunday evening at the church. Those in attendance were Misses Gladys Griffith, Edna Griffith, Violet Edwards, Myron Quallin, Gladys Adams, Willie Youngblood, Shelton Aycock, Fannie Pereto, Virginia Resgan and Mrs. A. C. Anderson.

AOKIYA CAMP FIRE HAS MEET

Those present were Louise Erwin, Beatrice McKinney, Verdict Evans, Ruth Baker, Lyla Mae McKinney, Geneva Smith, and Mrs. R. L. Rutan.

Mrs. J. A. Gibson Has Lovely Bridge Party

Charming in all its appointments was the bridge-luncheon yesterday afternoon arranged in entertainment of the Tuesday Coterie and having as hostess, Mrs. J. A. Gibson at her home, 1125 Procter street. The luncheon table was lovely with its centerpiece of white chrysanthemums and yellow cosmos, around which were placed miniature turkeys, holding the minis, attached to which were dainty ribbons holding the place cards at each guest's place. The Thanksgiving theme was featured in all details of the hospitality and in the lovely two course luncheon. For after luncheon diversion the guests enjoyed bridge, and in the games Mrs. John Vaughn received the prize for high score and Mrs. Henry Lohman was awarded the low score favor.

Two tables of players enjoyed the pleasing affair, included among them were Mrs. E. L. Caldwell, Mrs. Henry Lohman, Mrs. John Vaughn, Mrs. J. W. Williams, Mrs. C. E. Yates, Mrs. C. P. Gunn, Mrs. Tom Dellinger and Mrs. J. A. Gibson.

MRS. ADAMS HAS GUEST

Mrs. Will Adams of 805 Stillwell boulevard has as her guest her sister, Mrs. Ernest A. Ploansky of Albuquerque, N. M.

LOADS CASE OIL FOR AUSTRALIA

British Steamer Riol Due to Sail Today

Loaded out with case oil, lumber and timber, the British steamship Riol probably will sail this afternoon for Australia. The vessel is completing cargo at the Texas company terminals here.

Arriving at quarantine Tuesday afternoon from Genoa, Italy, the British steamship Eastgate shifted up to Port Arthur early today and is docked at the Cotton docks for lumber and timber.

Finished loading at the Magnolia company's terminals at Beaumont, the British tanker Donax came down to the Gulf Refining company terminals about noon to load out bunker fuel. The vessel will go from here to Houston to complete loading.

Included in the lists of vessels scheduled to arrive in Port Arthur Thursday is the Texas company tanker Solitaire, from Mobile. The Italian tanker Americano, loaded out partly at the Magnolia company's Magneto terminals and the Texas company terminals here, went down to Sabine today to top off.

PLEA FOR UNITY CLOSES REVIVAL

Packard Delivers His Last Sermon of Series

Pleading for a oneness of the churches of God and for a united Protestantism where the churches will stand together on the open book, wear the name Christian, and Christian only, and accept of the creed as revealed by Jesus Christ in the Bible, Dr. Paul Henry Packard delivered his closing sermon at the First Christian church revival last night. He spoke on "Christian Unity," taking his text from the 17th chapter of John.

"Through all these years Christianity has been pointing to oneness in faith, oneness in effort and oneness in getting together in the common faith," Dr. Packard said. "I am confident tonight that Christianity will some day be the universal religion." Dr. Packard appealed to all the people to stand together in Jesus Christ, declaring that division in religious forces was sapping the strength of the religious people and was in divine contradiction to Christ's plea.

Dr. Packard said that oneness had failed because religious leaders have failed to find the basis of unity. "Whenever oneness comes, someone will have to relinquish his hold on pet traditions he has been holding to a long time and accept only those things essential to salvation. The church today is not divided over the great fundamentals of the Bible, but on insignificant things that are unessential to salvation."

The name of the church, the creed and belief, and baptism were named by Dr. Packard as some of the reasons for church division. "The name for the united church should be Christian because that name honors and glorifies Jesus Christ," he said. "The church is the bride of Jesus and should, therefore, wear His name. What shall the united church believe? The Bible; and its creed should be that Jesus is the Christ, the son of the living God. What about baptism? Look as long as you will and search the scriptures and you'll never find sprinkling or pouring as the

90,000 IN NEED REPORT STATES

Miners' Union Chief Prepares Data on Strike

EL PASO, Nov. 19. — Economic conditions in Germany are improving, according to Peter Grassman, socialist member of the German reichstag and an official of the German Federation of Trades unions who is a delegate to the American Federation of Labor convention here.

Grassman is the first representative of Germany ever to attend a convention of the federation as a delegate.

Today's program of the convention was to include a report on conditions in the mining industry by Fred Mooney, mine union leader of Charleston, W. Va. Mooney's report will show that 40,000 coal miners are on strike in West Virginia and Kentucky in protest against the open shop and wage reductions. Ranks of the striking miners are being added to daily, the report will show.

Mooney was to tell the delegates that the striking miners and their families, numbering about 90,000 men, women and children, were facing winter in an almost destitute condition; that thousands of the miners are living in tents and barracks erected on land leased by the miners' union after the strikers had been evicted from company houses by the coal operators.

Mooney's report includes an appeal to all labor organizations for funds, food and clothing to help the strikers.

BRUIN FORGETS 'CUE' AND CLAWS UP KEEPER
ATLANTA, Nov. 19.—Bruin, a trained bear, is dead and his master, John Moss, negro, was miraculously alive, but in a serious condition, all because the former forgot his cue during the headline attraction at the "SI" theater in Atlanta's darktown.

Bruin, in all previous performances had obeyed his cue and dropped "dead" at the crack of blank cartridges from his stage-partner's revolver.

Moss was hurled to the floor of the stage and the bear clawed viciously at his face and body. John Home, stage hand, went head foremost through a window, taking the cash with him.

DOGS KILL 9 DEER IN NEW ORLEANS ZOOL
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 19.—Directors of the City Park Improvement association at their meeting severely censured owners of the dog that killed nine deer in the City Park. They deplored the negligence in allowing hunting dogs to roam at large in a district where wild game are held in captivity.

The board decided to make additional improvements to the golf course at the park. There are no funds set aside for this work and the improvements will be carried out by park employees.

Citizens In Capital Fight High Rents

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Washington is having a frightful time with its housing shortage.

The city has grown tremendously since the war began. There was almost no building while the conflict raged. Since then so many apartment houses of the very expensive type have been put up that the increase in population has been over-taken. Of living accommodations at moderate rentals, however, the scarcity is terrible.

The landlords have taken advantage of the situation. They have an airtight organization which treats the tenants of high-priced habitations with consideration, since there are not enough of them to go around, but practices the most unheard of extortions upon occupants of the cheaper ones.

On an average of $20 a month apartment now costs $100 and the tendency still is upward.

Ten thousand organized government employees, joining hands with the District Tenants' league, have appealed to President Coolidge for relief. They will lay their case before congress when it meets in December.

OLDEST FARM HORSE IS PENSIONED AT 52

GARY, S. D., Nov. 19.—The oldest living farm horse in South Dakota is spending his declining years on the farm of Lars Rungie, three miles west of Gary. He is a sorrel mustang and has sported around the Rungie place for 52 years. Rungie and his horse have retired from active work.

"The old boy has helped me through years of adversity and I figure that he has earned his pension," said Rungie. "I hauled grain to Canby with that horse in the earlier days and I never had carter trouble or tire punctures. Aside from a few missing teeth, my horse is still in good physical condition and there is no reason why he should not live 10 more years or even longer. He is getting the best feed and attention and is a real pensioner."

LETTER FROM JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT TO LESLIE PRESCOTT

Dear Leslie: Arrived here this morning all safe and sound. Went directly to the office and found that Mrs. Atherton had been a regular trooper getting things under way. I imagine that she will be able to leave for Pittsburgh day after tomorrow.

The Acme people have been more than kind to me. The president of the company said that he had intended to arrange so that I could become a member of the firm by the first of the year. He was good enough to say that he had never had anyone in his employ that could handle men as well as I. This, of course, was very flattering to me as it is one of the things that I pride myself on.

Speaking of handling men, I am afraid I am going to have trouble with that cub Condon. You remember I told you of the imperious way in which he spoke of you and Mrs. Atherton. It seems that he has been roped in by Mable Carter, that woman who was in the papers so much last spring when her husband was tried for murder.

Mrs. Atherton read me today parts of a letter where he asked her to take the woman under her wing when she arrived in Pittsburgh. Mrs. Atherton is quite worked up about it. Of course she declined to do anything of the sort and must have written a very snappy letter to Condon, telling him just what she thought about the matter. In return the woman wrote Mrs. Atherton a letter telling her that Condon had shown her Mrs. Atherton's refusal to have anything to do with her and that it was war to the knife from now on.

Mrs. Atherton is of the opinion that under the circumstances she ought not to go over to Pittsburgh at all, but I tell her she is crazy, that I would much rather fire the boy than to get along without her. She is worth much more to me in the business.

She seems to like the young chap very much. Says he was very good to both her and her husband when her husband was recovering from his blindness. She doesn't want to jeopardize his position in the plant and made me promise I would keep him on. I can see, however, she is afraid something will happen that will bring discredit upon him and much scandal perhaps to all of us. I was for discharging him immediately but she begged me not to do so. Said Condon was most efficient in a business way. This was confirmed by your father who had told me that he had practically run the plant while he was ill.

I hate very much to have Mrs. Atherton start in alone as no one will know what that she-devil will put the boy up to and no one knows better than I what a fool a man can make of himself when he thinks he is in love with a woman.

I did not see mother until noon. She is looking very well indeed, but that damned old maid, Priscilla Bradford, has gotten her all stirred up again.

What is it, Leslie, that makes old people's brains incapable of looking on the bright side of things? Mother told me about your letter. Said you practically told her you didn't want her to live with us. She seems to think she ought to come and live in Pittsburgh. I'll talk to you about this when I arrive home.

Wife's Job Biggest, Missing Explorer Said

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—"To Silver—whose job was harder than looping the Atlantic, and a damn sight more important," W. W. N.

This inscription, hand-written by William Wehman Nutting in the first copy of his book, "The Track of the Typhoon," is a consoling treasure now to "Silver" as she awaits news of him and his boat, the "Leir Eirikson."

"Silver" is Mrs. Nutting. Her husband, with Arthur S. Hildebrand, author, John Olaf Todahl, marine artist, and Theodore Fleischer, Norwegian government scientist, sailed westward from Frederikshaab, Greenland, in a 42-foot "skooner" on Sept. 9.

After more than two months she still is waiting, in spite of an alarm broadcast along the north Atlantic coasts and ship lanes and a special search by the United States cruiser Trenton.

534 Issues Handled During Record Day

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Upsetting all forecasts the New York stock exchange entered its 13th day of unprecedented activity following a new record spurt yesterday when 2,257,750 shares were dealt in.

The day's advance carried industrial stocks up 1.25 per cent and railroad stocks up .75 per cent, the entire market advancing exactly one point, which broke all existing records.

A total of 534 separate issues were traded in and 68 industrial stocks went into new high ground for the year and new high prices were established by 26 railroad stocks.

PAPER CHARGES CAL HAMPERS FRENCH LOAN

PARIS, Nov. 19.—The Eree Nouevelle says the Coolidge administration has raised difficulties in the way of the proposed $100,000,000 loan of J. P. Morgan to France.

Negotiations, it is learned, have suffered a temporary hitch, but those interested are hopeful that the difficulties raised by the American government can be overcome and the loan agreement signed.

MARKETS

WALL STREET JOURNAL FINANCIAL REVIEW

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Stocks started today's session with an outburst of activity fully equal to anything seen since the market entered its recent progressive phase, enormous dealings characterized the morning trading and the whole market forged into new high grounds on the movement.

But this pace was a little too swift for safety. Profit taking which made its appearance in heavy volume in the afternoon, was reported to be for the account of interests exchanging considerably higher prices before closing of the year, but who felt that the market was likely to get out of hand if the recent feverish activity was maintained.

SECOND GAME OF RECENTLY ORGANIZED CITY BASKETBALL LEAGUE TO BE PLAYED IN FRANKLIN GYM FRIDAY NIGHT AT 7:30

Bernardi To Be Weighed at Ringside Monday Night

Wop Lopping Off 12 Pounds To Be In Eklund Class

BY BILL ARCHER
The News Sport Editor

GENTLEMEN, if you don't think there's going to be a battle in Elks theater next Monday evening when Mr. Clarence Eklund, champion of the Cauliflower land, and Mr. Tony Bernardi, "The Gas House Wop," shake hands and start the racket, you're just dead wrong.

Mr. Bernardi's intensive training being conducted each afternoon from 4 to 6 p. m. at the arena in Port Arthur Athletic club, indicates to our satisfaction that Tony means to wrest the belt from Eklund here Monday evening if there's a way it can be done. And contrary to the general idea prevalent over our fair streets, Tony is reducing.

Bernardi had 12 pounds to lopp off when he accepted the match with the light-heavyweight champion. Perhaps it wouldn't be fair to announce just yet how much he has lopped off, but Tony invites the public to come up to the Athletic club and witness his training tactics, and said late yesterday afternoon that he is confident he will be hitting the 175-pound mark when he and Eklund tangle up Monday night.

Bernardi will be weighed in public at the ringside in Elks theater on the night of the match; scales will be transferred to the theater Monday afternoon, and Bernardi weighed in where everybody can see the weighing. Eklund, being the champion, is not required to prove his weight, and will probably not step on the scales, although out of courtesy to his challenger, he may also take a weigh-in.

It was decided yesterday to conduct the weight examinations in the Elks theatre rather than at Johnny Bourne's Barber shop in order to let as many witness the weighing as desire to.

Tony is "drying out" doing from four to five miles a day on the road each morning, and working in the ring from 4 to 6 o'clock each afternoon in preparation for the match. "The Wop" is very enthusiastic over the bout, and has repeatedly expressed the belief that he can beat Eklund at the championship bout.

Eklund will probably arrive in Port Arthur Sunday night, and will be busy shaking hands with old acquaintances all day Monday. The champion is well-known here, has appeared a time or two before in the Elks theatre, and has a record of victories behind him that the whole wrestling fraternity envies.

There is little question that he will furnish "The Wop" plenty of entertainment.

Return for Game

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark.—Instead of University of Arkansas students going home for Thanksgiving Day, former students and other football enthusiasts will return to their Alma Mater for the Southwestern conference battle here between the Razorbacks and Texas Christian University of Port Worth, Texas.

Although the Horned Frogs of T. C. U. have not won all their conference contests they have shown undeniable power in defeating Oklahoma A. and M. College and holding Southern Methodist University to one lucky touchdown.

Despite the fact that Blugie is the most promising young third baseman in the American League it is a well known fact to those on the side that he is being groomed for shortstop.

Blugie likes to play short better than third—showed that he could do the trick in the series. He is certain to get the call at that position when Peckinbaugh has outlived his usefulness as a regular.

COACH STEWART RECOUNTS DOPE

By E. J. STEWART
Athletic Coach University of Texas
Written for the United Press
AUSTIN, Nov. 19.—Before the 1924 Southwestern conference race got under way, it was my prediction that Baylor, S. M. U., and the Texas Aggies would be bunched for the lead at the close with the Longhorns in fourth place.

The teams are standing in that order today with the exception of fourth place, where Coach Heisman's Rice Owls are roosting and cannot finish lower than fourth place in event Baylor defeats the Owls Thanksgiving Day—a probability.

Season Productive
The 1924 season has been productive, developing a better balanced conference than previously, with T. C. U. and Rice showing the greatest improvement over 1923. Both teams have proved the real surprise packages of the year in this section and showing conclusively that the balance of power in neither material nor coaching is monopolized by a few schools.

It is true that the Western conference has its Yost, Wilcox, Zuppke, Stagg and others, but for a well-balanced group of eight teams and coaches I believe that the Southwestern conference has its strength more evenly distributed.

The award of the championship this season will not be difficult in event Baylor beats Rice, as the principle adopted by the conference last year relative to the game percentage will undoubtedly work to S. M. U.'s disadvantage.

Baylor Tied Once
Baylor has been tied once this season, while S. M. U. has three ties chalked against her—and one of them is Baylor. The Waco entry is my choice against Rice and I believe that S. M. U. will take the Oklahoma Aggies into camp with ease, providing the field is dry.

As far as dope shows the Longhorns' game with the Texas Aggies here Thanksgiving day looks all A. and M. But if the Longhorns recover from the injury epidemic which kept six Longhorn regulars out of the lineup the Turkey day battle will be much closer than many think.

Coach Bibb has a fine powerful team and we respect it, but the annual battle between the Aggies and Texas has a psychological background that often allows the under dog to put over a surprise.

It is my greatest desire to get the crippled Longhorns back in shape for the closing game and if such is possible the game will not be decided until the last whistle.

Jim Marley Leads List In Individual Points Scored

"Gentleman Jim" Marley, clever fullback of the University of Texas Longhorns grid machine, is tied up with Strickland of Baylor and Hale of Rice, with a total of 15 points each, for individual scoring honors in the Southwestern Conference race.

Cooperatives figures on the scoring players of the conference, made public today, show this fact. Despite the 237 points that have been scored in the conference, three touchdowns is the largest tally recorded for any individual player.

"Mitt" Danahy, of Texas A. & M. is not far behind the leaders of the pack, trailing by one lone point, and standing a good chance of coming higher as the Turkey Day classic with the Longhorns looms.

The statistics follow:

REVERSALS OF FORM ON COAST

Football reversals of form are not peculiar to the east and middle west. They also happen on the coast.

University of Southern California was all primed to hand its hated rival from the north, University of California, a trimming this year. It didn't.

A few days prior to the game California protested Bill Cole, star of Southern California. Stanford likewise protested.

The charge of professionalism against Cole was substantiated by a canceled check for $200, paid him for coaching the Santa Ana (Calif.) high school football team.

Using one's athletic ability for pay is a crime, according to the best rules for an amateur. Cole was declared ineligible.

California then proceeded to upset the plans of Southern California by defeating that team, 7 to 0.

THE NUT CRACKER

It's about time the wild bulls of South America got together and presented Senor Pique with an ultimatum, demanding an apology.

Mr. O'Goofy is one of those skeptical gents who think the Spanish revolution is being planned merely as publicity for the native enos.

California is open for boxing again and naturally the money-hung pug will make a stampede for the golden "gate."

James Corbett's modest admissions in "The Roar of the Growl" seem to settle beyond all doubt who the great, fast fighter of all time was.

It seems logical enough that the Yale players should be fed again. That's what they've got the food for.

It's not hard to get a steady girl these days, but keeping her steady is something else, if you know what we mean.

A. A. U. CONFAB IS UNDER WAY

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 19.—Important changes in the organization of America's Olympic teams based on the experience of the 1924 games at Paris, are recommended by William C. Prout of Boston, retiring president of the Amateur Athletic Union, in the report he will submit to the opening session of the organization's thirty-sixth annual convention tomorrow. Delegates representing nineteen district associations of the A. A. U. in all parts of the country as well as representatives of Canada, gathered tonight at the Hotel Ambassador to whip the opening program into shape.

Direct selection and financing the A. A. U. of future Olympic teams in all the branches of sport over which this organization has jurisdiction, principal among which are track, swimming, boxing and wrestling, is the outstanding proposal in President Prout's report, in which he points out that "from our experience this year, it would seem that it is almost impossible to have teams representing every branch of sport make the journey as a unit and have each team properly handled and provided for."

Navy Working Hard	ANNAPOLIS—The Varsity went through a long scrimmage with squad B devoting most of its time to practicing forward pass formations and plays, lending weight to the belief the Navy will count heavily on their aerial attack against the Army, November 29.
Jones' Men Resting	NEW HAVEN—Coach Tad Jones stuck to his plan of no scrimmage for the varsity before the Harvard game and sent the regulars through a signal drill with a short session at dummy football.

None of Big Boys Want Any of Gibbons' Wares, Tex Rickard Suddenly Discovers

"Every fighter in the country wants to fight Dempsey but none of them will fight Gibbons," Tex Rickard said recently in explaining why he couldn't make attractive heavyweight matches. The New York boxing commission learned the same thing late yesterday when it tried to get a better match than the Gibbons-Norfolk bout which had been arranged for the Christmas fund in Madison Square Garden on Dec. 9.

The commission summoned Harry Wills, Jack Renault and Gene Tunney, three of the leading challengers of Dempsey, to put a Gibbons match up to them.

Wills said he had a sore hand and couldn't box for at least two months. Renault said he had a sprained thumb. Tunney didn't show up at all. After being convinced that Gibbons was not wanted by the outstanding challengers for the heavyweight title, the commission approved the Gibbons-Norfolk match by a two to one vote.

William Muldon, former chairman held out for the Bartley Madden who was offered as a willing victim by his manager, Charley Rose. Gibbons, however, has beaten Madden before more decisively than Wills did last summer and the other two members of the commission wouldn't consider him.

Gibbons has been complaining since he went 15 rounds with Dempsey in Shelby last year that none of the first class fighters would meet him. His friends knew it to be true but it wasn't publicly proved until yesterday. Gibbons has been considered the best heavyweight in the world next to the champion and he is now shown officially to deserve that position.

If Dempsey wants to defend his title again—it is doubtful that he ever will fight again—he ought to meet Gibbons.

Last Conference Game

NAVASOTA.—The Rattlers played their last conference game, defeating Iowa 13 to 10. Friday they met Elgin Memorial in Brenham and put up a good fight but Elgin outplayed them, 7 to 0.

The Rattlers have played well this season, losing only three games the entire season.

Still Leads Chase

NEW YORK.—Although failing to add to his scoring total in the game against New York University Benkart of Rutgers, still leads in the chase for individual scoring honors of the Eastern intercollegiate gridiron with a total of 34 points. Eddie Tryon of Colgate crawled up to within 5 points of the Rutgers star with 29. John McBride Syracuse, is in the lead for field goal honors with eight.

Weak Back of Plate

For a young winning ball club the New York Giants are very weak back of the plate. McGraw seeks a star backstop. He will probably get him.

COACH LEE O. SMITH DICKERING FOR TWO MORE GAMES FOR PORT ARTHUR YELLOWJACKETS TO PLAY BEFORE SEASON CLOSES

Bruins Not to Play Full Strength On St. Edwards

TO SAVE FIGHT FOR TURKEY DAY

WACO, Texas, Nov. 19.—While most of the other Southwestern Conference teams are taking a rest over the week-end in preparation for the many terrific struggles on Thanksgiving, the Baylor Bears, chief claimants for the southwest title, will take on the powerful St. Edwards college eleven on Carroll Field Friday afternoon. St. Edwards has won 15 straight games and they bring a team to Waco capable of winning over the Bruins unless Bridges unloosens his full strength, which is not likely. As is their policy, the Bruins will pay less attention to the non-conference game and will point to their crucial game with Rice Institute in Houston on Thanksgiving. A victory or tie in the Rice battle will give the Bruins the Southwestern championship for either of such results would give them a better record within the conference than S. M. U. even though the Mustangs should win from the Oklahoma Aggies.

The Owls have a powerful team and their loss to Austin College is explained in the same manner of the Bruins' loss to the Kangaroos. Neither the Owls nor the Bears cared to open up with even a particle of their real strength in the games with Austin College in view of the fact that each faced a strong conference battle the following week. The Owls are not out of the race either and they will be fighting at their highest mental pitch guided by the coaching of John Heismann, dean of American football mentors. The Bruins realize they face a difficult battle against the formidable Owls and they are preparing for the game that means another championship for the Green and Gold if they are able to mark up a win or draw.

St. Edwards Saints will not be crunched for the Bruins and this hard struggle will make the odds more even when the Bears take on the Owls. Bridges believes that a stiff game with the Saints will put the Bears in better condition for Rice than if they rested.

FEINTING LOST ART IN BOXING

NEW YORK—Feinting is a lost art in boxing as the game is practiced today, says Jack Britton, former welter-weight champion.

Britton says that with one or two exceptions there are no fighters today who have a logical conception of what the feint is.

"In the old days," says Britton, "the first thing a fighter tried to master was the feint. Now when you mention 'feint' to a boxer he thinks some one has swooned. Leonard is probably the best exponent of the feint in boxing today. The lightweight champion at least knows what it is for."

"A lot of fighters today think they are feinting when they stab forward with a left hand and then draw a lead from the opposing fighter."

"Of course that is a feint but not the feint the fighter today steps back and out of harm's reach."

"That is not the idea of the feint. It is not a defensive weapon. It is clearly an offensive stroke."

"When you feint and the opposing boxer strikes out with a punch it is your cue to step in and beat him to the punch. Otherwise your feint, in drawing the enemy fire, has availed you nothing."

Babe Given Stick

Cricket is the national sport of England. It is like baseball in that a ball and bat are used. The ball is larger than the American sphere and the bat flat and heavier. The ball is not any too lively and consequently long drives are not common. Babe Ruth, America's greatest baseball slugger, was presented with a cricket stick on the coast the other day. Babe contemplated the weapon thoughtfully for a moment. "It looks like a fine thing to use in a slap-stick comedy but I wouldn't want to hit against Johnson with it," he admitted.

Billy Evans Says—

Notre Dame as Champs
Impressive Showing
Joy Over Wisconsin Win
Come Interesting Data

What is the greatest football team in the country? Ordinarily that is a question that could only be answered by a cross-word puzzle expert.

This year, because of the many surprising upsets, the task may not be as difficult as usual, provided Notre Dame continues to run true to form.

If there is one outstanding team in the country at present it is Notre Dame. So far it is one of the very few major teams that hasn't come out on its record.

Notre Dame, playing one of the hardest schedules a team ever faced, has successfully vanquished worthy foes on successive Saturdays since the opening of the season.

Unless Notre Dame should suffer a form reversal it will be hard for the experts to give that team other than number one rating in the football standing.

Rockne's eleven still has the stiffest kind of opposition ahead but should go through the season undefeated.

While the victory over Princeton, the defeat of the Army and the win from Georgia Tech were pleasing to Coach Rockne of Notre Dame, I doubt if any of them gave him the satisfaction he enjoyed over the Wisconsin triumph.

Notre Dame is located in Big Ten territory. Rumor has it that Notre Dame would not object to membership in the western conference. This may or may not be true.

It is a fact, however, that Rockne regularly attends the Big Ten schedule meetings with a hope of booking games. At the last meeting, despite many overtures, only Wisconsin and Northwestern booked Notre Dame.

While Rockne has no grievance against Wisconsin, rather is very friendly toward that institution, he sought a victory to show the rest of the Big Ten that Notre Dame was of worthwhile caliber.

Also the fact that Wisconsin has four football victories to its credit over Notre Dame was another reason for a much desired victory.

Notre Dame's overwhelming defeat of Wisconsin gives it a high standing as far as a Big Ten rating. Its defeat of Georgia Tech fixes its southern status. Winning from Princeton and the Army gives an eastern ranking.

Any way you figure it, regardless of your partisan feelings, you must slip number one rating to Notre Dame, provided it goes through the season with a clean slate.

They've Stopped Grange!

ALD GRANGE

Famous Illinois grid star, whose name is a by-word of football, is out of the game for the remainder of the season.

PIGSKIN PRIMER

What is the definition for the term "neutral zone"? In football there are two lines of scrimmage, one for each side. The two forward lines are separated by a space equal to the length of the ball. This space is known as the neutral zone and may not be encroached upon until the ball is put in play.

Can a player about to make a forward pass, seeing none of his side in position to handle the toss, throw the ball in front of him in order to make an "incomplete pass"?

Such an act is not permissible. If permitted it would do away with much of the uncertainty attending the pass. There is a penalty of 15 yards and the loss of a down for so doing.

What must be the position of the players on a team doing the kicking prior to the kickoff?

The kicker's side must be behind the ball when it is kicked off or the play is illegal. If a player is off side, the ball is brought back and kicked off from a point five yards back of the original mark, a new restraining line.

Timers Questioned

TRENTON, N. J.—Both time keepers who officiated at the Firpo-Walton bout at Newark last Wednesday night will be called before Chief Boxing Inspector Adams and ordered to explain why the eleventh round was ten seconds short. Mr. Adams noticed an apparent shortening of the tenth period and during the eleventh round he held a stop watch. Adams thinks that during the excitement of the bout the time keeper unintentionally pulled the bell too soon.

Weak on Defensive

Very often backfield men who star on offense are weak defensively. Even Grange is far from a wonder on defense.

SOONER COACH SEES VICTORY

By BENNIE OWEN
Head Football Coach Oklahoma University.

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 19.—Sooner or later the fortune of destiny—that indispensable luck piece which every football team covets in the course of a season, will prove a boomerang to its hopes.

Drake defeated the Kansas Aggies last Saturday on a technical decision awarded by a dubious umpire after the Manhattan team had clearly outplayed the invading Bulldogs.

This Saturday, the Iowa State College team will battle the Drake team at Ames. Ames this year has not received as many breaks in the game as the Drake team if the law of averages is any good Drake's hopes for an undefeated season will be blasted. The Iowa Cyclones make up one of the strongest teams in the valley and their particular force this year has been that of chewing up opposing teams.

Nebraska, back from her 6 to 34 defeat at the hands of Notre Dame will have one of its hardest games in the valley Saturday when the hucksters engage the Kansas Aggies at Manhattan. Coach Bachman of the Aggies is one of the smartest coaches in the conference and his doughty ingenuity keeps every rival coach guessing.

The game between Kansas and Missouri November 22 is simply a toss up in the matter of hope. I would rate the Kansas squad as having a better chance to win because the Tigers are liable to grow stale from such an arduous season as they have gone through.

Oklahoma should have comparatively easy time with the Washington team at St. Louis, Saturday, but the Sooners will not go into the game as over confident as they were in 1922 when with all the dope in their favor they were held to a scoreless tie by the Pikers.

Parke Comes Back

NEW YORK—Ivan Parke is living up to the great reputation he established as an apprentice boy.

The leading jockey last season, Parke again threatened to carry off that much coveted turf honor.

Many of the experts predicted that Parke's showing would suffer a decided slump when he lost his weight allowance.

Rice Owls Busy

HOUSTON.—With blackboard sessions twice daily and practically all practices directed to defensive play, Coach Heismann's Rice Owls are working valiantly to stop the Baylor Bears here on Thanksgiving Day.

ASKS U. S. TO TAKE FAMILY OFF HIS HANDS

CEIDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Nov. 19.—Gottfried Steinmetz, a farmer living near Homestead, Ia., has gone to federal court here to get the government to take a white elephant off his hands in the person of Adam Gebauer, his wife and five children, whom he brought here from Germany several months ago.

According to Steinmetz's story to federal officials, his wife read in a German paper that Gebauer and his family were starving. Wishing to do a good deed, Steinmetz swore the Gebauers were relations, he told the court, and brought them to this country. Their trip and living expenses since here have been more than $1000. Steinmetz said he expected Gebauer to work on the farm for his living but soon found that he was an aristocrat and had never worked.

PROTOCOL OF GENOVA SCRAPPED BY BRITISH SAY

LONDON, Nov. 19.—The Geneva protocol is scrapped," the Daily Telegraph declared, following announcement that the British government has asked the league of nations to "postpone" discussion of the security and disarmament protocol adopted recently by the league assembly.

What the Baldwin government actually requested was that the council, when it meets at Rome, Dec. 8, leave the proposed pact of its agenda. The Daily Telegraph interprets this as an indication that the conservative element will reject the protocol signed by Ramsay Mac Donald.

PASTOR HEARS THUGS PLOT TO KILL HIM

ST. LOUIS, S. D., Nov. 19.—Forced to sit in his auto which had been taken in charge by two young bandits, whom he had kindly given a ride, Rev. John Solem, a well-known South Dakota clergyman, was compelled to hear the bandits discuss what they should do with him—whether they should shoot him and throw his body into a cornfield, or should blind and gag him and throw him into a ravine.

After he had driven on a short distance, he suddenly looked around and discovered that the muzzles of two revolvers were pointed directly at his head. The bandits then relieved him of his money, amounting to about $50, and demanded that he turn the car over to them. The minister managed to escape later.

NEW LONDON

paid well but for which there was no need. The taxpayers paid for this until protest grew into a public growl and this to a demand that the system be removed and a business system voted to look after something that had never succeeded in doing. That of looking after the rights of the smallest to the highest taxpayer.

The first thing which the city manager form of municipal government did for New London was to cut the tax rate from 5 mills to 26 mills. This has been still further reduced.

$250,000 Saved a Year.
Today New London has more streets and sidewalks, made far more pretentious municipal improvements on an annual budget of $1,300,000 than it previously had been able to do on an annual budget under the political form of government of $1,555,000.

A quarter of a million dollars saved. That is New London's story. Where did this money go under the political form? It went where the public which paid it was getting nothing in return. It went to extravagance. It went to carelessness. It went to negligence. It went to inefficiency. It went to political appointments, which were created to take care of a spoils system of government, to political patronage, and it leaked through every branch of city expenditures like a sieve.

Politicians Abandon Hope.
Under the city manager form the taxpayers now are getting the most economical administration in the history of the city. It has been able to accomplish in two years what it had never been able before to accomplish in ten. Instead of leaving a legacy of debts, it enters the year with clean books. The taxpayers believe in the city manager form so strenuously that politicians long since have given up all hope of ever getting back to the old form.

Under the city manager plan everyone in the different city departments has certain things to do, specific and definite, is given a way to do it, the time to do it, the limit for fruition, and is responsible to the people for it whereas before he was only responsible to a political leader.

This has weeded out incompetents, consolidated many appointments, the duties of which are now being done by one man instead of half a dozen, avoided duplication, voided all chances of "passing the buck" and has resulted in efficiency to a standard heretofore unknown in this city's municipal affairs.

U. S. CITIZENS26 Aliens Are Granted
Citizenships

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—Eight of 26 aliens admitted to United States citizenship in federal court yesterday were from Port Arthur, including one woman who married a foreigner and lost her American rights in this manner. Port Arthur people who renounced their allegiance to their former countries included Mrs. Lena Changas, Greek; Nicholas Martinez, Mexican; Marion Schuchardt, born in Austria; Solomon Sastine, born in Syria; John Gabourel, born in Honduras; Fred Loukas, born in Turkey; Samuel Bandman, born in Netherlands; Mox Olesky, born in Poland. Approximately 20 applications were denied for a number of reasons. A number of foreigners did not know enough of the American constitution as required, some could not read and write the English language, and one man was denied his citizenship because he claimed exemption during the war.

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—Several hundred Jefferson county teachers are expected to go to San Antonio on Thanksgiving day for the state Texas Teachers association meeting on that day. Special rates have been offered from Jefferson county by way of Austin. Miss Mary Sandall, county school superintendent will serve on two state committees. It is expected, however, that the number of teachers attending the association meeting this year will be lower than last year on account of the distance. There are only four cities in the state large enough to accommodate the delegation of teachers, which is one of the largest conventions to be held.

JEFFERSON TEACHERS
GOING TO SAN ANTONIO

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—Returns from the senatorial race from Liberty county received this morning by County Judge B. B. Johnson show that H. F. Triplett, successful candidate, received 2059 votes in that county. Other counties in this district have not as yet turned in a report on the senatorial race, although the law provides that they shall be sent in to the county judge immediately after the election.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Nov. 19.—The prize winning couple at the Beaumont fair Tuesday night were designated as C. M. Kichel, Jr., of 1032 Fifth street, and Miss Mamie Resch, of 1048 Seventh street, both of Port Arthur. They were awarded a set of candlesticks, given by the Phoenix Furniture company.

TEXAN NEAR DEATH
FROM CROSSING CRASH

SWEETWATER, Texas, Nov. 19.—Henry Bartlett, 48, was probably fatally injured when a Texas-Pacific passenger train demolished his automobile at a city grade crossing today. Bartlett sustained a fractured skull.

ASKS $10,700 DAMAGES
Following Auto Crash

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—Suit for $10,700 was filed here in district court yesterday by J. C. Fountain against R. S. Motherer. The suit was filed following an automobile accident when Mr. and Mrs. Fountain together with their two small children were riding in a car which collided with one driven by Motherer. According to the petition, all members of the Fountain family were injured and their car was also wrecked.

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—An inheritance tax check amounting to $10,617 was received by Miss Ada Lockhart, county tax collector here yesterday on the estate of John N. Gilbert, who died in June. Before his death, Gilbert was in the oil and lumber business and his estate at the time of his death was worth more than a million dollars.

MILLIONS WILL DIE DEC. 1ST AND DAILY THEREAFTER

The millions of live germs that you pour into your stomach daily, when drinking supposedly fresh untreated milk. Are by the PASTEURIZING PROCESS of heating fresh milk to a degree of 140 degrees rapidly cooled and bottled in sterilized bottles KILLED. Therefore offering you as pure a food as you could possibly pour into your stomach. That is the greater health measure the PASTEURIZED MILK MAN will offer you, at the same cost that you have been paying, so be prepared to hear his message.

NO EPIDEMIC OF DISEASE HAS EVER BEEN TRACED TO PROPERLY PASTEURIZED MILK

This is the second of a series of articles to appear daily in the Port Arthur News, telling you, vital facts regarding your better health.

Tax Check Paid

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—An inheritance tax check amounting to $10,617 was received by Miss Ada Lockhart, county tax collector here yesterday on the estate of John N. Gilbert, who died in June. Before his death, Gilbert was in the oil and lumber business and his estate at the time of his death was worth more than a million dollars.

MORE INTEREST IN DOG SHOW THAN IN FAIR

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—Fair officials declared here today that there was more interest being shown in the dog show which opens here tomorrow than in any other feature of the exhibition here. Dogs have been entered from all parts of the United States and valuable awards have been offered in several departments. Dogs will be judged by Dr. George Walter Clayton, Chicago, one of the best dog show judges in the United States.

AUTO LICENSES TO BE ISSUED IN SEQUENCE

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—All Jefferson county automobile licenses will be issued in consecutive order during 1925. The first license to be issued here will bear the number 433,101, and will run on through to 433,100. It was not easy to determine licenses from this county last year since the numbers were not consecutive.

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Captain Turner, retired ex-commander of the Cunard Lusitania is travelling to Australia in the steamer. He desired to visit his son hurriedly and all other accommodations were taken.

Dr. E. D. Bernard is again attending to his practice after spending a month at Mayo Bros. Clinic in Rochester, Minn.—Adv.

Fashion Has D. T.'s
And Goes Color Mad
CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Don't blame it on synthetic gin if in the near future you see a shamrock-green poodle peering out the window of some stately limousine bowling along the mall.

A sky-blue show frolicking on a leash beside a fashions de matron need not make you think you have the heebiegeebies.

A crimson King Charles nestling in a dowager's arms will not be proof that you are going nutty.

Such hysterical sights may be expected soon on American boulevards, according to a beauty specialist recently returned from abroad.

"Fashion across the pond," the expert said, "has the delirium tremens. A society woman in Paris' gayest set was recently seen in the Champs Elysees leading a gaily colored poodle by a leash. The poodle with matched her frock in color, naturally created a sensation. The next day mademoiselle appeared with her Persian cat tinted the same color as the upholstery of her limousine, her great furry pet certainly the last word in feline splendor. Now all the women of the French capital are following her example and dyeing pets to harmonize with the gown in the latest word in style. The fad may be expected in the United States before long."

AGGIE EXES TO MEET MONDAY

Rep Meet Scheduled by Port Arthur Contingent

With a snappy football program all fixed for their regular meet in the main dining room of the Plaza next Monday night, Aggie exes are loaded for a great pep meet.

A special effort is being made to make this a old-timey fest and ball pen, since it is the last regular meeting before the Thanksgiving game, and all details will be fully explained, it was announced.

Another feature of the meeting will be the election of a vice president to take the place left vacant by Todda Forbes, Aggie basketball star who recently moved to Houston.

"Every ex-Aggie is invited and expected to attend this meeting," M. Blankfield said. "The meeting holds special interest this week, for the Thanksgiving game this year will dedicate the new Longhorn stadium. No ex-Aggie can afford not to come out for these meetings for the college spirit that has held forth at the past meetings has been an inspiration to all old-timers."

Vamping of Barbers May Bar Women

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Chirotonsors today announced a fight against vamps.

The chirotonsors—new stuff for the barber—particularly, if he is handsome, is made the subject of enormous attentions from his girl clients, according to delegates attending the convention of the Associated Master Barbers of America.

Henry Weaver, official of the organization, declared that unless the bobbed hair girls mend their ways, it will be necessary to organize a society for the prevention of vamping of chirotonsors.

The problem is serious and many shops have put a ban on women, he declared.

HOUSTON SAFETY SQUAD TO ASSIST FIREMEN

HOUSTON, Nov. 19.—Fourteen Houston citizens have been sworn in and received police commissions as members of the new "safety squad," a squad formed by Alie Anderson, fire commissioner.

Organization of the men, several of them switchmen for the various railroads, came about as the result of a tie-up of several pieces of fire apparatus at a railroad crossing while on the way to a bad fire. The railroad members will see that the crossings are cleared for the apparatus and other members will assist firemen in every possible way.

HOSTESS POURS HOT JAVA ON CARD PLAYERS

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 19.—The point at which "friendship games" was found at a card party here one evening recently.

CHAMP SPUD GROWER RAISES 80 TO ACRE

QUITMAN, Nov. 19.—Milt Blalock of the Myrtle Springs community, is the champion sweet potato grower of this section. In spite of the drought Blalock produced 80 bushels of splendid potatoes from a single acre of land. Blalock's record will stand long, farmers believe.

Ex-Deputy Sheriff Dies at Beaumont

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—Charles Bryant, aged 52, a life-long resident of Beaumont, died at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning at the family residence, 1117 College street, here.

The deceased was well known in this county. He served as deputy sheriff for eight years, assisting Ias Lander. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. George Spence, his wife, Mrs. Tomie Bryant, died in Wichita Falls eight years ago. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. C. J. Ficken and a brother, George Bryant, both of this city.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning from the Roberts Undertaking company parlors here.

DROUTH CAUSES MANY BREAKS IN PIPES

Continued drouth in Port Arthur is creating trouble for the city water department.

W. L. Hastings, head of this department, made this fact known this morning at the city hall when he said that numerous complaints regarding water line breaks and leaks had been reported to the water department as a result of the dry weather.

"There have been fewer leaks, however, reported this month than last," Hastings said.

YOUTH IS KILLED BY FALL FROM TREE

AUSTIN, Nov. 19.—Martin Hankins, 19, is dead from injuries sustained in a 25 foot fall from a pecan tree. Hankins, with other members of his family, was gathering pecans at the time of the fatal accident.

Aviator Known Here Has Narrow Escape

Crashing into a fence at his landing field in Breau Bridge, La., John Broussard, aviator, who has visited Port Arthur and is well known here, wrecked his plane when he was returning to Breau Bridge from New Orleans, where he met the world aviators, according to word received by friends in Port Arthur today. Broussard was attempting to land after dark when his plane hit a fence and smashed. He escaped without injury.

BANDITS GET $2,000 IN RAID ON BANK

MINERAL WELLS, Texas, Nov. 19.—Approximately $2,000 was the loot of bandits who ransacked the Whitt State bank at Whitt near here during the night. The robbery was discovered when the bank opened for business today.

Relieves Rheumatism

Musterole loosens up stiff joints and drives out pain. A clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard, it usually brings relief as soon as you start to rub it on.

It does all the good work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster, without the blister. Doctors and nurses often recommend its use.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

"Good to the Last Drop"

ROMANCE lies within the circle of your cup of Maxwell House. That fragrant aroma breathes of Araby and distant sun-wrapped lands where the finest coffee is grown.

There are visions of the great ships breasting foamy miles to bring the treasure home.

There's the long, long quest for the exact blending of these fine coffees to create the flavor that is "Good to the Last Drop."

Texas Loans Reduced By 5 Millions

AUSTIN, Nov. 19.—Deposits in the 941 state banks increased $51,000,000 between the bank calls of June 30 and Oct. 19, the state banking department announced. Cash and quick assets in the banks grew by $37,000,000 during the same time, and money borrowed from the banks was reduced five and a half million dollars. These were the outstanding features of the consolidated report covering the last state bank call.

These reflect a satisfactory condition of state bank affairs, according to the department.

On Oct. 10, there was on deposit in these banks, $302,362,030, and the banks had in addition, surplus and undivided profits of $19,389,000. Total capital stock was $42,428,700, a decrease of $197,500 between the two calls. One bank was closed during that period. The banks show a $4,773,771 assessments for the state guaranty fund. Loans and discounts personal and collateral, were $178,944,000, and on real estate, $24,841,000 on Oct. 10.

Scientists Demand Evolution Be Taught

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—At an overflow mass meeting here a campaign was started, under auspices of the recently organized Science League of America, to combat efforts to prevent instruction on the theory of evolution from being given in public schools and colleges.

Among the speakers were Luther Burbank, plant wizard; Dr. David Starr Jordan, chancellor of Stanford university; Dr. William E. Ritter, noted biologist; C. C. Mundell, formerly a Congregational minister, and Maynard Shipley, president of the league.

President Shipley declared it is the purpose of the campaign to "keep evolution in the schools and the book of Genesis out." Dr. Jordan disagreed.

"I would let in not only Genesis, but the whole Bible," said Dr. Jordan. "All I ask is the free air for truth and it will hold its own."

UNCLE SAM OWES 6000 BUT CAN'T FIND 'EM

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Mabel G. Reinecke, collector of internal revenue has 6,000 little sums of money just waiting to be spent.

The money represents refunds on 1923 taxes which the government owes 6,000 Illinois citizens but who it has been unable to locate and make payment.

Payment was attempted through checks mailed out but were returned when the postman failed to find the parties to whom the money was due.

"We are very anxious to get this matter closed up and help the government get its books properly adjusted," Mrs. Reinecke said. "And it would be considered a favor by this department if our creditors would make their present whereabouts known to us."

CONGESTION IN INSANE HOSPITAL IS RELIEVED

CINCINNATI, Nov. 19.—All congestion at the Longview hospital for the insane here has been relieved for the first time in ten years, according to an announcement in the Public Health Federation bulletin. A few months ago 200 patients were found sleeping on the floor of the institution, the bulletin said, because of lack of accommodations. The improvement has been made since the hospital has been taken over by the state.

DOCTOR URGES SPECIAL CHAIRS FOR WOMEN

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 19.—American women suffer needlessly and it's all the fault of furniture manufacturers, according to Dr. C. H. Jennings, who addressed members of the Michigan Osteopathic association in convention at the furniture city recently.

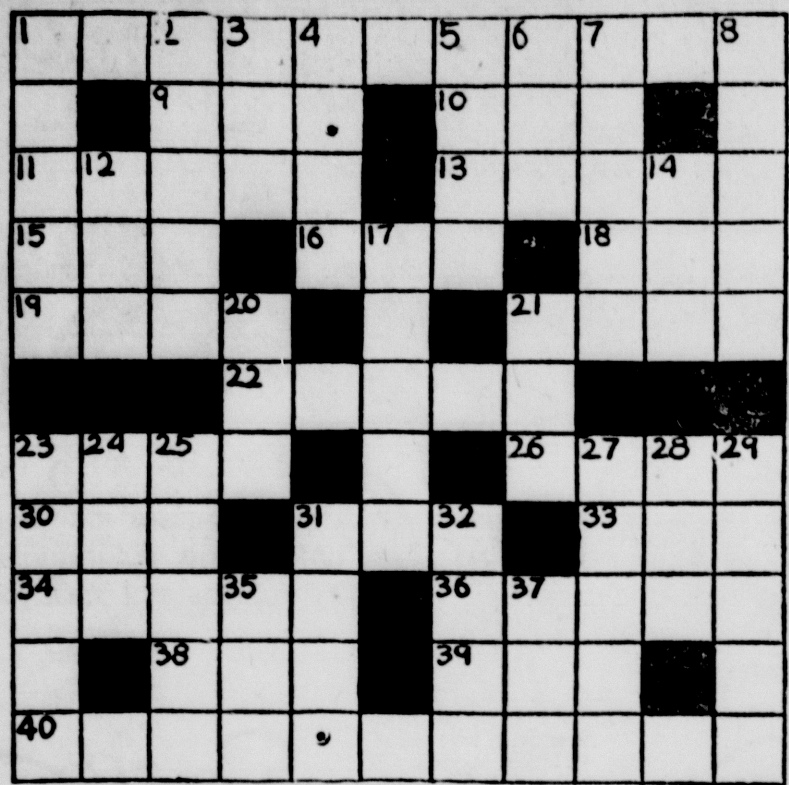

It is all because the shape of chairs isn't well adapted to the peculiar construction of woman.

The fallacy is in failure to allow for woman's hips. As a result women get into the habit of sitting on one foot. This effects the spine which in turn produces headache to which women are especially susceptible.

"This habit of drawing one leg up under the other tilts the pelvis and has a tendency to create spinal curvature and would seem to warrant a special manufacture of special chairs for women," Dr. Jennings says in a lengthy report of his findings.

GIRLS TO CHART SARGASSO SEA

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—In the future it will probably be "Mile. Columbus."

For, although it cause the bones of Cortez, De Gama, Magellan, Marco Polo and all the rest to turn in their graves, it must be reported that a woman's hand will be first to record the secrets of one of the great romantic mysteries of all time: the Sargasso sea.

And another woman's hand will paint for posterity the replicas of these new-sealed secrets.

The two young women are Miss Ruth Rose, historian of the New York Zoological society, and Isabel Cooper, artist, and they are part of the intrepid scientific crew that sails away in the laboratory ship Arcturion to strip the Sargasso of its legend and fable.

Thus far the reports of this strange floating mass of seaweed and sea life have been extremely vague. It lies between the Azores and Bahamas, though the exact location is indefinite.

GOVERNMENT YEAR BOOK BECOMES BEST SELLER

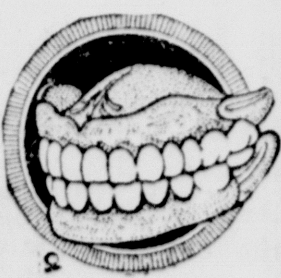

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The department of commerce year book, recording almost the entire work of the department for 1923 has made its second annual appearance and is in great demand.

The volume, comprising 714 pages, represents the efforts of a large staff of government business experts in all parts of the world, as well as the United States.

It is intended not only as an authentic reference book of basic facts but as a guide in the study of outstanding problems of trade, production, price changes and market conditions. It sells for 85 cents.

DECLARES RUM BREEDS MORONS

English Doctor Would Bar Marriage of Sots

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Parents who are addicted to alcohol or who have become intoxicated on three or more occasions are a menace to society, and marriage of any person thrice convicted of intoxication should be prohibited by law, to protect the race against the propagation of degenerates, according to Dr. T. B. Hyslop, a noted English alienist.

For many years, Dr. Hyslop was medical superintendent of Bethlehem hospital, and his observation there has convinced him that even occasional excessive use of alcohol will so undermine health that wholesome minded children cannot be expected when one or both parents are guilty of intemperance.

"We see so many evidences of degeneration resulting from alcoholism in parents that I am strongly of the opinion that, just as the habitual drunkard is deprived of his liberty, so the existence of the alcoholic habit should be considered a bar to matrimony," Dr. Hyslop writes in his book, "The Borderland," just published here.

OLD SPANISH TRAIL TRAVELOG IS ISSUED

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 19.—Old Spanish Trail headquarters have issued a new travelog which gives travel and descriptive information from St. Augustine, Fla., to San Diego, Calif. It is bound in art covers of typical eastern and western scenes. The information includes mileage and road conditions between the towns and cities, mileages from any one point to another point across the continent, population, elevation, local description, old history, maps, pictures of the zero milestones, campsite data, hotels, local OST officials, etc., and gives locations of information bureaus.

A new four-color lithograph map four feet long is now in process. This map will show the whole south country, and also in colors the important highways from the north feeding into the Old Spanish Trail.

'Looney' Gas Fails To Harm Animals

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Experiments conducted by the U. S. bureau of mines on a small menagerie of animals show, thus far, that gasoline containing tetra-ethyl-lead is not more dangerous with this ingredient than without it, according to the official journal of the American Institute of mining and metallurgical Engineers.

The journal warns against the hasty passage of legislation to prevent the use of lead or other substances which make fumes dangerous to motorists. The death of several Standard Oil employees in New Jersey, he thinks, does not necessarily indicate carelessness.

"During the war extensive experiments were carried out to discover a dope for gasoline that would increase its effectiveness and power in motor-driven vehicles," says the journal.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Adv.

MRS LONGWORTH LAYS POLITICS

Daughter of 'Teddy' Knows The Game

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth is considered the most influential individual politically in Washington today.

Not being a public character though like her father, she has not the sort of influence with the mass of voters he had, but doubtless she could obtain it if she chose.

But that is not her method. Mrs. Longworth pulls the strings and when she pulls them she gets results in congress and the executive offices. She gets most anything she wants.

Whether Mrs. Longworth deliberately set out to acquire all this political power or whether she attained it through more or less natural developments that she never particularly willed, perhaps she doesn't know herself.

When congress is in session, Mrs. Longworth attends the sessions of the house of representatives almost as faithfully as her husband. She knows absolutely everything that goes on in politics, and she understands it inside-out.

It is no exaggeration to say she shapes national policies, executive and legislative—not all policies, of course, but those she is interested in, and her interests are very wide.

Congressman Longworth is the likeliest candidate for speaker of the house of representatives after March 4. If he is chosen, then just that much more power to his wife in national politics.

WOMEN'S ARMY CORPS PLANNED BY OFFICERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—A study of the part women played in the world war, with a view to "the utilization of women in all branches of the military service in case of future emergency," has been undertaken by the war department.

A questionnaire has been sent to all commanding generals of corps areas and department chiefs, asking for information on this subject, and the move has stirred up considerable interest in military circles.

The war department undertook the study as a result of recommendations from committees of the army war college and from officers of the general staff, who held that a study should be made of the advisability of organizing a women's army corps, in which the women would be regularly enlisted and uniformed.

LOVER SHOTS GIRL HE FOLLOWED TO U. S.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 19.—John Netik's love for Bertha Vedula, which she did not return, brought death to both of them when Netik shot the girl to death and then fatally wounded himself, after she had refused again to marry him.

The double tragedy took place at 324 Fifth street, where Miss Vedula lived with her sister, Mrs. Kate Richter.

After the shooting the girl in the temple, killing her almost instantly, Netik placed the muzzle of the revolver between his eyes, and pressed the trigger.

Miss Vedula came to America from Austria 13 months ago, her sister and police, and Netik followed her to this country a short time later. She repulsed his advances, however, and refused repeated proposals of marriage.

WISCONSIN TOWN AFRAID IT WILL RIVAL RENO

KENOSHA, Wis., Nov. 19.—Action to prevent Kenosha from becoming the "Reno of Wisconsin" was started when the county board of supervisors passed unanimously a resolution urging the state legislature to change divorce laws so that divorces could be obtained only in the county where principals had been residents for two years.

The resolution is a protest against the increasing number of divorce suits being brought to Kenosha from Milwaukee.

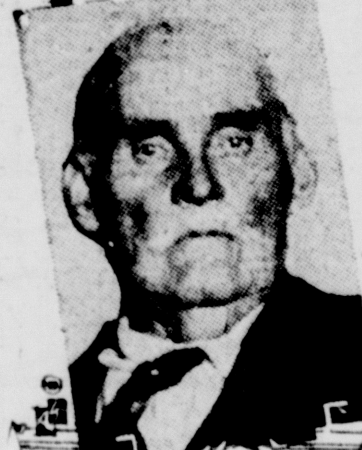

All of the divorce courts here are far behind in their calendars.

HELPLESS FROM STROKE, MAN BURNS TO CRISP

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 19.—To be rendered helpless by a stroke and then forced to wait until a fire burned his body almost to a crisp was the fate of Anthony Koskiewicz, 42, of Luzerne, Pa., an inmate of the lunatic asylum at Retreat, in the opinion of the attaches who made an investigation after the discovery of his body Saturday.

Koskiewicz, according to attaches, was fond of smoking. It is believed that the ashes of his pipe ignited the leaves in the field where he was working after he had fallen from an attack.

5411 QUALIFY AS LIFE SAVERS

Red Cross Work Is Making Great Progress

The life saving program of the American Red Cross has been a very definite contribution to life saving work in the southwest.

During three years' work 5411 persons have qualified as life savers. In 1921 and 1922, 879 qualified. In 1923, and 1924, 1322 qualified. In 1923 and 1924, 2980 qualified. It is interesting to note the comparative increase in membership during this three year period. This shows that remarkable progress has been made by Red Cross chapters in promoting life saving in southwestern division which includes the states of Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, New Mexico, Missouri and Texas.

Several chapters have used the part time life saving director through the summer months and school years. Dallas, Texas goes on record as being the first chapter in the division to employ a full-time director of life saving for the summer months, June, July and August. This year many chapters are making provision for a full-time director during the summer.

'Wild' Helium Shoots From Texas Well

SEYMOUR, Texas, Nov. 19.—Rising out of the mouth of a well near here at the rate of 10,000,000 cubic feet a day, natural gas, believed to be nearly pure helium, is escaping uncontrolled. The fact that repeated tests show this gas will not burn supports the theory that it is helium, which is used for inflation of dirigible balloons.

When the gas blow was struck at a depth of 995 feet it shot upward with such force as to blow out all connections. Since then it has been running wild.

The scene of the discovery is about 125 miles northwest of Fort Worth, where the big helium extracting plant of the United States army is. If the well proves to contain almost pure helium, it will mean development of a large new supply of the non-inflammable gas for dirigible uses.

G. B. S. HITS JAZZ LONDON, Nov. 19.—Dancing and high thinking are mutually incompatible in the opinion of George Bernard Shaw, famous author. During his recent stay in a London hotel, he first demanded that the young people cease dancing by 10 o'clock each evening. Then he finally made a formal request that dancing be stopped altogether, saying that his meditations were disturbed.

U. S. PLANNING DEER ROUNDUP

100 Cowboys To Move Herd of 8000

GRAND CANYON, Ariz., Nov. 19.—An attempt will be made this month to round up 3,000 to 8,000 deer, drive them to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, down the steep slopes of the gorge, up the other side and to the Tuzigoot National forest. Federal officials doubt if the southwest's most unique roundup will be a success. Some say that a cowboy for every deer will be required.

But State Game Warden G. M. Willard of Arizona and George McCormick, veteran Flagstaff cattleman, who has contracted to do the job, insist that it can be done.

McCormick will employ 100 picked cowboys. The drive is planned to save the lives of the deer, now in the Kaibab National forest, north of the Grand Canyon. The deer population has increased to the point where there is not grass enough to support them all. The transfer will be made to save the lives of thousands.

Eels sometime travel over considerable ground to go from one stream to another.

LAST SURVIVOR OF MERRIMAC CREW DIES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Capt. Henry H. Marmaduke, 82, the last known surviving officer of the battle between the Monitor and the Merrimac, died at his home in this city after a steady decline in health for more than a year.

In 1858, Capt. Marmaduke was appointed to the Naval academy from Missouri, but resigned in 1861 to become a midshipman in the Confederate navy. He was aboard the Merrimac when she steamed out of Norfolk navy yard, March 8, 1862, to participate in the engagement that marked the birth of ironclads at sea.

Capt. Marmaduke served in most of the major battles of the Civil war, and commanded a naval brigade which was captured at the fight at Sailor's creek, Virginia.

MEXICAN, 105, WEDS FOR THE THIRD TIME

AGUAS CALIENTES, Mexico, Nov. 19.—Nicolas Martinez, 105, was married in the cathedral here to Francisca Quintana, 80.

"It is my third marriage," Martinez said. "My first wife lived with me almost 70 years and we raised seven stalwart sons for Mexico. I lived with my second wife 14 years before her death and she bore me two more sons who also have fought for Mexico."

Carelessness Costs U. S. Half Billion

Not since 1906—the year of the San Francisco catastrophe—has there been such a heavy fire loss in this country as in 1923, when losses totaled approximately $508,000,000. In spite of this, the average fire insurance rate has declined from $1.03 per $100 in 1914 to 90 cents per $100 in 1923.

President Smith of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, before the annual meeting of that organization, declared that 75 per cent of all fires could be prevented by exercise of ordinary care. He added: "No country, however rich in created wealth, can continue to support such an enormous drain on its resources. Our wealth of today will surely be affected if we do not, as a nation, dam this annual waste."

The people rely upon insurance as protection against financial losses and overlook their own individual responsibility to prevent fires which destroy thousands of lives annually in addition to physical property.

STUDENTS VICE REPORT TRUE, REGISTRAR SAYS

BOSTON, Nov. 19.—The Boston Students' union, a community center for students, has endorsed the student report on vice and immorality in the college sections of greater Boston.

Miss Ellen H. Webster, registrar of the union, said the only exaggeration was the glaring headlines it had attracted all over the state. The report itself, she insisted, is the absolute truth, and applies not only to Boston but to practically every large college community in the country.

It was through the efforts of the union, Miss Webster said, that the students made the investigation. Much of the blame for conditions, she feels, should be shared jointly by universities and the trusting parents who are ignorant of the dangers of the small, attractive off-campus apartment.

Mayor of Evanston Proves City Has Heart

EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 19.—Crippled Hildur Lima's little world has grown—another street.

She has found a new bright flower blooming on an alien corner.

There's a bluejay nesting in that house just over the way once so far beyond traveling distance of her wheel chair.

Now there is sunshine in Hildur's life. To date it has not been much of a life. But Hildur, just 10, has made the most of it.

When little more than a baby an attack of infantile paralysis put her in her wheel chair. And the wheel chair couldn't go far away from her house except when somebody pushed it.

But Hildur always has longed to see that world of hers—no matter how small—by herself.

To her it was a big world. There was the corner so near and yet so far that she played in her day dreams was Paris. Some day she would go to "Paris" by herself.

The ambition could have been achieved, if it was not for a nasty curb that dropped like an abyss into the intervening street.

Day after day she would propel herself to the brink. There she would sit and dream of "Paris," the corner port.

This sort had been going on for some time when Mayor Harry P. Pearsons heard about it.

"We'll build special curbs for Hildur," said the mayor. "Have them made sloping and low so that she can cross easily."

And it was done.

"I'm just so tickled, I can scarcely say how glad I am," she says.

TEACHERS MUST GIVE UP HUSBAND OR POSITION

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Young Dutch women of the future who desire to dedicate their lives "to training the young minds of their country how to shoot," will be compelled to forego all carnal happiness and marital bliss.

Some time ago, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam, the Dutch minister of education ruled that all women school teachers who were married must leave their positions. Some women who wished to keep both their husbands and their salaries immediately obtained divorces—but continued to live with their ex-husbands as before.

Now along comes the minister of education with another decree that all teachers who have taken such steps must also look for another job.

MILK, BUTTER BY PLANE IS PLANNED IN GEORGIA

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 19.—With the purchase of 800 acres of land near here by Capt. R. B. Lipser, mechanical engineer of Chicago, it was announced that a landing field would be constructed and the transportation by airplane of dairy products throughout the state of Georgia would soon begin.

It is his plan, Captain Lipser said, to purchase several planes to be used to carry milk, butter, cream and cheese to various towns and cities.

Latest News From Louisiana Towns

NEW ORLEANS.—A tale of near-mutiny and piracy on the high seas when ghosts of John Silver, Captain Flint and Blind Pew apparently sailed upon four members of the crew of the West Madus was told by sailors officers when the vessel arrived here at the end of a Mediterranean run. One fine night four of the sailors raided the storerooms, seized trunks, eggs, steaks and other edibles. High spirits soon gave way to severe aches in four overloaded stomachs, and the four sailors spent the remainder of the voyage to New Orleans in irons.

NEW ORLEANS.—Appropriation of $200,000 for over 200 additional fire alarm boxes, and three new fire stations will be asked by the city fire board in its estimate of budget needs for 1925, officials of the board said.

VILLE PLATTE.—David Richard, accidentally hit by two automobiles as he attempted to cross the street here, died from his injuries in a New Orleans sanitarium several hours after he was rushed to that city for medical attention.

SHREVEPORT.—Suit for $50,000 has been filed in federal court here by Mrs. Joseph T. Wiggins against the Louisiana and Arkansas railroad as a sequel to the death of her husband, who was struck by lightning while serving as depot agent at Dry Prong, La.

ST. MARTINSVILLE.—Fred Fournet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fournet, suffered a fracture of his jaw bone during a football game here between the high school team and a team comprised of last year's high school graduates. The youth's jaw was broken in two places, attending physicians said.

CROWLEY.—A baby daughter of Gilbert Sinar was fatally burned and the entire family narrowly escaped death when gasoline from a filling station here became ignited while the tank of the car in which they were riding became ignited. A lantern is believed to have set fire to the gasoline. Mrs. Sinar was badly burned, but it is not believed her injuries are serious. The family was moving from their former home near Iota to Orange, Texas, and were in a school bus when the accident occurred.

THE TURMOIL

ST. MARTINSVILLE.—Louis C. Dachamp, 52, a native of Martineque, France, died at his residence here. He was a retired farmer and merchant. Several children survive.

SHREVEPORT.—A steamboat, the Janet, a dredgeboat and three barges, made defendants in a libel suit filed by L. E. Haring in federal court several months ago, were sold at public auction by Chief Deputy United States Marshal Page under order of Federal Judge Dawkins. The boats were bought by J. B. Atkins, Jr., of Shreveport, for $12,700.

DE RIDDER.—The Louisiana and Pacific railway has applied to the Interstate Commerce commission to abandon nine miles of its line from De Ridder Junction to Longacre, La.

CHURCH POINT.—Cleveland Thieriot, manager of the Tri-State Utilities company, operating telephone lines, died at his home here after a brief illness with pneumonia. Among other relatives, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. O. Wiltz, of Lake Charles.

STUDENTS FIND STILL PETERSBURG, Ind., Nov. 19.—Searching for specimens of ferns in a woods north of the city, girls of the local high school botany class stumbled on a still instead. They saw a trap-door hidden beneath a large bush-pile, opened it, and found a large still in an underground room.

PHONOGRAPH RECORDS PLAY 100 MINUTES

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—Twelve inch phonograph records that play for 100 minutes and reproduce whole operas by aid of radio loud speakers without the noise of needle scratching have been produced by Dr. Max Hausdorff of this city, working along principles evolved by an English inventor. The production costs of the new record will be much lower than for the five minute records, it is alleged.

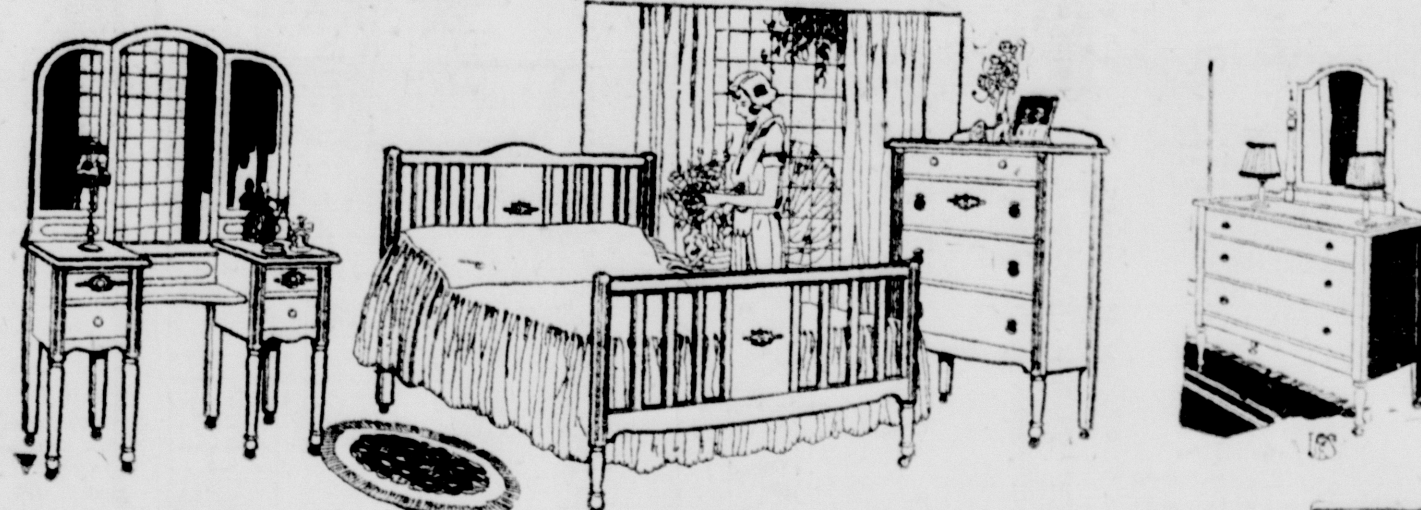

LYMPNE, England, Nov. 19.—The Honeymoon Express—the "cozy coupe" of the air—has made its appearance on the airplane market. It is a baby airplane with the pilot and the passengers seated side by side.

ROYALTY BEST TO PHOTOGRAPH

Camera Man Tells How He Made Prince Smile

LONDON, Nov. 19.—"Royalty are the best sitters in the world. No commoner whom I know shows such consideration for a photographer as do those of royal blood."

So said Richard Seaght, and he ought to know, for during the past 25 years he has had occasion to photograph members of almost every royal family in Europe.

Getting smiles at the proper moment is one of the greatest trials of every photographer. Two ways have been used by Seaght to get the Prince of Wales into the right mood. Once, when the prince was only a baby, he carried a number of toys which had the desired results. On another occasion not so long since he carried with him a friend whom the prince had not seen for a long time. Keeping this friend in the background until all was set, he was able to get a real and natural smile when the friend was produced.

Royalty also likes to take photographs it seems from another experience of Seaght. "Once, while photographing the eldest daughter of the Queen of Belgium, it was necessary for me," he says, "to mount a step-ladder to get just the right effect. Imagine my surprise and consternation when I heard the click of another camera just behind me immediately following the click of my own. The Queen had caught me in a very unflattering position, and seemed to be very happy about it."

LONDON MANSION IS SCRAPPED BY TRADE

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Another of London's imposing Victorian mansions is to be scrapped to make way for the needs of commerce.

Devonshire House, Piccadilly, the former town house of the Duke of Devonshire, is to be torn down to make room for the erection of a tourist office agency building.

When on the warpath, the old plains Indians often boiled their food in the skin of a buffalo.

NO. 2.—THE RIDDLE LADY ARRIVES

"It's the prizes," she exclaimed to Mrs. John.

"Hello, Nancy and Nick," called Riddle Lady hastily. "Here I am keeping everybody waiting." "Well, as for that," said Mrs. John setting the chairs around. "I suppose everybody will be keeping you waiting after while." "Well, everything went along very nicely, and after while lunch was over and the dishes cleared up and the guests began to arrive." "When everybody was there—even Sleepy Head and Slow and Simple Simon, the Riddle Lady gave out her first riddle. "This was it: "Sometimes I'm made of feathers, Sometimes I'm made of silk, Sometimes I'm black as furnace coal, And sometimes white as milk. "Sometimes I'm made of paper That brings the daily news, Sometimes of parchment painted o'er, With birds and flowers and views. "Sometimes I'm carried proudly To theaters and balls, But sometimes just to decorate The mantelpiece and walls. "But mostly Chinese use me, Or maids in ear Japan, There is no doubt you know my name, You've often seen a —" "That was the riddle and Nancy guessed it right off. "It's a fan, isn't it?" she said quickly. "It was, and she got the prize. The cutest fan you ever saw with a tassel on the handle. (To be continued.) (Copyright 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

CHILD'S STORY OF THE HUMAN RACE

GODS AND SOULS IN INDIA
Today I want to speak of the very old religions of India. I cannot tell you all that might be told, because that would take too long, but I can at least give you a few ideas.
You see pictured three gods of the Indians. (Remember that the true Indians lived in India). Those gods are called Vishnu, Siva and Brahma. Vishnu is said to be the one who lived first. One old story says that a lotus plant grew out of his body, and in the lotus flower Brahma was born. The god Brahma is pictured at the right—notice that he has many arms. The more perfect it becomes, the better kind of animal it will live in. The cow is a sacred animal in India. The pearls that is because the soul is supposed to dwell in the body of a cow before it is born as a human being. After the soul comes into human form, it has a chance to take the last step and become perfect. If it succeeds, it passes into bliss. An Indian would say: "The soul passes into Nirvana." By that he would mean that it becomes part of "the great one." Never Three gods of India are pictured here. Each one has four arms. The evil god Siva carries a small hatchet in one hand.

At the center is Siva, the evil god. He was supposed to live on top of the Himalaya mountains. He had a wife named Devi, who was just as cruel as he. Many people in India have bowed down in worship to Siva or Devi. An interesting belief has sprung up in India about souls after death. The belief is that souls have many lives. First they are crude and full of faults. Those faults must be taken away before a soul can find bliss. To get to be perfect, the soul must live in the bodies of all sorts of animals. If a man is bad, his soul is believed to have a hard time. It passes along gloomy paths. Its feet are cut by sharp stones, and burned by hot sands. Glowing coals fall on its bare back. The soul becomes bloody and thirsty, and cries out in pain. The bell of India is not supposed to last forever. After a soul suffers for a long time, it goes back to earth and lives either in an animal or in human form. It always has a chance to become perfect.

U. S. OFFICIALS HIT BY DEATH

Three of Victims Took Their Own Lives

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Death has cut a wide swath in the ranks of official Washington in the past four years, greater than old timers recall in any previous single administration.

Its victims include one president, one ex-president, one son of a president, one cabinet officer, the wife of a cabinet officer, a former White House physician, the wife of a supreme court justice, six prominent senators and several members of the house.

The most recent figure to succumb to this epidemic of official mortality was Henry Cabot Lodge, for 31 years senator from Massachusetts, and at the time of his death leader of the senate. Lodge's death just about depleted the ranks of the famous "Old Guard."

The first break in this famous phalanx and the first inkling of the tide of death which was to sweep through the years of the Harding-Coolidge administration came shortly after the inauguration of President Harding in 1921, when Senator Philander C. Knox, of Pennsylvania, former secretary of state, passed away.

Three suicides marked the period, the first being that of Jesse Smith, intimate friend of Harry M. Daugherty, attorney general, Charles Cramer, counsel of the veterans bureau, likewise shot himself. More recently Senator Frank Brandegee of Connecticut another "Old Guardsman," killed himself.

RUSSIAN PEASANTS SHY AT COMMUNISM

MOSCOW.—A far-reaching revision of the Russian communists' policy toward the peasantry is envisaged in a speech delivered by Stalin, one of the powerful triumvirate now controlling the destinies of the Bolshevik party. Stalin's remarks were addressed to the secretaries of the so-called "communist cells" in the villages. In view of the overwhelming preponderance of peasants among the citizens of the Soviet union, Stalin's frank admission of the peasants' aloofness from the soviet's political activities acquires high importance.

Stalin stated unreservedly, that the work of the communists in the villages continues to represent the weakest side of the party. The "communist cells," or village groups of bolsheviks, have become accustomed to considering their own mood, rather than the temper of millions of non-partisan peasants, without whose support their work is unavailing. Stalin exhorts his comrades in the villages to learn the needs, desires and hardships of the common folk on the land, and to discard their own leanings toward bureaucracy.

BAN MONTHLY EXAMS BUT PUPILS GLOOMY

EL PASO, Nov. 19.—Monthly examinations, based on the high school students' existence, are no more in El Paso.

But—Teachers may give a test whenever they think it advisable and without warning. Frank Roberts, principal, has ruled.

Whereas students' joy may turn to grief—the "pony" is no more and every night necessitates use of the midnight oil for "tomorrow may be test day."

'LITTLE ROW' TURNS OUT TO BE KILLING

HOUSTON, Nov. 19.—Henry Williams, negro, on trial in Judge Murray B. Jones' court for beating his wife, said he had "never been in trouble before," that is, "nothing to speak of."

"About 20 years ago I was in a 'little row,'" he said. He was asked what the row was about.

"Well, a woman got herself shot and I was arrested."

"What were you arrested for?"

"Cause I was her husband."

"Did I kill her?"

"No, sir, but she died a little later. They turned me loose though." He was acquitted this time, too.

CATS LIKE MUSIC

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—Professor Heinrich Blottow believes that the cats of the world can be educated to an appreciation of classical music. He has three pet cats that he keeps constantly in front of his phonograph while he plays a variety of music. The animals will listen attentively to the classics, but they run away when he puts on jazz records, he says.

Peoples: Gloria Swanson in "Her Love Story."
Cameo: "The Fifth Horseman."
Liberty: "The Fifth Horseman."
Strand: Rostand, the wizard in vaudeville; and Bebe Daniels and Richard Dix in "Sinners in Heaven."
Green Tree: Johnny Hines in "Conductor 1492."

THURSDAY.
Peoples: Gloria Swanson in "Her Love Story."
Cameo: "The Fifth Horseman."
Liberty: "The Fifth Horseman."
Strand: Bert Lytell and Claire Windsor in "A Son of the Sahara."
Green Tree: Douglas Fairbanks in "Flames of '49."

AT THE STRAND.
An unforgettable story plus flawless acting and admirable direction are said to combine to make "Sinners in Heaven" one of the highlights among the current films. This picture is at the Strand theater.

The story deals with Barbara Stockley (played by Bebe Daniels) and Alan Croft (portrayed by Richard Dix). These two, one a straight-laced little English girl, the other a dare-devil British aviator, are the sole survivors of an ill-fated hydroplane expedition. Cast away on a desert island, they not only have to fight for life against nature and native savages but against their own conflicting emotions. It is a strange, tense, dramatic struggle that takes place there in that tropical island, a million miles from civilization, the heart-stirring conflict between love and convention, Love wins, and the resulting complications provide some startling surprises.

GLORIA SWANSON HERE.
"Her Love Story," starring Gloria Swanson, is on the screen of the Peoples theater.

Gloria shows in "Her Love Story" what happens to a princess who tries to marry a man of her choice. He isn't a prince but to the princess he is everything that is good and true and noble, and she loves him. She does marry him, without the consent of her father and then her troubles begin.

AT THE CAMEO.
"The Turnout," a study in human life itself, and a spectacular expose of the working of the souls of American men and women, comes today to the Cameo theater. Hobart Henley is in the leading role.

The story deals with the turmoil in the home of a self-made millionaire, arrogant, powerful and stubborn, who with iron hand, bends a rebellious family to his will. An artistic son is forced to the unhappiness of a money-mad struggle in business. A daughter-in-law, waspish and fortune hunt, pits her wits against his, drives one man to drink, another to the grave, his daughter in to the arms of a scoundrel, and nearly wrecks the entire family on the altar of Mammon.

GLAND GRAFTING FOR ANIMALS PROFITABLE

PARIS, Nov. 19.—French Africa may soon become one of the most important world centers of wool production, thanks to Serge Voronoff, the famous rejuvenating doctor.

Continuing his studies on the effects of gland grafting, Voronoff came to the conclusion that by grafting extra glands on certain animals, such as sheep, pigs, bulls, horses, etc., they could not only live longer than usual, but either grow longer wool, gain weight faster than if ungrafted, or sensibly prolong their reproductive qualities.

A Danish aviator was the first to fly over the Andes.

CRIPPLE BUCKS PARTY BOSSES

Invalid on 'Scooter' Wins His Election Fight

WELLSBORO, Pa., Nov. 19.—Fourteen years he lay in bed, a helpless paralytic.

Then William R. Hubbard made up his mind to get up and do things for himself.

Today he is treasurer of Tioga county. He was elected by a big margin, despite opposition of both political parties and the nine candidates who were working against him.

The accident that made him an invalid occurred when he was 25, shortly after his graduation from the normal school. He intended to enter a law office to begin his legal studies, but while waiting for the opportunity he went to work in a logging camp.

His ax one day missed its mark. The force of the swing tore loose muscles in his back, and an 11-mile walk home so completely wrecked them that surgical skill could do nothing to repair the injury. He has not walked since.

He got a friend to make him a "scooter"—a padded board on wheels he could steer with his hands. Fourteen years to the day he was carried to bed, he was lifted out and placed on his little wagon, face downward.

Little by little he learned to use his arms. After riding up and down a porch until it became monotonous, he had a runway built into the yard. Then he commenced weeding the garden.

EUROPEAN NATIONS PUT IN RADIATORS

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—American radiator companies operating branch establishments in Germany report business excellent. This is not due so much to the fact of new building, since comparatively little new construction is under way, but rather to the fact that Germany and other European countries are installing so-called central heating in the place of paraffin and iron stoves. Germany, accustomed to cold dwelling since 1914, views pleasingly the prospect of somewhat more heat this winter.

Well It Has Been Some Time Since We Talked To You About Mason Tires

We want to say to you that it makes a fellow feel good to sell a customer a piece of merchandise, at a living price, and KNOW that that piece of merchandise will give perfect satisfaction. More especially does this apply to tires, for a man with tire troubles is in about the same condition of mind as the fellow who has a number ten foot decorated with two soft corns shoved down in a number eight shoe trying to be pleasant with his wife as he follows her around the county fair. He has lots of trouble and his mind is on anything but his business. The man who uses MASON tires does not have that trouble. Do you know why? Because all the cotton used in the manufacture of a MASON tire is pure Egyptian long staple cotton, spun in MASON'S mills and then used in the making of the base, or foundation of a MASON TIRE.

Mason makes "MASON'S MAXI-MILE FABRIC, MASON'S MAXI-MILE CORD, MASON'S HEAVY DUTY CORD and MASON'S SAFETY FIRST CORD.

A gentleman came into our store last week and remarked that he had bought a second hand car equipped with MASON tires, that he had run it more than 14 months himself and had just had his first puncture, had to have a new tire and wanted another one like the old one.

Below we call your attention to the names of a few people who have been using MASON'S tires long enough to speak intelligently of the value in these tires. If you contemplate buying a tire any time soon, ask any of these people what service they get out of them.

Auto Brings Fire To Fireman's Door

CUERO, Nov. 19.—It fell to the lot of a resident of Victoria to give Cuero firemen the experience of their lives when he stopped in front of the fire station, the rear seat of his flivver in flames, and demanded service.

A cigarette, carelessly tossed away started the conflagration. The Victorian, with rare presence of mind, leaped to the steering wheel, slammed the doors and sped to the station where the blaze was quickly extinguished. Slightly singed hair constituted the driver's only "injury."

"I've been to many a fire," remarked Chief Meyer, "but this is the first one that ever came to me."

JAP ENVOY DENIES HE PREDICTED WAR

PARIS, Nov. 19.—Emphatic denial that the attitude of the Japanese delegation at the fifth assembly of the League of Nations at Geneva recently was actuated by a belief that there will be an eventual war between the United States and Japan over the immigration question, was made today by Viscount Ishii, Japan's ambassador to Paris and head of the Japanese delegation to Geneva.

Ishii's declaration was made in an exclusive interview with the United Press. The United Press requested the Japanese statesman for a statement in view of the warlike motives that have been variously attributed to Japan as regards the United States because of the stand of the Japanese delegation in the negotiation of the Geneva protocol on arbitration, security and disarmament.

PROBE WALTON BANK ACCOUNT

Officer Holds Summons for Ex-Governor

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 19.—The accounts of Jack Walton, deposed governor and defeated candidate for United States senator, with Oklahoma City banks were being probed today by three inspectors from the United States internal revenue department to determine whether provisions of the income tax law had been violated.

It was revealed that Walton filed no income tax report since 1921. Local bankers declined to comment on the investigation saying they would make a breach of confidence in doing so.

Walton held a lengthy conference with the internal revenue officer who held a summons for him to appear, it was disclosed here today.

ILLITERACY IS SPEAKER'S TOPIC

Civitans Urged to Assist in Education Work

Recommendation that Civitans keep themselves informed upon the means at hand for reducing illiteracy and that they urge in every possible way illiterate men and women to avail themselves of the night school course.

The night school meeting twice weekly in Franklin now has 10 men and women enrolled, and the teaching staff, in charge of Miss Wayne Young, has been increased from three to six, Collins said.

A large measure of service to reduce the percentage of illiteracy in Jefferson county, ranked as the most illiterate county in Texas, is given by the night school, Collins said.

By way of entertainment, Bill Newman, chairman of the entertainment committee, called upon Ira Avant, Johnny Rizer and J. O. Herpin for impromptu speeches.

Discredit Suicide

In Furnace Death

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 19.—The suicide theory was practically abandoned in the Sheatsley furnace murder mystery today.

Convinced that Rev. Sheatsley's wife was murdered, and her body stuffed in on the coals of the paragon furnace, police and prosecutor John R. King continued their investigation.

The only theory which authorities would make public was that a de-generate may have slipped into the furnace between 1:45 and 3:15 p. m. Monday, while all except the pastor's wife were absent. He may have attacked Mrs. Sheatsley and thrust her dead or unconscious body into the furnace.

Logan Invited To Road Accident Parley

Mayor J. P. Logan of this city with Mayor J. Austin Barnes of Beaumont, County Judge B. E. Johnson and the four county commissioners will be asked to participate in a meeting at Austin, Dec. 4 and 5, to devise means of reducing grade crossing accidents, it was learned today.

The meeting is called jointly by the state railway commission and Texas highway department.

MILLION IN CURRENCY TO BE COURT EXHIBIT

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—One million dollars in currency of the $3,000,000 loot secured by an armed band in the robbery of a mail train at Roundout, Ill. June 12, will be brought into open court late today for identification by Brent Glascock, bandit chief, government attorneys and postal inspectors indicted at the trial of William J. Fahy, former postal inspector, and two Chicago politicians charged with plotting the robbery.

Glascock, on the stand at the early court session, directly implicated Fahy in the holdup.

Guerilla Warfare is Feared In Fight Over Water Right

'Silent Men of the Mountains' Aroused by Threat To Send Armed Guards to Close Flood Gates

LOSE PINE, Cal., Nov. 19.—Talk of guerilla warfare with the "embattled farmers" of the Owens river valley arrayed against guards from Los Angeles, was in the air today as the newest development of the struggle for possession of the water of the Owens river.

Word came during the night that Los Angeles may send guards to close the flood gates of the Los Angeles viaduct, opened Sunday by the farmers.

Finally it aroused the "silent men from the mountains, who continued their watch over the gates they had opened and increased fears of Inyo county authorities that violence and even bloodshed may be the final outcome.

Reports went around that the mountaineers were ready to dynamite a section of the aqueduct and do permanent damage to Los Angeles' water supply.

Another rumor was that their plan of action would be merely stubborn resistance to any attempt by Los Angeles to drive them from control of the gates which now stand opened and through which the water in the aqueduct is supposed to carry to Los Angeles, 200 miles away, its flowing down the natural channel of the Owens river and watering the farms of the district.

Word came this morning that Governor Richardson had again refused to send state troops to take charge.

Business in Bishop, one of the leading towns, came to a standstill as merchants and citizens deserted their stores and work to join the "army."

TEXAS AUTO RUM LAW IS UPHOLD BY COURT

AUSTIN, Nov. 19.—Constitutionality of the 38th legislature, making it an offense for an intoxicated person to drive a motor vehicle was upheld today when the court of criminal appeals affirmed the case of V. P. Scroggins, from Dallas county, fined $1 and sentenced to 90 days in jail for violation of the statute at Jackson.

Scroggins had contended that the language of the statute is too indefinite and uncertain to define an offense under the constitution, and that it nowhere defines what shall constitute the term "intoxicated," leaving it necessarily to the "opinion" of the court or jury.

LABOR HERE TO ERECT BUILDING

Contractor Soon to Start On Adams Structure

Removal of wooden buildings on the Fifth and Austin corner half-block where the old story John R. Adams office building is to be built will be finished within the next few days and the lot turned over to the Jefferson Construction company of New Orleans to begin the erection of the new structure, Adams said today.

All contracts have been let and everything is in the hands of President O'Leary of the Jefferson company, according to Adams. O'Leary stated while here recently he will return and establish an office here while the construction work is going on.

Port Arthur labor will be preferred above other, O'Leary stated.

ILLNESS FROM EXPOSURE GETS NO COMPENSATION

AUSTIN, Nov. 19.—An employee contracting illness through exposure to the elements is not entitled to benefits under the Texas Workmen's compensation act, the supreme court decided today in reversing the appellate court and upholding the trial court in the case of Texas Employers Insurance association vs. J. R. Jackson from Wichita.

Next the mother was sought out. Finding her was an easy task, and she was told in plain terms that she must stay at home and mind the children until their father returned. Impressed by her with her sense of responsibility took frequent visits to her home by Red Cross workers during the weeks before her husband came into Port Arthur. But care and comforts for the children were looked after and assumed by the Red Cross here.

Almost immediately after her husband reached the house when he came in from the marshes, the woman picked up and left, putting upon him the entire care of the four children. Assisted by Red Cross workers, he made Cardinal Michael Logue, primate of Ireland, word of whose death shocks country.

Cardinal Logue, Noted Irish Leader, Dies

AMARAGH, Ireland, Nov. 19.—Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland and one of the outstanding figures of Roman Catholicism, died suddenly at his residence, Ara Cool, early today.

Word of his death shocked all Ireland, for his efforts to bring about peace and tranquility in the troubled isle had won him the affection of the south and the respect of those who opposed him on religious grounds.

His eminence was outspokenly opposed to the republican movement but favored the Irish Free state. He denounced outrages in the name of liberty and was an influence behind the compromise of which the free state was born.

RIVER GIVES UP ITS DEAD

Body of Leon Shires Found By Searchers

Nearly 1,000 feet down the Neches river from the spot where he drowned the body of Leon Shires, 20, only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Shires, of Port Neches, was recovered about 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Searching parties made up of friends and relatives of the drowned man, assisted by men from the United States coast guard station at Sabine, and divers, had dragged for the body since Sunday, when young Shires was drowned.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Roberts Undertaking company, Beaumont, with Rev. W. H. Forney, pastor of the First Baptist church, of Port Neches, officiating. Burial was in Magnolia cemetery, Beaumont.

Surviving, besides the parents, are five sisters, Mrs. Marvin Vaughan and Misses Hazel, Ruby, Olive and David Shires.

FIRE CHIEF HELPS GRADE MOVIE EXAMS

Grading of examination papers of 17 moving picture machine operators who have just completed a written test of 100 questions propounded by a board appointed by the city council in accordance with a recent ordinance regulating those in this trade, was going forward this morning at the city hall.

Fire Marshal J. E. Cor, H. R. Packer, city building inspector, and William LaBarthe, who comprise the board, are holding the examination and grading papers.

THOMAS INCE DIES SUDDENLY

Noted Movie Man Stricken While On Visit

Attack of Acute Indigestion Proves Fatal

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Nov. 19.—Thomas H. Ince, noted motion picture producer and promoter died at his Beverly Hills residence today.

His wife, Nell Ince, his two sons and two brothers, Ralph and John, were at his bedside when he died.

Ince, with his wife and children, had been guests of William R. Hearst at his upstate ranch for several days.

Later yesterday, the pioneer film man was stricken with acute indigestion.

In a special car, attended by two specialists and three nurses, Ince was hurried back to Los Angeles last night and taken to his home. He was unconscious during the night.

Early today he regained consciousness and apparently realized the end was near.

He smiled at his wife, and trying to speak—died.

NEW LUNCHEON CLUB FORMED

Salesmanship Club Is Organized Here

A new luncheon club for Port Arthur came into being Tuesday morning with the organization of the Salesmanship club, a full corps of officers and directors being chosen for a period of 90 days and plans outlined to build up the membership roll to a 150 minimum.

B. O. Newman, president; Harry May, vice president, and J. W. Faulkner, secretary, were the staff chosen for the first 90 days. It was decided that then the membership roll would be complete and an election held for officers to preside for a year.

Speakers at the organization meeting were Fred White, assistant city attorney, and Dr. Ed Vaughn. These outlined three principle objects of the organization: Inspiring and developing of power and efficiency among members; to more closely develop the ethics of salesmanship; and the increasing of prestige and influence of the club as a community factor.

Membership dues will be $12 annually payable in advance semi-annually, it was decided. The rolls of the club will be kept open for 30 days for any Port Arthurian engaged in selling, salesmanship or those interested in betterment of business through improvement of salesmanship, it was voted.

Houston Man to Speak

For next Tuesday's meeting the club has arranged for Raymond Pearson, president of the Salesmanship club of Houston, to make the principal address and be guest of honor.

The Houston official will tell of the growth of the Salesmanship club there, which is understood to have been most rapid of any in that city.

An effort to make the Salesmanship club here one of the biggest factors in the community will be carried out, those at the organization meeting agreed. This week will be spent in enlisting the best available members, officials said today.

Directors of the club named for the following three months are: B. O. Newman, Harry May, J. W. Faulkner, Dr. Ed Vaughn, Fred White, L. C. McClark, C. E. Foster, Jr., H. G. Britt, Jack Ross and Roger Keith.

TWO ARE ADDED TO P. O. PERSONNEL

Two new appointments to the regular personnel of the postoffice force were announced today by Postmaster S. L. Dugan.

Wilson and the City Manager Plan

'I regard the commission-city manager plan of municipal government as a marked advance over any plan hitherto tried in this country, from the standpoint of both efficiency and democracy.'—Woodrow Wilson.

New London, Conn., Voted Out Politicians And Saved Money

$250,000 Which Formerly Went to Extravagance And Spoils Now Saved to Taxpayers Yearly

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Nov. 19.—New London passed through the throes of a decentralization political form of government which not only taxed the taxpayers high above the present city manager form but taxed their patience. The voters adopted the city manager plan when it became apparent that affairs of the city steadily were growing worse, that favoritism in the city's operation had given place to efficiency, and that many in charge of city departments who had gained place through political influence in ability to deliver the vote were distressingly incompetent in carrying out the duties for which they were paid.

No Avoiding Responsibility.

The great advantage of the more modern city manager form of city government rests in the fact that there is no avoiding responsibility. The manager form definitely fixes the burden and proof where it belongs. There are no political bosses who can keep a man in a position of responsibility and trust when he is incompetent to act as such, unwilling so to act, or hedged in by political obligations which he feels he must pay to the disadvantage of the public interest.

It was a proven fact that city officials who were paid by the citizens to attend to the city's affairs spent a great part of that time building up a political machine which would keep them in office.

Politicians Liked Old Way.

The political form was profitable to them and to their supporters, the men who could deliver the votes, and these benefitted in dictatorial matters of public policy, favoritism in letting contracts, creation of positions which

FIRING SQUAD

Villa's Brother Is Executed In Mexico

HOUSTON, Nov. 19.—General Hipolito Villa, brother of Pancho Villa, and the last of his family, is dead.

Villa met death by a firing squad of Oregon troops at the little Mexican town of Jimenez, state of Chihuahua, Sunday, according to confirmed dispatches. The former Mexican general was tricked to his death, according to the reports after receiving a promise that the hacienda belonging to his brother, who was assassinated more than a year ago, would be given to him.

The order for his execution is said to have been given by General P. E. Elias Calles, president elect of Mexico.

LARGE NUMBER PAY PAVING INSTALLMENT

Quite a large number of citizens have paid their second installment on paving work done here recently by the Smith Brothers Construction company, William Beasley said here this morning, although exact figures of the number which have paid were not available.

Beasley is in charge of the collections, and is operating in Judge A. W. Dye's office on Procter street.

TEXAS MAKES PROTEST ON RAILROAD ISSUES

AUSTIN, Nov. 19.—Test of whether the federal law entirely supercedes the statutes of Texas in controlling railroads in the issuance of securities in Texas probably will soon be made, Texas attorney general's department today aimed protest to the Interstate Commerce commission against that body approving application of Rio Grande railway company to issue securities until Texas laws have been complied with.

Meeting of the Red Cross campaign committee has been called for 10 o'clock Thursday morning at the Chamber of Commerce and Shipping and final preparations made for the collecting of the remaining $5,000 needed of the $18,000 budget for another year, President W. A. Slater announced today.

Ten more days remain for the drive and the campaign committee desires to make use of the entire period if necessary to secure the $18,000 minimum. A "knock-out" committee will be named at tomorrow's committee to see every firm and individual not yet in on the roll call.

Leaders Would Unionize Wall Street

EL PASO, Nov. 19.—The American Federation of Labor in convention here today adopted a resolution calling upon congress at its next session to "speedily enact" the bill providing wage increases for postal workers.

The convention also pledged the support of the federation to aid in the move to organize the iron and steel workers of the country.

A drive to organize the women in industry as soon as the "time is propitious" was approved by the convention and special organizers were authorized to "assist in promoting union activities in southern states east of the Mississippi river."

Moral and financial support of the American Federation of Labor to a proposal to unionize employees of Wall street banking institutions was voted unanimously and labor organizations were instructed to inaugurate a boycott against all financial institutions opposing the right of their employees to organize.

The defeat of the MacDonald government in Great Britain was only a "temporary setback" and labor will "come back stronger than ever," A. B. Swales, chairman of the British trade union congress, declared in an address.

International solidarity of the workers world was urged by the speaker who appealed for a closer "economic and international union" between British and American labor movements.

C. E. Crampton, chief of the labor party, predicted the early downfall of the Baldwin government.

Late Flashes

LISBON, Portugal, Nov. 11.—The cabinet today presented its resignation to the president.

ARMAMAGH, Ireland, Nov. 19.—Michael Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland since 1887, died here today.

EL PASO, Nov. 19.—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, is not a candidate for the post of secretary of labor in President Coolidge's cabinet, he told the United Press here today.

"I am not aware there is even a vacancy," Lewis declared.

Mrs. Harding Sinks Into Coma Again

MADISON, Ohio, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Warren G. Harding's condition this afternoon took a sudden turn for the worse and her physician believes she is now sinking into a coma.

Dr. Carl W. Sawyer's bulletin issued at White Oaks Farm, said: "Mrs. Harding is worse this afternoon. She is more stupor and dull. We have rather marked signs of coma coming on."

PT. ARTHUR FIREMEN PUBLISH BOUND BOOK

A book entitled "Port Arthur Fire Department" for the benefit of the firemen's relief fund has been published under the auspices of the local fire department here, and is being distributed over the city by Chief Clyde Laffoon.

Money derived from advertising in the book goes to the firemen's relief fund.

The book is neatly bound in a red cover, and lettering on the outside is embossed in gold. The books were printed by a Dallas concern, and carry many pictures of the Port Arthur fire department, and of the city in general.

THE AD-VISER

BABY'S SLIPPER HALTS CONCERT

Radio Fans Hear Query of Local Doctor

In scores of cities throughout the United States, hundreds of radio fans listening in on the Port Arthur Business college program broadcasted from the Magnolia company's Beaumont station Tuesday night learned where slippers for the baby are kept in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Sappington of Port Arthur.

Telling the world where Mrs. Sappington put the baby's slippers before she left home to take part in the radio concert was not scheduled on the program, but it was included just the same when Dr. Sappington wired the broadcasting station for the information.

"Enjoying the radio concert very much, and please ask Mrs. Sappington where in the San Hill she put the baby's slippers," Dr. Sappington wired, and for a moment facts and figures about Port Arthur and Port Arthur Business college were silenced while the Port Arthur physician was directed how to find the slippers.

"But the joke was on the doctor," Mrs. Sappington said today, explaining that she had put the baby's slippers out before she went to the concert.

A flood of telephone and telegraph messages of congratulation poured in to the Magnolia Broadcasting room as the program was given. A. B. Chenier, president of Port Arthur Business College, said today. The messages came from former students of the college, from scores of Port Arthur radio fans who "listened in" on the program, and from fans in Florida, Chicago, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Texas.

Numbers were given on the program by a saxophone sextette, directed by G. E. Westcott; Miss Julia Jack Boutt, violinist; Mrs. Thomas Sappington and Mrs. Joe Park, pianists and accompanists; Mrs. R. L. Drake, Mrs. Fred P. Dodge, Mrs. Clifford Hall and Joe Park, vocal soloists; and Miss Ina Parish, of Orange, and Miss Madge Nordyke, of Crowley, La., students in the college, who sang several duets with ukulele accompaniment.

Mayor Wants Voters To Study Ordinance

Request that all citizens carefully read Ordinance 632, passed to the second reading by the city council, and which appears on page seven of the Monday issue of The News, which gives the provisions under which a franchise is being made between the city and Port Arthur Traction company, was made today by Mayor J. P. Logan.

"This ordinance is of such importance every citizen should be acquainted with it. The council would appreciate any suggested changes or any criticism of the ordinance as it now stands, should there be any who disapprove. Now is the time to register criticism before the ordinance is passed on its final reading," Mayor Logan said.

Pastors Leave For Church Conference

Rev. V. A. Godbey, pastor, and Rev. B. A. Watson, assistant, have departed for Mount Pleasant, Tex., where they are in attendance on the East Texas conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, it was announced here today.

Rev. Godbey departed with a splendid financial and activity report, and carrying a plea from his congregation for his return to Port Arthur for another year.

Rev. Watson will stand the examination for full rights to preach in Texas.

"The Fifth Horseman," depicted in the Revelations of St. John, attracted a capacity house at the Pearce theater last night when the picture, which was brought to Port Arthur this week, began a week's run at the moving picture house.

The story of a typical reprobate of the Twentieth century, grippingly told, with a dash of romance and a thrilling tale of love for the country, America, has been weaved out of the narrative written by E. M. McMahon.

The author, a native Texan who lives in Wichita Falls, takes a role in the picture, which was produced by a New York film company.

Many of the scenes in the picture were "shot" in Texas.

Beginning in a typical "east side joint," the leading character who at first has devoted his life to iniquity, is brought from the mire of degradation by the helping hand of a social service organization, and made to realize that violations of the law in which he has had a hand in smuggling booze into the land, is wrong. Turning in wrath on the crooked associates he once had, this man lives to be a real American.

Pt. Arthur Product Is Found Near Volcano

Discovery of a Port Arthur product near the summit of Mount Mauna Loa, in far off Hawaii, was made recently by Captain John P. Moran, formerly of the Texas Company in Port Arthur, and commander of the company of soldiers which guarded this city during the war.

With a party of officers stationed in Hawaii, Captain Moran was climbing Mount Mauna Loa when an old tin was sighted by the way with the inscription "American Kerosene, Manufactured by the Texas Company, Port Arthur, Texas, U. S." The sight of the can was like a glimpse of home, Captain Moran explained in writing relatives here.

ITCHING ECZEMA GOES QUICK WITH USE OF THIS

People who have endured tortures from itching eczema will be happy to learn that a means of relief has been perfected and is already enjoying unheard of popularity on account of the quick way it gets rid of the awful disease of the skin which nobody seemed able to figure out before. It is called Black and White Ointment.

Most all dealers have Black and White Ointment, and Soap, on account of the tremendous demand which has already reached the rate of more than two million packages a year in its sales, because it relieves eczema so quickly.

They are economical, too. The big 70c package of Ointment contains three times as much as the liberal 25c size.—Adv.

In New York

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Managers of Broadway lobster palaces are praying for a cold snap. A warm October didn't do the cloak-and-suit business any good and when the cloak-and-suit business slumps, business in jazz and food likewise slumps.

When out-of-town buyers arrive they generally are welcomed with a bottle of gin and a pair of theater tickets and anything else needed to go with that—good fellowship and all that sort of thing, you know.

Thus the dance halls, the supper clubs and such places flourish and wax fat. And the checkroom girls and the waiters roll in tips.

But this year it was a brown October, a very brown October. Buyers didn't come to New York because they didn't know what to buy, fur coats or bathing suits.

And, in the passing, the buyers from one big Chicago firm do not accept theater tickets, booze or any other sort of gratuities from the trade. They're not allowed to. However, they may put such items as theater tickets, suppers and pleasure tax rides on their expense accounts without question from the business office.

Arthur Fellig is a son of immigrant parents. He has an inborn love of music and spends much of his time playing on a cheap violin. Occasionally he risks a big muscle stone on 42nd street and although he is poorly dressed he receives the utmost courtesy. He is welcomed into the violin room and given access to the violins there. Some of them are priced at $1,000, some at $5,000. Fellig tenderly picks them up, plays a selection or two and carefully puts them down. That is satisfaction to a soul that craves something finer than his purse allows.

JAMES W. DEAN.

Cynthia Gray Says

THE STRONGER SEX.

A girl can see a man unshaven and still think he's handsome.

She can see him in a bathing suit, and still love him.

And she can love him when he has a cold in the head and yet not lose her affection for him.

But just let him trip and fall with her on a dance floor, and her admiration for him goes forever.

A man may have been decorated in the world war; he may be at the top of his profession, but nothing makes a woman feel so proud of him as to have the head waiter call him by name.

You can always tell how much a girl is in love with her beau by the length of time it takes her to dress to go out with him.

QUESTIONS—ANSWERS.

Dear Miss Gray: I have been going with a man twenty-five years old who does not know that I am two years older than he is. Now he has asked me to marry him, and I am afraid if I tell him I fibbed to him about my age, and that I am so old, he will not marry me. What shall I do?

Tell him the truth. Two years' difference is your own fault, and it is at all. The fact that some women fib about their age is so well known that it is almost considered a joke. But after this, make it a point to tell the truth. A lie is always discovered.

Dear Miss Gray: I have beautiful hair. But I look so old-fashioned because I use it but out short. Could I dress in any way to make it look better?

You could part it in the middle and wind the two ends around your head in a swirl. This style is becoming to almost everyone.

BANK USE RADIO

TO ASSIST CLIENTS

The Union Trust Company of Cleveland is a banking institution coming and operating a radio broadcasting station. President Coulton says that among many reasons for interest in radio is that the bank can keep its clients informed of matters of business interest to them. Clients are enabled to get news of various markets, including stock and bond quotations and cotton, grain, livestock and cattle prices, a day or two before they could see them in local newspapers.

The bank has received hundreds of congratulatory letters from people in outlying districts who are unable to get quotations readily by wire.

YOKOHAMA GROWS

YOKOHAMA, Nov. 19.—Yokohama is gradually coming back to its pre-earthquake size. Census figures show that 340,000 persons now live in the city, a little more than the population had dropped to 250,000. The present population is within 100,000 of the old mark.

COUNTY ROAD MAP TO PERMIT A CLEAR-CUT OUTLINE OF NEEDS

A progressive step was taken recently by the county good roads committee when it passed a resolution recommending the preparation of a map showing county-wide systems of road work as an aid in determining needs of localities for new projects.

It quickly became evident at several meetings held by county delegates to road conferences that it was impossible to outline a systematized and co-ordinated program without some visual evidence at hand showing roads now in use and roads needed. Delegates entered the conferences declaring road needs of their own localities, and it soon was apparent that for purposes of submitting tangible recommendations to the county commissioners it would be impossible to check the most stringent needs against suggested projects which it was agreed were secondary in importance.

The county commissioners have fallen in line with the road situation in sympathetic fashion and have agreed to permit the map to be completed. When this is done it quickly can be demonstrated without tedious and almost endless bickering just where the county stands in a road way, and what it must have for the relief of localities now claiming to be shut in or working under hardship. The map therefore stands as a necessity to any kind of solution of Jefferson county road problems which may be undertaken.

North Arthur, Nederland, Port Neches and sister localities are in sympathy with the road-map program. It will prove without doubt the road situation as it affects these localities, and it will be an instrument for some kind of organized relief, road men from each believe.

But this section of the county is not voicing its road demands in any spirit but that prompted by necessity. It does not claim that this section of the county is the only section in need of good roads. But it does and will demand that when relief measures are undertaken, that its most apparent problems be remedied in kind with any steps undertaken to give any other sections of the county relief.

THE SHEARS OF DELILAH

So Sampson told Delilah his secret: "There hath not come a razor upon mine head. If I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like other men."

And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and his strength went from him.

With his hair cut, Samson was weak. His enemies "put out his eyes and bound him with fetters of brass; and he did grind in the prison house."

But his hair grew long again . . . and he pulled the pillars from under a roof upon which were "about 3000 men and women."

As science studies the endocrine glands, it finds an interesting relationship between long hair and strength. The growth of the hair is regulated by the thyroid gland. Long, fast-growing hair means that the thyroid gland is over-active in manufacturing its mysterious chemicals. And an active thyroid means that an abnormal amount of energy is being generated—nervous energy, rather than muscular.

The "hyper-thyroid" has to visit the barber often. He has a ravenous appetite without becoming fat; needs a lot of fuel. He is a human dynamo, a terrific worker though quickly exhausted.

Does cutting the hair destroy strength? Men who are nervously highly-keyed often think so. They find themselves languid after visiting the barber, and uncomfortably supercharged with energy when they need haircut or shave—restless, unable to take life quietly, with repose.

There may be a scientific reason for artists and musicians wearing their hair long. Possibly an instinct tells them that this is the way to keep their batteries charged.

On the other hand, in some illnesses such as typhoid fever, it is necessary to bob the head to keep strength from "going to the hair." But even viewed from this angle, the hair and the matter of strength are interlocked.

A weird electro-chemical machine is the human body.

BOOM

So goes the steel industry, so goes general business. This country's production of steel ingots in September was a half more than in July, the very dull month. One more climb like that and the steel mills will be operating at top speed, capacity, advertising for help.

American industry certainly must be in good health when its recuperative power is so great. To crawl halfway out of hard times in 60 days is quite a feat. Old-time panics used to drag along for years.

The Cross-Word Puzzle Craze.
By Dr. Walter E. Traprock.
It makes me smile when I see all the heat that is being created by the cross-word puzzles. One might think that the cross-word puzzle was a new invention instead of the favorite pastime of our grandfathers. I was born and brought up in a puzzle family, so to speak, my grandfather Ezra having for years held down the job of Puzzle Editor of Goddard's Lady Book. Well do I remember his saving to me: "Wait, you have the family genius; you are a true puzzle-wit."

In my young manhood we used to form two-man puzzle teams, and it is interesting to note that my fellow holder of the Cross-country Crossword Championship was none other than the editor of THE FUN SHOP, then in his early teens. Young Maxson Judell and I defeated all comers, and held the Diamond-studded Diamond until we cast aside the pastime for more serious pursuit. A pleasant memory is that of our reciting the Unabridged Dictionary for Noah Webster. It took us three days and the old man was quite prostrated by our feat.

I recall also a cross-word puzzle which we constructed to fit the lincoln pattern in the Judell kitchen.
It contained 32,000 words and drove 12 cooks insane.

delayed Marshall Ney at Waterloo and resulted in Napoleon's defeat.
Some day I hope to rewrite history and show what the cross-word puzzle has really meant.

A Horrible End.
Willie: "Heard about Smith's death? He worked in a powder factory—there was an accident and—"
Willie: "Explosion, eh?"
Willie: "No, this was a face powder factory. The poor fellow was suffocated in the fumes."

THE EDITOR'S GOSSIP SHOP.
In making the Dr. George A. Baldgate contributions agreeable and acceptable, we find that the usual difficulty with them is the fact that most contributors think that to be funny they should be as extravagant and as far from the truth as possible.
Whereas the fact is that the lie that is nearly true is much more amusing.

It is this basic manner of relating his adventures that has made Dr.
Traprock the peer of story tellers.

What factors determine a poor real estate buy?

When looking at a piece of property take these factors into consideration as they will always make for a poor buy.

Taxes too high. Janitor's salary too high. Long hall. Poor equipment (no apartments). Coal bill too high, due to no insulation, old boiler, no weather strips.

No facilities for ash storage.
Too much water in hall lights
(apartments). Bad plumbing (high water bills constant plumb-ing bills). High decorating cost, due to cheap work.

Insurance rates high, due to non-fireproof construction. Bad building location (narrow street or poor transportation). Dark rooms.

Any of these factors is enough to make a piece of property a poor buy, if that one factor is bad enough.
A good realty lawyer will help you detect these flaws. Look for the defects and you will not get "stung" in making your real estate investments.

The Affair at Flower Acres

© 1924 by NEA Service, Inc. WELLS

BEGIN HERE TODAY

Douglas Raynor, in found shot through the heart in the early evening on the floor of the sun room of Flower Acres, his Long Island home.
Standing over the dead man, pistol in hand, is Malcolm Finley, former sweetheart of Raynor's wife, Nancy Eva Turner. Raynor's nurse, stands by the light switch. Then Nancy, her brother, Orville Kent; Ezra Goddard, friend of Finley; Miss Mattie, Raynor's sister; and others, enter the room. Lionel Raynor, son of Douglas Raynor by first marriage, comes to claim his father's estate.
Nurse Turner finally confesses to attempting to poison Raynor out of revenge. Pennington Wise, a celebrated detective, with his girl assistant, Zizi, are called to take the case out of the hands of Detective Dobbins. Wise and Zizi begin to suspect Grimshaw Gannon, a hired man, of being implicated in the murder.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

"You got a lot from a little cavesdropping!"

"Yes, I did," Zizi looked complacent. "Now, you're to take that information and see if it's worth anything. You see, Pen, that old Gannon is an ideal villain—he looks for all the world like a murderer, even like a pirate or bandit."

"Don't be foolish, Zizi—your imagination is running away with you."

"Well, it will bring me back. Oh, Pen, do look at the view from here! And there's a bridge—I suppose that is the bridge to which Mr.
Kent walked with the neighbor that night."

"It must be—there's no other bridge nearby. Yes, see, he— Come on down on the bridge, Zizi."

The two went down the gentle incline of sloping lawn to the pretty little bridge that spanned the noisy, tumbling brook, where usual ripples had been added by judiciously placed stones in its course.

"Now Zizi, take it in—get the picture. Mr. Kent stood here, with the neighbor girl, at the time of the shooting. You can't see the house from here—look, you can see the roofs of it, but not the doorways."

"Yes, I see that. Nor could you hear a shot—could you?"

"I doubt it. But that doesn't matter. I'm getting at the time. All the people at the house are hazy as to the exact time I mean. To the minute of the shooting. They all say a little before seven—or near seven."

"Except the nurse."

"Yes—she fixes it definitely—but is she truthful?"

"Why not?"

"I don't know—I've not quite sized up that nurse yet. Of course she would know the time, and if she did tell the truth—it seems to tally with Kent's account. He was here as this bridge at seven, exactly, and he started to walk up this hill—"

"Hardly a hill, Pen, just a gentle rise."

"Well, this gentle rise, then, Let's take the rise ourselves, and see how long it takes."

They walked up the slope toward the house.

"I'm thinking now about an intruder, Zizi. You see, it was pretty much dark at seven o'clock, and Kent couldn't be expected to see anyone skulking away from the house.
If the person took pains not to be seen."

"And especially if the observer had no thought of looking out for a criminal, and if the observer was, as Mr.
Kent was, admiring the sunset glow."

"That's all so—and you must agree that if an intruder entered the sun parlor, just before seven, and shot Douglas Raynor, he could make an easy getaway in the deepening twilight without being seen by Orville Kent, coming along where we are now."

"All true—but you're no trace of a murderer, except in your imagination."

"There's the overhouse."

"Oh, pooh, the overhouse?"

"Don't snuff at it, Zizi; that over-house means a lot to me."

"Maybe it was faded—"

"Maybe it wasn't. Now, Pen, I've traded over this part of the historic ground with you—now, you come with me."

"Where?"

"To Grim Gannon's house to find out what hold he had over Douglas Raynor or Raynor had over him."

"Going to ask him outright?"

"You are."

Grimshaw Gannon sat on the little porch of his unattractive old house.

"What do you want?" he growled.
"I don't know anything about the Douglas murder."

"Then you surely need feel no uneasiness at sight of a detective," said
Wise, cheerily.

"Two detectives," amended Zizi, sitting herself on the porch railing.

"Yes, I'm a detective," she added.
"I'd like nothing better than to have you show me your collection and explain it all to me."

"Do you—do you like that sort of thing?" Gannon recovered his poise somewhat as his thoughts were swayed to his beloved watch.

"Adore it. But no time just now.
As you see, Mr. Gannon, we know nothing about the Raynor murder, and that's just why we want a little talk with you. . . . We can't get anything out of people who do know about the crime—they won't tell."

"You know who they are?"

"Maybe—maybe not." Zizi was in her most flippant mood. "Any way, you can tell us other things—and don't you refuse now, or I'll have the law on you."

As she had fully expected, Grim Gannon's face paled at the threat, made fearful by the low fence voice, and the piercing gleam from the black eyes.

"What do you want to know?"
Gannon blurted out.

At a glance from Zizi, Wise took up the questioning.

"About the will," he said, in a low,
even voice. "Where is it?"

"I don't know—I haven't got it."

"You had the copy—the little Fay girl found it."

Frocks And Wraps Take On Colorful Tints With The Approach of Winter

IF THERE is one time in the year when smart new clothes are necessary it is Thanksgiving time, when football games and dances and week-end trips are in order. Port Arthur shops are showing frocks, wraps, and hats which are not only correct for such events but are new and smart.

Among the loveliest evening gowns of the season are those fashioned of lace. A stunning one has a touch of brown in the lace of the gold lace, and is made over a slip of black satin. The cashmere of wide or gold mesh ribbon with a smartly flat bow square in the front.

Even a children's dress would be proud to be seen in a long evening gown. A dress of black tulle, with a trim of black tulle, and a long train, is a smart and stylish dress.

A modish little sports frock is of sand green, striped in brown. The lace collar of the long sleeves is very new. A plain top with a brown belt in the back. Another smart sports dress is made of large mesh ribbon and black tulle. The top is made of black tulle and has a long train. It is a smart and stylish dress. A dress of black tulle, with a trim of black tulle, and a long train, is a smart and stylish dress. PLEA FOR UNITY CLOSING REVIVAL

Packard Delivers His Last Sermon of Series

Pleading for a oneness of the churches of God and for a united Protestantism where the churches will stand together on the open book, wear the name Christian, and Christian only, and accept of the creed as revealed by Jesus Christ in the Bible, Dr. Paul Henry Packard delivered his closing sermon at the First Christian church revival last night. He spoke on "Christian Unity," taking his text from the 17th chapter of John.

"Through all these years Christianity has been pointing to oneness in faith, oneness in effort and oneness in getting together in the common faith," Dr. Packard said. "I am confident tonight that Christianity will come day be the universal religion."

Dr. Packard appealed to all the people to stand together in Jesus Christ, declaring that division in religious forces was sapping the strength of the religious people and was in direct contradiction to Christ's plea.

Dr. Packard said that oneness had failed because religious leaders have failed to find the basis of unity. "Whenever oneness comes, someone will have to relinquish his hold on old traditions he has been holding to a long time and accept only those things essential to salvation. The church today is not divided over the great fundamentals of the Bible, but on insignificant things that are unessential to salvation."

The name of the church, the creed and belief, and baptism were named by Dr. Packard as some of the reasons for church division. "The name for the united church should be Christian because that name honors and glorifies Jesus Christ," he said. "The church is the bride of Jesus and should, therefore, wear His name. What shall the united church believe? The Bible; and its creed should be that Jesus is the Christ, the son of the living God. What about baptism? Look as long as you will and search the scriptures and you'll never find sprinkling or pouring as the

The name of the church, the creed and belief, and baptism were named by Dr. Packard as some of the reasons for church division. "The name for the united church should be Christian because that name honors and glorifies Jesus Christ," he said. "The church is the bride of Jesus and should, therefore, wear His name. What shall the united church believe? The Bible; and its creed should be that Jesus is the Christ, the son of the living God. What about baptism? Look as long as you will and search the scriptures and you'll never find sprinkling or pouring as the

Mrs. Harding's Heart Action Grows Weak

MARION, Ohio, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Warren G. Harding's heart action is poor and she is weak and exhausted today, Dr. Carl W. Sanger said today in a bulletin issued at White Oak Farm.

"Mrs. Harding rested comfortably most of the night," the physician said. "Her condition is unchanged this morning."

OUCH! LUMBAGO! RUB BACKACHE AWAY

Kidneys cause backache! No! Your backache is caused by lumbago, rheumatism or a strain and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating St. Jacobs Oil. Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a 35 cent bottle of St. Jacobs Oil from your druggist. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache or lumbago pain.

In use for 65 years for lumbago, backache, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains. Absolutely harmless. Doesn't burn the skin.—Adv.

90,000 IN NEED REPORT STATES

Miners' Union Chief Prepares Data on Strike

EL PASO, Nov. 19.—Economic conditions in Germany are improving, according to Peter Grassman, socialist member of the German Reichstag and an official of the German Federation of Trades unions who is a delegate to the American Federation of Labor convention here.

Grassman is the first representative of Germany ever to attend a convention of the federation as a delegate.

Today's program of the convention was to include a report on conditions in the mining industry by Fred Mooney, mine union leader of Charleston, W. Va. Mooney's report will show that 40,000 coal miners are on strike in West Virginia and Kentucky in protest against the coal shop and wage reductions. Banks of the striking miners are being added to daily, the report will show.

Mooney was to tell the delegates that the striking miners and their families, numbering about 90,000 men, women and children, were facing winter in an almost destitute condition; that thousands of the miners are living in tents and barracks erected on land leased by the miners' union after the strikers had been evicted from company houses by the coal operators.

Mooney's report includes an appeal to all labor organizations for funds, food and clothing to help the strikers.

BRUIN FORGETS 'CUE' AND CLAWS UP KEEPER

ATLANTA, Nov. 19.—Bruin, a trained bear, is dead and his master, John Moss, negro, was miraculously alive, but in a serious condition, all because the former forgot his cue during the headline attraction at the "SI" theater in Atlanta's downtown.

Bruin, in all previous performances, had obeyed his cue and dropped "dead" at the crack of blank cartridges, from his cage-patrons' revolver.

Moss was hurried to the floor of the stage and the bear clawed viciously at his face and body. John Home, cage hand, went head foremost through a window, taking the cash

DOGS KILL 9 DEER IN NEW ORLEANS ZOO

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 19.—Directors of the City Park Improvement association at their meeting severely censured owners of the dog that killed nine deer in the City Park. They deplored the negligence in allowing hunting dogs to roam at large in a district where wild game are held in captivity.

The board decided to make additional improvements to the golf course at the park. There are no funds set aside for this work and the improvements will be carried out by park employees.

TENANTS ASK COOLIDGE'S AID

Citizens In Capital Fight
High Rents

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Washington is having a fightful time with its housing shortage.

The city has grown tremendously since the war began. There was almost no building while the conflict raged. Since then so many apartment houses of the very expensive type have been put up that the increase in population has been evened. Of living accommodations at moderate rentals, however, the scarcity is terrible.

The landlords have taken advantage of the situation. They have an outright organization which treats the tenants of high-priced habitations with consideration, since there are not enough of them to go around, but practices the most unheard of extortions upon occupants of the cheaper ones.

On an average of $200 pre-war apartment now costs $100 and the tendency still is upward.

Ten thousand organized government employees, joining hands with the District Tenants' league, have appealed to President Coolidge for relief. They will lay their case before congress when it meets in December.

OLDEST FARM HORSE IS PENSIONED AT 52

GARY, S. D., Nov. 19.—The oldest living farm horse in South Dakota is spending his declining years on the farm of Lars Rungie, three miles west of Gary. He is a sorrel mule, and has spent around the Rungie place for 52 years. Rungie and his horse have retired from active work.

The old boy has helped me through years of adversity and I figure that he has earned his pension," said Rungie.

"I started grain to Canby with a horse in the early days and I never had a better horse or tire punctures. Aside from a few missing teeth, my horse is still in good physical condition and there is no reason why he should not live 10 more years or even longer. He is getting the best food and attention and is a real pensioner."

LETTER FROM JOHN ALDEN
PRESCOTT TO LESLIE

Dear Leslie: Arrived here this morning all safe and sound. Went directly to the office and found that Mrs. Atherton had been a regular trooper getting things under way. I imagine that she will be able to leave for Pittsburgh day after tomorrow.

The Acme people have been more than kind to me. The president of the company said that he had intended to arrange so that I could become a member of the firm by the first of the year. He was good enough to say that he had never had anyone in his employ that could handle men as well as I. This, of course, was very flattering to me as it is one of the things that I pride myself on.

Speaking of handling men, I am afraid I am going to have trouble with that cub Condon. You remember I told you of the impertinent way in which he spoke of you and Mrs. Atherton. It seems that he has been reprimanded by Mable Carter, that woman who was in the papers so much lately spring when her husband was tried for murder.

Mrs. Atherton read me today parts of a letter where he asked her to take the woman under her wing when she arrived in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Atherton is quite worked up about it. Of course she declined to do anything of the sort and must have written a very snappy letter to Condon, telling him just what she thought about the matter. In return the woman wrote Mrs. Atherton a letter telling her that Condon had shown her Mrs. Atherton's refusal to have anything to do with her, and that it was war to the knife from now on.

Mrs. Atherton is of the opinion that under the circumstances she ought not to go over to Pittsburgh at all, but I tell her she is crazy, that I would much rather fire the first shot than to get along without her. She is worth much more to me in the business.

She seems to like the young chap very much. Says he was very good to both her and her husband when her husband was recovering from his blindness. She doesn't want to jeopardize his position in the plant and made me promise I would keep him on. I can see, however, she is afraid something will happen, that will bring discredit upon him and much scandal perhaps to all of us.

I was for discharging him immediately but she begged me not to do so. Said Condon was most efficient in a business way. This was confirmed by your father who had told me that he had practically run the plant while he was ill.

I have very much to love Mrs. Atherton start in alone as no one will know what that shrewd devil will put the boy up to and no one knows better than I what a fool a man can make of himself when he thinks he is in love with a woman.

I did not see mother until noon. She is looking very well indeed, but that damned old maid, Priscilla Bradford, has gotten her all stirred up again.

What is it, Leslie, that makes old people's brains incapable of looking on the bright side of things? Mother told me about your letter. Said you practically told her you didn't want her to live with us. She seems to think she ought to come and live in Pittsburgh. I'll talk to you about this when I arrive home.

Wife's Job Biggest,
Missing Explorer Said

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—"To Silver" whose job was harder than looping the Atlantic, and a damn sight more important, W. W. N.

This inscription, handwritten by William Washington Nutting in the first copy of his book, "The Track of the Topham," is a consoling treasure now to "Silver" as she awaits news of him and his boat, the "Leir Eiriksson."

"Silver" is Mrs. Nutting. Her husband, with Arthur S. Hildebrand, author, John Olaf Todahl, marine artist, and Theodore Fleischer, Norwegian government scientist, sailed westward from Fredericksburg, Greenland, in a 42-foot "skotte" on Sept. 9.

After more than two months she still is waiting, in spite of an alarm broadcast along the north Atlantic coasts and ship lanes and a special search by the United States cruiser Trenton.

534 Issues Handled During Record Day

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Upsetting all forecasts the New York stock exchange entered its 13th day of unprecedented activity following a new record spurt yesterday when 2,257,780 shares were dealt in.

The day's advance carried industrial stocks up 1.25 per cent and railroad stocks up .75 per cent, the entire market advancing exactly one point, which broke all existing records.

A total of 534 separate issues were traded in and 68 industrial stocks went into new high ground for the year and new high prices were established by 29 railroad stocks.

HAMPERERS FRENCH LOAN

PARIS, Nov. 19.—The Ere Nouvelle says the Coolidge administration has raised difficulties in the way of the proposed $100,000,000 loan of J. P. Morgan to France.

Negotiations, it is learned, have suffered a temporary hitch, but these interested are hopeful that the difficulties raised by the American government can be overcome and the loan agreement signed.

SECOND GAME OF RECENTLY ORGANIZED BASKETBALL LEAGUE TO BE PLAYED IN FRANKLIN GYM FRIDAY NIGHT AT 7:30

Wop Lopping Off 12 Pounds To Be In Eklund Class

BY BILL ARCHER
The News Sport Editor

GENTLEMEN, if you don't think there's going to be a battle in Elks theater next Monday evening, when Mr. Clarence Eklund, champion of the Cauliflower land, and Mr. Tony Bernardi, "The Gas House Wop," shake hands and start the racket, you're just dead wrong.

Mr. Bernardi's intensive training being conducted each afternoon from 4 to 6 p. m. at the arena in Port Arthur Athletic club, indicates to our satisfaction that Tony means to wrest the belt from Eklund here Monday evening if there's a way it can be done. And contrary to the general idea prevalent over our fair streets, Tony is reducing.

Bernardi had 12 pounds to loup off when he accepted the match with the light-heavyweight champion. Perhaps it wouldn't be fair to announce just yet how much he has lopped off, but Tony invites the public to come up to the Athletic club and witness his training tactics, and said late yesterday afternoon that he is confident he will be hitting the 175-pound mark when he and Eklund tangle up Monday night.

Bernardi will be weighed in publicly at the ringside in Elks theater on the night of the match; scales will be transferred to the theater Monday afternoon, and Bernardi weighed in where everybody can see the weighing. Eklund, being the champion, is not required to prove his weight, and will probably not step on the scales, although one of courtesy to his challenger he may also take a weighing.

It was decided yesterday to conduct the weight examination in the Elks theater rather than at Johnny Bourne's Barber shop in order to let as many witness the weighing as desire to.

Tony is "drying out," doing from four to five miles a day on the road each morning, and working in the ring from 4 to 6 o'clock each afternoon in preparation for the match. "The Wop" is very enthusiastic over the bout, and has repeatedly expressed the belief that he can beat Eklund at the championship hunt.

Eklund will probably arrive in Port Arthur Sunday night, and will be busy shaking hands with old acquaintances all day Monday. The champion is well-known here, has appeared a time or two before in the Elks theater, and has a record of victories that he can't brag about.

There is little question that he will furnish "The Wop" plenty of entertainment.

Return for Game

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark.—Instead of University of Arkansas students going home for Thanksgiving Day, former students and athletes returned to Fayetteville to play basketball for the University of Arkansas.

Although the Harvard Edge of T. U. has not won all their games, it is believed they have shown considerable power in defeating Oklahoma A. and M. and Oklahoma State.

Groomed for Short

Despite the fact that bluffs in the most prominent place third baseman in the American League is a well-known fact to those on the side that he is being groomed for shortstop.

Bluffs likes to play short better than third base, and he could do the work in the position. He is certain to be called on to play short when the season is over.

There is little question that he will furnish "The Wop" plenty of entertainment.

COACH STEWART RECOUNTS DOPE

By E. J. STEWART
Athletic Coach, University of Texas. Written for the United Press. AUSTIN, Nov. 19.—Before the 1924 Southwestern conference race got under way, it was my prediction that Baylor, S. M. U. and the Texas Aggies would be bunched for the lead at the close with the Longhorns in fourth place.

The teams are standing in that order today with the exception of fourth place, where Coach Heisman's Rice Owls are roosting and cannot finish lower than fourth place in event Baylor defeats the Owls Thanksgiving Day—a probability.

Season Prospective
The 1924 season has been productive, developing a better balanced conference than previously, with T. U. and Rice showing the greatest improvement over 1923. Both teams have proved the real surprise packages of the year in this section and showing conclusively that the balance of power in neither material nor coaching is monopolized by a few schools.

It is true that the Western conference has its West, Wilkes, Zampke, Slag and others, but for a well-balanced group of eight teams and coaches I believe that the Southwestern conference has its strength more evenly distributed.

The award of the championship this season will not be difficult in event Baylor beats Rice, as the principle adopted by the conference last year relative to the game percentage will undoubtedly work to S. M. U.'s disadvantage.

Baylor Tied Once
Baylor has been tied once this season, while S. M. U. has three ties chalked against her—and one of them is Baylor. The Waco entry is my choice against Rice and I believe that S. M. U. will take the Oklahoma Aggies into camp with ease, providing the field is dry.

As far as dog shows the Longhorns game with the Texas Aggies here Thanksgiving day looks all A. and M. But if the Longhorns recover from the injury epidemic which kept six Longhorn regulars out of the lineup the Turkey day battle will be much closer than many think.

Coach Bible has a fine powerful team and we respect it, but the annual battle between the Aggies and Texas has a psychological background that often eludes the under dog to put over a surprise.

It is my greatest desire to get the crippled Longhorns back in shape for the closing game, and if such is possible—the game will not be decided until the last whistle.

Jim Marley Leads List In Individual Points Scored

"Multitasking Jim" Marley, clever fullback of the University of Texas Longhorns grid machine, is tied up with Strickland of Baylor and Hale of Rice, with a total of 18 points each, for individual scoring honors in the Southwestern conference race.

Comparative figures on the scoring players of the conference, made public today, show this fact.

Despite the 227 points that have been scored in the conference, three touchdowns is the largest tally recorded for any individual player.

"Mitt" Daney, of Texas A. & M. is not far behind the leaders of the pack, trailing by one lone point, and standing a good chance of coming higher as the Turkey day classic with the Longhorns looms.

The statistics follow:

A. A. U. CONFAB IS UNDER WAY

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 19.—Important changes in the organization of America's Olympic teams, based on the experience of the 1921 games at Paris, are recommended by William C. Frost, of Boston, retiring president of the Amateur Athletic Union, in the report he will submit to the opening session of the organization's thirty-sixth annual convention tomorrow. Delegates representing nineteen district associations of the A. A. U. in all parts of the country as well as representatives of Canada, Australia, and Great Britain, are expected to whip the opening program into shape.

Direct selection and financing the A. A. U. of future Olympic teams in all the branches of sport over which this organization has jurisdiction, principal among which are track, swimming, boxing and wrestling, is the outstanding proposal in President Frost's report, in which he points out that "from our experience this year it would seem that it is almost impossible to have teams representing every branch of sport make the journey as a unit and have each team properly handled and provided for."

Will said he had a sore hand and couldn't box for at least two months. Renault said he had a sprained thumb. Tunney didn't show up at all. After being convinced that Gibbons was not wanted by the outstanding challengers for the heavy-weight title, the commission approved the Gibbons-Norfolk match by a two to one vote.

William Muldon, former chairman held out for the Bartley Madden who was offered as a willing victim by his manager, Charles Ross. Gibbons, however, has beaten Madden before more decisively than Wills did last summer and the other two members of the commission wouldn't consider him.

Gibbons has been complaining since he won 15 rounds with Dempsey in Shelby last year that none of the first class fighters would meet him. His friends know it to be true but it wasn't publicly proved until yesterday. Gibbons has been considered the best heavyweight in the world next to the champion and he is now shown officially to deserve that position.

If Dempsey wants to defend his title again—it is doubtful that he ever will fight again—he ought to meet Gibbons.

Last Conference Game
NAVASOTA.—The Rangers played their last conference game, defeating Elks 19 to 16. Friday they met Elks in a Memorial in Houston and put up a good fight but Elks outplayed them 7 to 6.

The Rangers have played well this season, losing only three games the entire season.

Still Leads Chase
NEW YORK.—Although failing to add to his scoring total in the game against New York University, Ford of Rutgers, still leads in the chase for individual scoring honors of the Eastern conference gridiron with a total of 24 points. Eddie Tron of Colorado crawled up to within 5 points of the Rutgers star with 19. John Nichols of Syracuse is in the lead for total point honors with eight.

None of Big Boys Want Any of Gibbons' Wares, Tex Rickard Suddenly Discovers

"Every fighter in the country wants to fight Dempsey but none of them will fight Gibbons," Tex Rickard said recently in explaining why he couldn't make attractive heavyweight matches. The New York boxing commission learned the same thing late yesterday when it tried to get a better match than the Gibbons-Norfolk bout which had been arranged for the Christmas fund in Madison Square Garden on Dec. 2.

The commission summoned Harry Wills, Jack Renault and Gene Tunney, three of the leading challengers of Dempsey, to put a Gibbons match up to them.

Wills said he had a sore hand and couldn't box for at least two months. Renault said he had a sprained thumb. Tunney didn't show up at all. After being convinced that Gibbons was not wanted by the outstanding challengers for the heavy-weight title, the commission approved the Gibbons-Norfolk match by a two to one vote.

AS CHAMPIONS PLAY IT

KNEE ACTION

Is the knee action the same for all shots?
Answered by LLOYD DIEGEL
Canadian open champion, St. Lawrence open champion, Illinois open champion.

The knee action is not the same on all shots. The longer the shot, the more knee action. The longer and more powerful the shot, the more knee action. The longer and more powerful the shot, the more knee action.

Power knee action is important and is absolutely essential to the proper execution of a shot of almost any sort. Increased knee action can make endless trouble in the execution of a stroke. Constant balance, for example, is largely dependent upon knee action, and the knee must be properly balanced throughout the swing if the stroke is to be properly executed.

REVERSALS OF FORM ON COAST

Football reversals of form are not peculiar to the east and middle west. They also happen on the coast.

University of Southern California was all primed to hand its hated rival from the north, University of California, a trouncing this year. It didn't.

A few days prior to the game California protected Bill Cole, star of Southern California. Stanford likewise protested.

The charge of professionalism against Cole was substantiated by a canceled check for $200, paid him for coaching the Santa Anna (Calif.) high school football team.

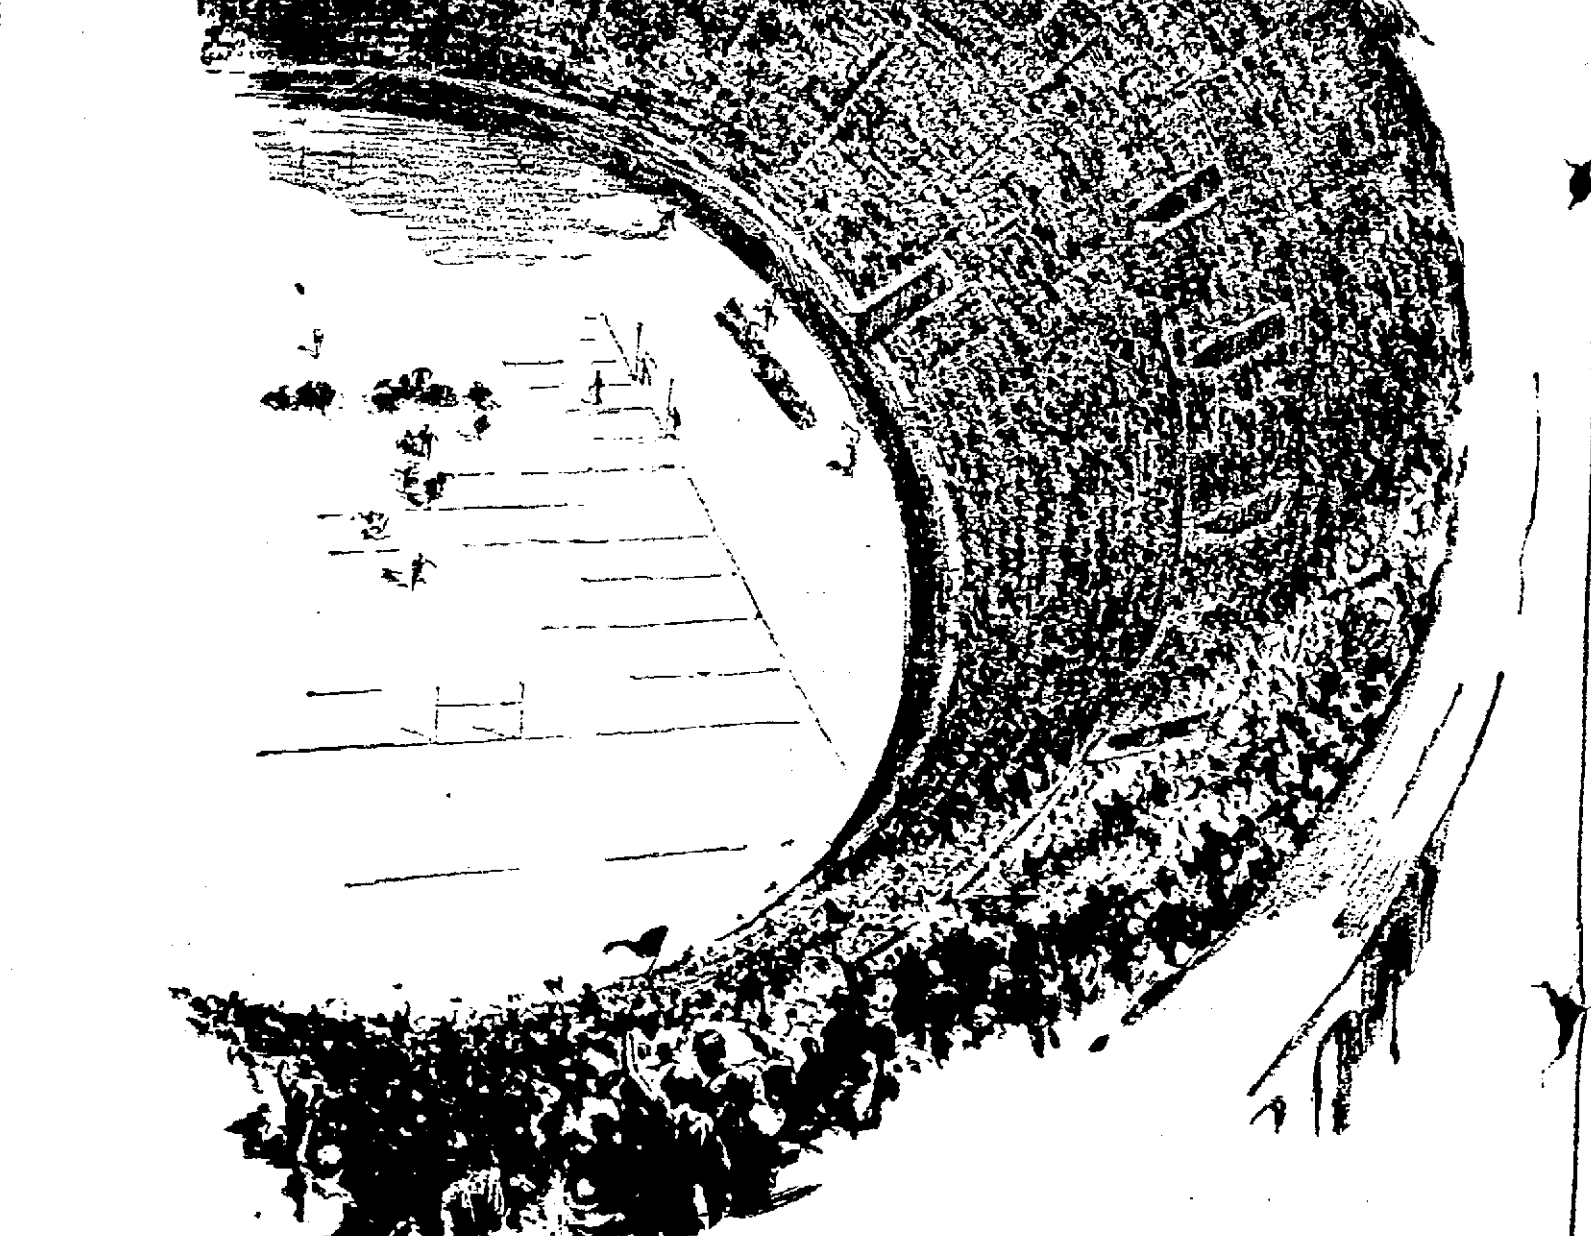

Using one's athletic ability for pay is a crime, according to the best rules for an amateur. Cole was declared ineligible.

California then proceeded to upset the plans of Southern California by defeating that team, 7 to 0.

James Corbett's modest admission in "The Roar of the Crowd" seems to settle beyond all doubt what the great, first fighter of all time was.

John D. Jay, was knocked down by a 30 pounder in a sparring match the other day. We suppose this may be considered a moral victory for Lt. Follett.

With all his property, it can never be truthfully written that the boy Mack waved fat on the national pastime.

There's no stopping 'em!

IT'S a clear field with nothing in front but the goal posts! Football or merchandising—it's the same story—you can't stop a man or a product that has the stuff to come through. Chesterfield is making gain after gain—like a swift, smashing drive to a touchdown.

Everywhere men are changing by thousands to Chesterfield. Why? For the best of all reasons—taste! That's what convinced smokers the country over.

Such popularity must be deserved

Bruins Not to Play Full Strength On St. Edwards

TO SAVE FIGHT FOR TURKEY DAY

WACO, Texas, Nov. 19.—While most of the other Southwestern Conference eleven are taking a rest over the week-end in preparation for the many terrific struggles on Thanksgiving, the Baylor Bears, chief claimants for the south-west title, will take on the powerful St. Edwards college eleven on Carroll Field Friday afternoon. St. Edwards has won 15 straight games and they bring a team to Waco capable of winning over the Bruins unless Bridges uncovers his full strength, which is not likely. As is their policy, the Bruins will pay less attention to the non-conference game and will point to their crucial game with Rice Institute in Houston on Thanksgiving. A victory or tie in the five battle will give the Bruins the Southwestern championship for either of such results would give them a better record within the conference than St. M. U. even though the Mustangs should win from the Oklahoma Aggies.

The Owls have a powerful team and their loss to Austin College is explained in the same manner of the Bruins' loss to the Kangaroos. Neither the Owls nor the Bears cared to open up with even a particle of their real strength in the games with Austin College in view of the fact that each faced a strong conference battle the following week. The Owls are not out of the race either and they will be fighting at their highest mental pitch guided by the coaching of John Heismann, dean of American football mentors. The Bruins realize they face a difficult battle against the formidable Owls and they are preparing for the game that means another championship for the Green and Gold if they are able to mark up a win or draw.

St. Edwards Saints will be no cinch for the Bruins and this hard struggle will make the odds more even when the Bears take on the Owls. Bridges believes that a stiff game with the Saints will put the Bears in better condition for Rice than if they rested.

Billy Evans Says—

Impressive Showing
Joy Over Wisconsin Win
Come Interesting Data

What is the greatest football team in the country? Ordinarily that is a question that could only be answered by a cross-word puzzle expert.

"This year, because of the many surprising upsets, the task may not be as difficult as usual, provided Notre Dame continues to run true to form. If there is one outstanding team in the country at present it is Notre Dame. So far it is one of the very few major teams that hasn't come blot on its record."

Notre Dame, playing one of the hardest schedules a team ever faced, has successfully vanquished worthy foes on successive Saturdays since the opening of the season.

Unless Notre Dame should suffer a form reversal it will be hard for the experts to give that team other than number one rating in the football standing.

Rockne's eleven still has the stiffest kind of opposition ahead but should go through the season undefeated.

While the victory over Princeton, the defeat of the Army and the win from Georgia Tech were pleasing to Coach Rockne of Notre Dame, I doubt if any of them gave him the satisfaction he enjoyed over the Wisconsin triumph.

Notre Dame is located in Big Ten territory. Rumor has it that Notre Dame would not object to membership in the western conference. This may or may not be true.

It is a fact, however, that Rockne regularly attends the Big Ten schedule meetings with a hope of booking games. At the last meeting, despite many overtures, only Wisconsin and Northwestern booked Notre Dame.

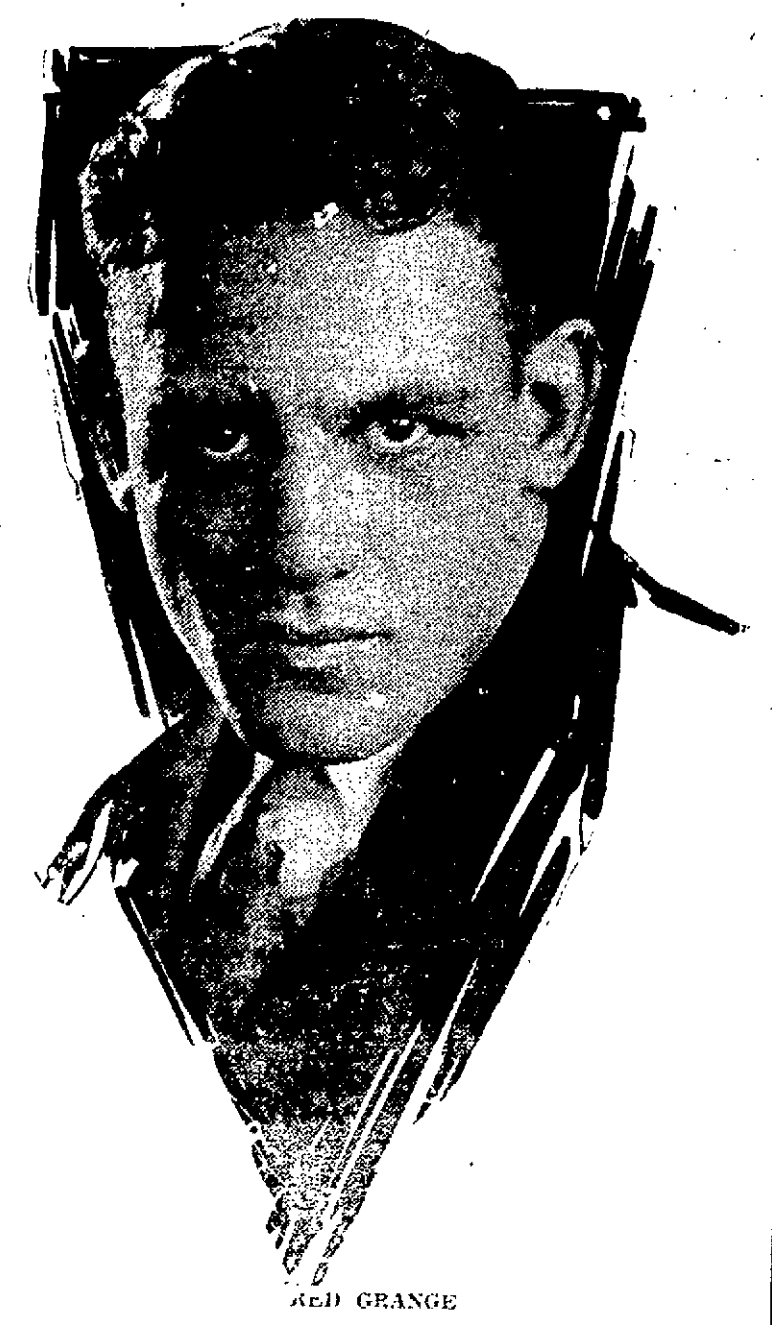

While Rockne has no grievance against Wisconsin, rather is very friendly toward that institution, he sought a victory to show the rest of the Big Ten that Notre Dame was of worthwhile caliber.

Also the fact that Wisconsin has four football victories to its credit over Notre Dame was another reason for a much desired victory.

Notre Dame's overwhelming defeat of Wisconsin gives it a high standing as far as a Big Ten rating. Its defeat of Georgia Tech fixes its southern status. Winning from Princeton and the Army gives an eastern ranking.

Any way you figure it, regardless of your partisan feelings, you must give Notre Dame a rating to Notre Dame, provided it goes through the season with a clean slate.

They've Stopped Grange!

Famous Illini grid star, whose name is a by-word of football, is out of the game for the remainder of the season.

PIGSKIN PRIMER

What is the definition for the term neutral zone?

In football there are two lines of scrimmage, one for each side. The two forward lines are separated by a space equal to the length of the ball. This space is known as the neutral zone and may not be encroached upon until the ball is put in play.

Can a player about to make a forward pass, seeing none of his side in position to handle the toss, throw the ball in front of him in order to make an incomplete pass?

Such an act is not permissible. It is permitted it would do away with much of the uncertainty attending the pass. There is a penalty of 15 yards and the loss of a down for so doing.

What must be the position of the players on a team doing the kicking prior to the kickoff?

SOONER COACH SEES VICTORY

By BENNIE OWEN
Head Football Coach Oklahoma University.
(Written for the United Press)
NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 19.—Sooner or later the fortune of destiny—that indispensable luck piece which every football team covets in the course of a season, will prove a boomerang to its hopes.

Drake defeated the Kansas Aggies last Saturday on a technical decision awarded by a dubious umpire after the Manhattan team had clearly outplayed the invading Bulldogs.

This Saturday, the Iowa State College team will battle the Drake team at Ames. Ames this year has not received as many breaks in the games as the Drake team if the law of averages is any good Drake's hopes for an undefeated season will be blasted. The Iowa Cyclones make up one of the strongest teams in the valley and their particular force this year has been that of cleaving up opposing teams.

Nebraska, back from her 6 to 34 defeat at the hands of Notre Dame will have one of its hardest games in the valley Saturday when the hucksters engage the Kansas Aggies at Manhattan. Coach Bachman of the Aggies is one of the smartest coaches in the conference and his dauntless ingenuity keeps every rival coach guessing.

The game between Kansas and Missouri November 22 is simply a toss up in the matter of dope. I would rate the Kansas squad as having a better chance to win because the Tigers are liable to grow stale from such an arduous season as they have gone through.

Oklahoma should have comparatively easy time with the Washington team at St. Louis, Saturday, but the Sooners will not go into the game as over confident as they were in 1922 when with all the dope in their favor they were held to a scoreless tie by the Tickers.

ASKS U. S. TO TAKE FAMILY OFF HIS HANDS

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Nov. 19.—Gottfried Steinmetz, a farmer living near Homestead, Ia., has gone to federal court here to get the government to take a white elephant off his hands in the person of Adam Gebauer, his wife and five children, whom he brought here from Germany several months ago.

According to Steinmetz's story to federal officials, his wife read in a German paper that Gebauer and his family were starving. Wishing to do a good deed, Steinmetz swore the Gebauers were relations, he told the court, and brought them to this country. Their trip and living expenses since here have been more than $1000, Steinmetz said he expected Gebauer to work on the farm for his living but soon found that he was an ardent and had never worked.

PROTOCOL OF GENEVA SCRAPPED BRITISH SAY

LONDON, Nov. 19.—"The Geneva protocol is scrapped," the Daily Telegraph declared, following announcement that the British government has asked the league of nations to "postpone" discussion of the security and disarmament protocol adopted recently by the league assembly.

What the Baldwin government actually requested was that the council, when it meets at Rome, Dec. 8, leave the proposed pact of its agenda. The Daily Telegraph interprets this as an indication that the conservative element will reject the protocol signed by Ramsay MacDonald.

PASTOR HEARS THUGS PLOT TO KILL HIM

ST. LOUIS, S. D. Nov. 19.—Forced to sit in his auto which had been taken in charge by two young hoodlums, whom he had kindly given a ride, Rev. John Solen, a well-known South Dakota clergyman, was compelled to hear the bad boys discuss what they should do with him—whether they should shoot him and throw his body into a cornfield, or should blind and gag him and throw him into a ravine.

After he had driven on a short distance, he suddenly looked around and discovered that the muscles of two revolvers were pointed directly at his head. The bandits then "elbowed him of his money, amounting to about $50, and demanded that he turn the car over to them. The minister managed to escape later.

FEINTING LOST ART IN BOXING

NEW YORK.—Feinting is a lost art in boxing as the game is practiced today, says Jack Britton, former welterweight champion.

Britton says that with one or two exceptions there are no fighters today who have a logical conception of what the feint is.

"In the old days," says Britton, "the first thing a fighter tried to do was the feint. Now when you mention feint to a boxer he thinks some one has swooned."

"Feigning is probably the best exponent of the feint in boxing today. The lightweight champion at least knows what it is for."

"A lot of fighters today think they are feinting when they stab forward with a left hand and then draw a lead from the opposing fighter."

"Of course that is a feint but instead of stepping in with a right hand the fighter today steps back and out of harm's reach."

"That is not the idea of the feint. It is not a defensive weapon. It is clearly an offensive stroke."

"When you feint and the opposing boxer strikes out with a punch it is your cue to step in and beat him to the punch. Otherwise your feint, in drawing the enemy fire, has availed you nothing."

Babe Given Stick

Cricket is the national sport of England. It is like baseball in that a ball and bat are used. The ball is larger than the American sphere and the bat flat and heavier. The ball is not only lively and consequently long drives are not common.

Babe Ruth, America's greatest baseball player, was sent with a cricket stick on the coast the other day. Babe contemplated the thing thoughtfully.

"This is like a fine thing to use in a slapstick comedy but I wouldn't want to hit against Johnson with it," he admitted.

UPSETS Have You Made Your Guess? Or Don't You Need the Money?

Girl Will Wait Until Lover Leaves Pen

HOUSTON, Tex., Nov. 19.—Dr. George E. Cook has been taken back to Florida to serve out his time.

And Anna Grant McCarthy, who met him while he was a fugitive from justice, says she is going to wait for him.

Dr. Cook (he says that is not his real name) is a graduate of the University of Illinois. Nine years he practiced in a little Florida town.

A patient, who owed him a bill, proposed the doctor would fix up papers showing land the man owned, though heavily mortgaged, was clear of debt, so he could sell it, pay the mortgage and pay Cook.

The patient double-crossed Cook and skipped out with the money. Cook fled, too.

In Los Angeles he was arrested again, but released through a jailer's mistake. Then they got him in Arizona and returned him to Florida. Soon after starting a two-year sentence he succeeded in escaping.

After working in Houston and Galveston, he shipped out as a mess boy on a tramp steamer, fell ill and was left at Le Havre, France. The American consul paid his fare back to the United States.

Apprehended in Pittsburg, he was sent back to Florida again, only to escape from a prison camp at the very time trivia-week victims had attended one night were about to obtain a pardon for him.

Wandering around through the southwest, he met Mrs. McCarthy. Then the law got him once more.

paid well but for which there was no need. The taxpayers paid for this until protest grew into a public growl and this to a demand that the system be removed and a business system voted to look after something that administration after administration had never succeeded in doing: That of looking after the rights of the smallest to the highest taxpayer.

The first thing which the city manager form of municipal government did for New London was to cut the tax rate from five mills to 26 mills. This has been still further reduced.

$250,000 Saved a Year.

Today New London has more streets and sidewalks, made far more pretentious municipal improvements on an annual budget of $1,300,000 than it previously had been able to do on an annual budget under the political form of government of $1,355,000.

Quarter of a million dollars saved. That New London's story.

Where did this money go under the political form? It went where the public which paid it was getting nothing in return. It went to extravagance. It went to carelessness. It went to negligence. It went to inefficiency. It went to political appointments, which were created to take care of a spoils system of government, to political patronage, and it leaked through every branch of city expenditures like a sieve.

Politicians Abandoned Hope.

Under the city manager form the taxpayers now are getting the most economical administration in the history of the city. It has been able to accomplish in two years what it had never been able before to accomplish in ten. Instead of leaving a legacy of debts, it enters the year with clean books. The taxpayers believe in the city manager form so strenuously that politicians long since have given up all hope of ever getting back to the old form.

Under the city manager plan every one in the different city departments has certain things to do, specific and definite, is given a way to do it, the time to do it, the limit for fruition, and is responsible to the people for it whereas before he was only responsible to a political leader.

This has weeded out incompetents, consolidated many appointments the duties of which are now being done by one man instead of half a dozen, avoided duplication, voided all chances of "passing the buck" and has resulted in efficiency to a standard heretofore unknown in this city's municipal affairs.

Send in Your Answers in The News Prize 'Do You Know 'Em' Contest—You May Win

The old motto of "meet me face to face" will not mean so much now since The News' "Do You Know 'Em" contest which began Monday at the People's theater is educating contestants to know the backs of the heads and facial profiles of many leading business men.

Great interest in the contest is reported being manifested and some contestants are remaining through two shows just to check-up and see if their guess as to the backs of the leading male citizens are correct.

Awards of $15, $10, $5 each are offered by The News to those correctly identifying the most of the pictures shown. There is still a chance for any one to win. Get out your pencil and paper and write your answer. The prizes will be given to the first three best guesses sent to the Contest Editor, The Port Arthur News.

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—Several hundred Jefferson county teachers are expected to go to San Antonio on Thanksgiving day for the state Texas Teachers association meeting on that day. Special rates have been offered from Jefferson county by way of Austin. Miss Mary Sandall, county school superintendent will serve on two state committees. It is expected, however, that the number of teachers attending the association meeting this year will be lower than last year on account of the distance.

There are only four cities in the state large enough to accommodate the delegation of teachers, which is one of the largest conventions to be held.

ASKS $10,700 DAMAGES Following Auto Crash

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—Suit for $10,700 was filed here in district court yesterday by J. C. Fountain against R. S. Mothner. The suit was filed following an automobile accident when Mr. and Mrs. Fountain together with their two small children were riding in a car which collided with one driven by Mothner. According to the petition, all members of the Fountain family were injured and their car was also wrecked.

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—Eight of 26 aliens admitted to United States citizenship in federal court yesterday were from Port Arthur, including one woman who married a forger and lost her American rights in this manner.

Their former countries included Mexico, China, Greece, Nicholas Martinez, Mexico; Marion Schuchardt, born in Austria; Solomon Sustine, born in Syria; John Gabourel, born in Honduras; Fred Loukas, born in Turkey; Samuel Bandman, born in Netherlands; Mox Olesky, born in Poland. Approximately 20 applications were denied for a number of reasons. A number of foreigners did not know enough of the American constitution as required, some could not read and write the English language, and one man was denied his citizenship because he claimed exemption during the war.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Nov. 19.—The prize winning couple at the Beaumont fair Tuesday night were designated as C. M. Kitchel, Jr., of 1032 Fifth street, and Miss Mamie Resch, of 1048 Seventh street, both of Port Arthur. They were awarded a set of candlesticks, given by the Phoenix Furniture company.

TEXAN NEAR DEATH FROM CROSSING CRASH
SWEETWATER, Texas, Nov. 19.—Henry Bartlett, 48, was probably fatally injured when a Texas-Pacific passenger train demolished his automobile at a city grade crossing today. Bartlett sustained a fractured skull.

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—Several hundred Jefferson county teachers are expected to go to San Antonio on Thanksgiving day for the state Texas Teachers association meeting on that day. Special rates have been offered from Jefferson county by way of Austin. Miss Mary Sandall, county school superintendent will serve on two state committees. It is expected, however, that the number of teachers attending the association meeting this year will be lower than last year on account of the distance.

There are only four cities in the state large enough to accommodate the delegation of teachers, which is one of the largest conventions to be held.

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—Eight of 26 aliens admitted to United States citizenship in federal court yesterday were from Port Arthur, including one woman who married a forger and lost her American rights in this manner.

Their former countries included Mexico, China, Greece, Nicholas Martinez, Mexico; Marion Schuchardt, born in Austria; Solomon Sustine, born in Syria; John Gabourel, born in Honduras; Fred Loukas, born in Turkey; Samuel Bandman, born in Netherlands; Mox Olesky, born in Poland. Approximately 20 applications were denied for a number of reasons. A number of foreigners did not know enough of the American constitution as required, some could not read and write the English language, and one man was denied his citizenship because he claimed exemption during the war.

AGGIE EXES TO MEET MONDAY

Rep Meet Scheduled by Port Arthur Contingent

With a snappy football program all fixed for their regular meet in the main dining room of the Plaza next Monday night, Aggie exes are loaded for a great pep meet.

A special effort is being made to make this a old time yell fest and bull pen, since it is the last regular meeting before the Thanksgiving game, and all details will be fully explained, it was announced.

Another feature of the meeting will be the election of a vice president to take the place left vacant by Todd Parker, Aggie basketball star who recently moved to Houston.

"Every ex-Aggie is invited and expected to attend this meeting," M. Blankfield said. "The meeting holds special interest this week, for the Thanksgiving game this year will dedicate the new Loughorn stadium. No ex-Aggie can afford not to come out for these meetings for the college spirit that has held forth at the past meetings has been an inspiration to all old-timers."

Vamping of Barbers May Bar Women

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Chiropractors today announced a fight against vamps.

The chiropractors—new stuff for the barber—particularly, if he is handsome, is made the subject of erroneous attention from his girl clients, according to delegates attending the convention of the Associated Master Barbers of America.

Henry Weaver, official of the organization, declared that unless the bobbed hair girls mend their ways, it will be necessary to organize a society for the prevention of vamping of chiropractors.

The problem is serious and many shops have put a ban on women, he declared.

HOUSTON SAFETY SQUAD TO ASSIST FIREMEN

HOUSTON, Nov. 19.—Fourteen Houston citizens have been sworn in and received police commissions as members of the new "safety squad," a squad formed by Allie Anderson fire commissioner.

Organization of the men, several of them switchmen for the various railroads, came about as the result of a tie-up of several pieces of fire apparatus at a railroad crossing while on the way to a bad fire. The railroad members will see that the crossings are cleared for the apparatus and other members will assist firemen in every possible way.

HOSTESS POURS HOT JAVA ON CARD PLAYERS

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 19.—The point at which "friendship games" was found at a card party here one evening recently.

An argument over the cards resulted in one of the guests pouring a pot of hot coffee over her hostess. Unable to stop the row even after the deluge of java, men members of the party called police who brought peace and quietude by taking fear of the party to the station.

CHAMP SPUD GROWER RAISES 80 TO ACRE

WONT LOSE FOOT

PARIS, Nov. 19.—Walter Durant, correspondent of the New York Times, who was injured recently in a railroad wreck and will not lose a foot as was at first feared.

School Kids Itch vanishes after a few applications of Imperial Eucema Remedy. Not greasy or bad smelling. Druggists are authorized to refund your money if it fails.—Adv.

Ex-Deputy Sheriff Dies at Beaumont

BEAUMONT, Nov. 19.—Charles Bryant, aged 52, a life-long resident of Beaumont, died at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning at the family residence, 1117 College street, here.

The deceased was well known in this county. He served as deputy sheriff for eight years, assisting Ras Landry. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. George Spencer, his wife, Mrs. Tomie Bryant, died in Wichita Falls eight years ago. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. C. J. Ficken and a brother, George Bryant, both of this city.

Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning from the Roberts Undertaking company parlors here.

Aviator Known Here Has Narrow Escape

Crashing into a fence at his landing field in Breau Bridge, La., John Broussard, aviator, who has visited Port Arthur and is well known here, wrecked his plane when he was returning to Breau Bridge from New Orleans, where he met the world aviators, according to word received by friends in Port Arthur today. Broussard was attempting to land after dark when his plane hit a fence and smashed. He escaped without injury.

BANDITS GET $2,000 IN RAID ON BANK

MINERAL WELLS, Texas, Nov. 19.—Approximately $2,000 was the loot of bandits who ransacked the White State bank at Whit near here during the night. The robbery was discovered when the bank opened for business today.

Relieves Rheumatism

Musterole loosens up stiff joints and drives out pain. A clean white ointment, made with oil of mustard, it usually brings relief as soon as you start to rub it on.

It does all the good work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster, without the blister. Doctors and nurses often recommend its use.

To Mothers: Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole. 35¢ & 65¢ in jars & tubes; hospital size, $3.

BETTER THAN A MUSTARD PLASTER

Continued drouth in Port Arthur is creating trouble for the city water department.

W. L. Hastings, head of this department, made this fact known this morning at the city hall when he said that numerous complaints regarding water line breaks and leaks had been reported to the water department as a result of the dry weather.

"There have been fewer leaks, however, reported this month than last," Hastings said.

YOUTH IS KILLED BY FALL FROM TREE

"Good to the Last Drop"

ROMANCE lies within the circle of your cup of Maxwell House. That fragrant aroma breathes of Araby and distant sun-wrapped lands where the finest coffee is grown.

There are visions of the great ships breasting foamy miles to bring the treasure home.

Lohmann to Attend Duff Oral Argument

Henry Lohmann, a director of the Chamber of Commerce and Shipping, has left for Washington where he will attend the oral argument to be presented by the chamber and Col. R. H. Duff in the hearing before the Interstate Commerce commission wherein an effort is being made to compel the Kansas City Southern railway to allow the Duff line to make Port Arthur its southern terminal.

Lohmann, with Manager A. L. Burge and H. Y. Taylor, traffic manager of the local chamber, will represent Port Arthur in the case. After the hearing he will make a visit to the Carolinas and Florida.

The aborigines of Australia eat moths.

CONFEDERATE PENSION TAX STARTS IN 1926

AUSTIN, Nov. 19.—The two cents increase in the confederate pension tax provided for in the constitutional amendment voted in the recent general election will not be in operation until 1926, according to state comptroller Lon A. Smith. The present rate is five cents per $100 property valuation.

WON'T SAY WHETHER POLITICS TO BE TOPIC

Regular semi-monthly meeting of the Young Men's Business League directors will be held Wednesday at the Plaza, Secretary C. K. DeBuck announced.

DeBuck would not say whether the directors would discuss the political situation here in which the Y. M. B. L. has been prominently mentioned.

MEASURE WILL AMEND STATE TEXTBOOK LAW

AUSTIN, Nov. 19.—Amendment to the public school textbook law to prevent wholesale changes in textbooks at any one session of the state textbook commission, is being prepared by Senator-elect Eugene Miller of Parker county. Miller announced here today. The bill will be introduced early in the coming regular session of the legislature.

BANK DEPOSITS GAIN 51 MILLION

Texas Loans Reduced By 5 Millions

AUSTIN, Nov. 19.—Deposits in the 141 state banks increased $51,000,000 between the bank calls of June 30 and Oct. 10, the state banking department announced. Cash and quick assets in the banks grew by $57,000,000 during the same time, and money borrowed from the banks was reduced five and a half million dollars. These were the outstanding features of the consolidated report covering the last state bank call.

These reflect a satisfactory condition of state bank affairs, according to the department. On Oct. 10, there was on deposit in these banks, $302,302,030, and the banks had in addition, surplus and undivided profits of $19,380,000. Total capital of $197,500 between the two calls. One bank was closed during that period. The banks show a $4,773,771 assessments for the state guaranty fund. Loans and discounts personal and collateral were $178,944,000, and on real estate, $24,841,000 on Oct. 10.

Scientists Demand Evolution Be Taught

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—At an overflow mass meeting here a campaign was started, under auspices of the recently organized Science League of America, to combat efforts to prevent instruction on the theory of evolution from being given in public schools and colleges. Among the speakers were Luther Burbank, plant wizard; Dr. David Starr Jordan, chancellor of Stanford university; Dr. William E. Ritter, noted biologist; C. C. Mundell, formerly a Congregational minister, and Maynard Shipley, president of the league.

President Shipley declared it is the purpose of the campaign to "keep evolution in the schools and the book of Genesis out." Dr. Jordan disagreed. "I would let in not only Genesis, but the whole Bible," said Dr. Jordan. "All I ask is the free air for truth and it will hold its own."

All speakers emphasized their belief that evolution does not antagonize or conflict with religion.

UNCLE SAM OWES 6000 BUT CAN'T FIND 'EM

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Mabel G. Reinecke, collector of internal revenue has 6,000 little sums of money just waiting to be spent.

The money represents refunds on 1923 taxes which the government owes 6,000 Illinois citizens but who it has been unable to locate and make payment.

Payment was attempted through checks mailed out but were returned when the postman failed to find the parties to whom the money was due. "We are very anxious to get this matter closed up and help the government settle its books properly adjusted," Mrs. Reinecke said, "and it should be considered a favor by this department if our creditors would make their present whereabouts known to us."

CONGESTION IN INSANE HOSPITAL IS RELIEVED

CINCINNATI, Nov. 19.—All congestion at the Longview hospital for the insane here has been relieved for the first time in ten years, according to an announcement in the Public Health Federation bulletin. A few months ago 200 patients were found sleeping on the floor of the institution, the bulletin said, because of lack of accommodations. The improvement has been made since the hospital has been taken over by the state.

DOCTOR URGES SPECIAL CHAIRS FOR WOMEN

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 19.—American women suffer needlessly and it's all the fault of furniture manufacturers, according to Dr. C. H. Jennings, who addressed members of the Michigan Osteopathic association in convention at the furniture city recently.

It is all because the shape of chairs isn't well adapted to the peculiar construction of woman.

The fallacy is in failure to allow for woman's hips. As a result women get into the habit of sitting on one foot. This effects the spine which in turn produces headache to which women are especially susceptible. "This habit of drawing one leg up under the other tilts the pelvis and has a tendency to create spinal curvature and would seem to warrant a special manufacture of special chairs for women," Dr. Jennings says in a lengthy report of his findings.

GIRLS TO CHART SARGASSO SEA

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—In the future it will probably be "Mlle. Columbus."

For, although it cause the bones of Cortez, De Gama, Magellan, Marco Polo and all the rest to turn in their graves, it must be reported that a woman's hand will be first to reveal the secrets of one of the great romantic mysteries of all time: the Sargasso sea.

And another woman's hand will paint for posterity the legends of these new solved secrets.

The two young women are Miss Ruth Rose, historian of the New York Zoological society, and Isabel Cooper, artist, and they are part of the intrepid scientific crew that sailed away in the laboratory ship Arcturion to strip the Sargasso of its legend and fable.

Thus far the reports of this strange floating mass of seaweed and sea life have been extremely vague. It lies between the Azores and Bahamas, though the exact location is indeterminate.

GOVERNMENT YEAR BOOK BECOMES BEST SELLER

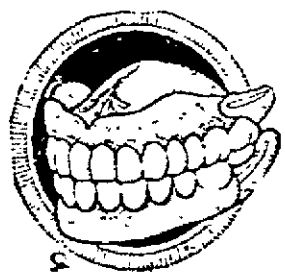

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The department of commerce year book, recording almost the entire work of the department for 1923 has made its second annual appearance and is in great demand.

The volume, comprising 716 pages, represents the efforts of a large staff of government business experts in all parts of the world as well as the United States.

It is intended not only as an authoritative reference book of basic facts but as a guide in the study of outstanding problems of trade, production, price changes and market conditions. It sells for 50 cents.

DECLARES RUM BREEDS MORONS

English Doctor Would Bar Marriage of Sots

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Parents who are addicted to alcohol or who have become intoxicated on three or more occasions are a menace to society, and marriage of any person thrice convicted of intoxication should be prohibited by law, to protect the race against the propagation of degenerates, according to Dr. T. B. Hyslop, a noted English alienist.

For many years, Dr. Hyslop was medical superintendent of Bethlehem hospital, and his observation there has convinced him that even occasional excessive use of alcohol will so undermine health that wholesome minded children cannot be expected when one or both parents are guilty of intemperance.

"We see so many evidences of degeneration resulting from alcoholism in parents that I am strongly of the opinion that, just as the habitual drunkard is deprived of his liberty, so the existence of the alcoholic habit should be considered a bar to matrimony," Dr. Hyslop writes in his book, The Borderland, just published here.

OLD SPANISH TRAIL TRAVELOG IS ISSUED

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 19.—Old Spanish Trail headquarters have issued a new travelog which gives travel and descriptive information from St. Augustine, Fla., to San Diego, Calif. It is bound in art covers of typical eastern and western scenes. The information includes mileage and road conditions between the towns and cities, mileages from any one point to another point across the continent, population, elevation, local description, old history, maps, pictures of the zero milestones, campsite data, hotels, local O.S.T. officials, etc., and gives locations of information bureaus.

A new four color lithograph map four feet long is now in process. This map will show the whole south country, and also in colors the important highways from the north leading into the Old Spanish Trail.

"Oriental" rugs are being manufactured in a New York studio by two women who have mastered the intricate art.

'Looney' Gas Fails To Harm Animals

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Experiments conducted by the U. S. bureau of mines on a small menagerie of animals show, thus far, that gasoline containing tetra-ethyl-lead is not more dangerous with this ingredient than without it, according to the official journal of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers.

The journal warns against the hasty passage of legislation to prevent the use of lead or other substances which make fumes dangerous to motorists. The death of several Standard Oil employees in New Jersey, he thinks, does not necessarily indicate carelessness.

"During the war extensive experiments were carried out to discover a dope for gasoline that would increase its effectiveness and power in motor-driven vehicles," says the journal.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with twofold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Adv.

"By the accidental suggestion of a non-technical man connected with one of the large copper refining companies which produced, as a by-product, considerable quantities of tellurium, for which there was no known commercial use, it was discovered that tellurium could be used as a dope with marvelous results."

Parisian women have introduced a fad of wearing their hair swept up six or more inches from their forehead.

Bill Ties Can On 'Canned Heat' Jags

"heat" and similar immidities used as intoxicants.

WHITE BLUEBERRIES

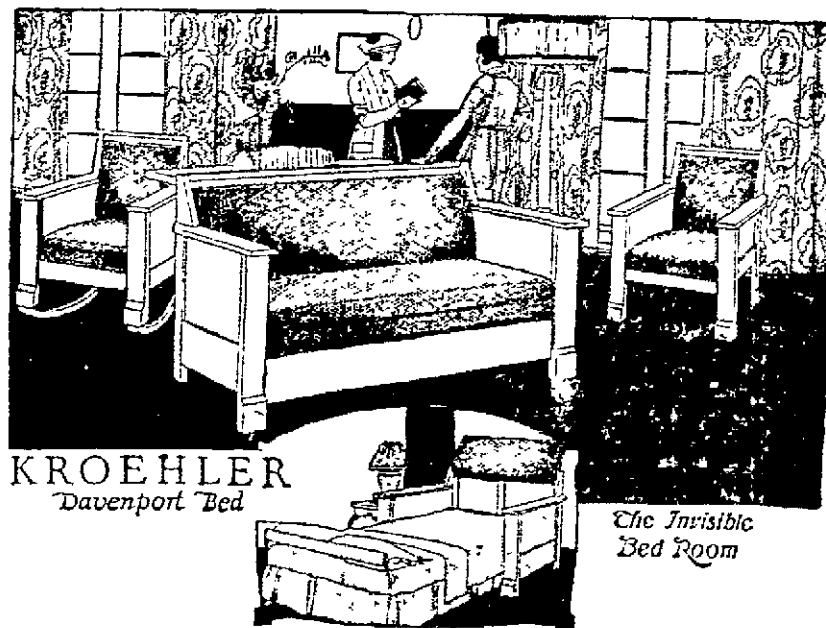

WHITNEYVILLE, Me., Nov. 19.—White blueberries are the paradoxical fruit grown in Whitneyville. This freak of nature has been developed on land owned by Newell Albee, who is extremely careful of his treasure and allows only a very few to be picked.

MRS LONGWORTH LAYS POLITICS

Daughter of 'Teddy' Knows The Game

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth is considered the most influential individual politically in Washington today.

Not being a public character though like her father, she has not the sort of influence with the mass of voters he had, but doubtless she could obtain it if she chose.

But that is not her method.

Mrs. Longworth pulls the strings and when she pulls them she gets results in congress and the executive offices. She gets most anything she wants.

Whether Mrs. Longworth deliberately set out to acquire all this political power or whether she attained it through more or less natural developments that she never particularly willed, perhaps she doesn't know herself.

When congress is in session, Mrs. Longworth attends the sessions of the house of representatives almost as faithfully as her husband. She knows absolutely everything that goes on in politics, and she understands it inside-out.

It is no exaggeration to say the shapes national policies, executive and legislative—not all policies, of course, but those she is interested in, and her interests are very wide.

Congressman Longworth is the likeliest candidate for speaker of the house of representatives after March 4. If he is chosen, then just that much more power to his wife in national politics.

WOMEN'S ARMY CORPS PLANNED BY OFFICERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—A study of the part women played in the world war, with a view to "the utilization of women in all branches of the military service in case of future emergency," has been undertaken by the war department.

A questionnaire has been sent to all commanding generals of corps areas and department chiefs, asking for information on this subject, and the move has stirred up considerable interest in military circles.

The war department undertook the study as a result of recommendations from committees of the army war college and from officers of the general staff, who held that a study should be made of the advisability of organizing a women's army corps, in which the women would be regularly enlisted and uniformed.

LOVER SHOTS GIRL HE FOLLOWED TO U. S.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 19.—John Neuk's love for Bertha Vedula, which she did not return, brought death to both of them when Neuk shot the girl to death and then fatally wounded himself, after she had refused again to marry him.

The double tragedy took place at 224 Fifth street, where Miss Vedula lived with her sister, Mrs. Kate Klobner.

After the shooting the girl in the temple, killing her almost instantly. Neuk placed the muzzle of the revolver between his eyes, and pressed the trigger.

Miss Vedula came to America from Austria 13 months ago, her sister and police, and Neuk followed her to this country a short time later. She repulsed his advances, however, and refused repeated proposals of marriage.

WISCONSIN TOWN AFRAID IT WILL RIVAL RENO

KENOSHA, Wis., Nov. 19.—Action to prevent Kenosha from becoming the "Reno of Wisconsin" was started when the county board of supervisors passed unanimously a resolution urging the state legislature to change divorce laws so that divorces could be obtained only in the county where principals had been residents for two years.

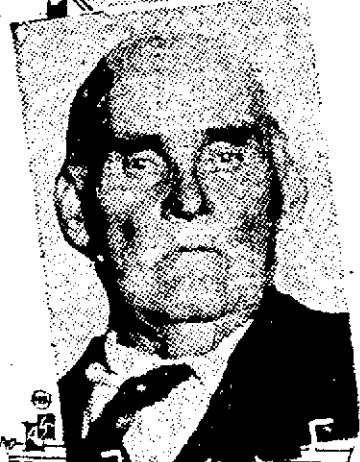

The resolution is a protest against the increasing number of divorce suits being brought to Kenosha from Milwaukee.

HELPLESS FROM STROKE, MAN BURNS TO CRISP

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 19.—To be rendered helpless by a stroke and then forced to wait until a fire burned his body almost to a crisp was the fate of Anthony Koshlowski, 49, of Luzerne, Pa., an inmate of the state hospital at Wilkes-Barre, in the opinion of the attorney who made an investigation after the discovery of his body.

Koshlowski, according to relatives, was fond of smoking. It is believed that the ashes of his pipe ignited the leaves in the field where he was working after he had fallen from an apple tree.

5411 QUALIFY AS LIFE SAVERS

Red Cross Work Is Making Great Progress

The life saving program of the American Red Cross has been a very definite contribution to life saving work in the southwest.

During three years' work 5411 persons have qualified as life savers. In 1921 and 1922, 879 qualified. In 1923, and 1924, 1922 qualified. In 1925 and 1924, 2350 qualified. It is interesting to note the comparative increase in membership during this three year period. This shows that remarkable progress has been made by Red Cross chapters in promoting life saving in southwestern division which includes the states of Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, New Mexico, Missouri and Texas.

Several chapters have used the part-time life saving director through the summer months and school years. Dallas, Texas goes on record as being the first chapter in the division to employ a full-time director of life saving for the summer months, June, July and August. This year many chapters are making provision for a full-time director during the summer.

'Wild' Helium Shoots From Texas Well

SEYMOUR, Texas, Nov. 19.—Bearing out of the mouth of a well near here at the rate of 10,000,000 cubic feet a day, natural gas, belled to be nearly pure helium, is escaping uncontrolled. The fact that repeated tests show this gas will not burn supports the theory that it is helium, which is used for inflation of dirigible balloons.

When the gas blow was struck at a depth of 900 feet it shot upward with such force as to blow out all connections. Since then it has been running wild.

The scene of the discovery is about 125 miles northwest of Fort Worth, where the big helium extracting plant of the United States army is.

If the well proves to contain almost pure helium, it will mean development of a large new supply of the non-inflammable gas for dirigible uses.

G. B. S. HITS JAZZ

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Dancing and high thinking are mutually incompatible in the opinion of George Bernard Shaw, famous author. During his recent stay in a London hotel, he recently demanded that the young people cease dancing by 10 o'clock each evening. Then he finally made a formal request that dancing be stopped altogether, saying that his meditations were disturbed.

U. S. PLANNING DEER ROUNDUP

100 Cowboys To Move Herd of 8000

GRAND CANYON, Ariz., Nov. 19.—An attempt will be made this month to round up 3,000 to 5,000 deer, drive them to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, down the steep slopes of the gorge, up the other side and to the Tusayan National forest.

Federal officials doubt if the southwest's most unique roundup will be a success. Some say that a cowboy for every deer will be required.

But State Game Warden G. M. Willard of Arizona and George McCormick, veteran flagstaff cattleman, who has contracted to do the job, insist that it can be done.

The drive is planned to save the lives of the deer, now in the Kaibab National forest, north of the Grand Canyon. The deer population has increased to the point where there is not grass enough to support them all. The transfer will be made to save the lives of thousands.

Eels sometime travel over considerable ground to go from one stream to another.

LAST SURVIVOR OF MERRIMAC CREW DIES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Capt. Henry H. Marmaduke, 82, the last known surviving officer of the battle between the Monitor and the Merrimac, died at his home in this city after a steady decline in health for more than a year.

In 1858, Capt. Marmaduke was appointed to the Naval academy from Missouri, but resigned in 1861 to become a midshipman in the Confederate navy. He was aboard the Merrimac when she steamed out of Norfolk navy yard, March 8, 1862, to participate in the engagement that marked the birth of ironclads at sea.

Capt. Marmaduke served in most of the major battles of the Civil war, and commanded a naval brigade which was captured at the fight at Sailor's creek, Virginia.

MEXICAN, 105, WEDS FOR THE THIRD TIME

AGUAS CALIENTES, Mexico Nov. 19.—Nicolas Martinez, 105, was married in the cathedral here to Frances Quintana, 80.

"It is my third marriage," Martinez said. "My first wife lived with me almost 70 years and we raised seven stalwart sons for Mexico. I lived with my second wife 14 years before her death and she bore me two more sons who also have fought for Mexico."

CUTS CURBS FOR LITTLE CRIPPLE

Mayor of Evanston Proves City Has Heart

EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 19.—Crippled Hildur Luma's little world has grown another street.

She has found a new bright flower blooming on an alien corner.

There's a bluejay nesting in that house just over the way once so far beyond traveling distance of her wheel chair.

Now there is sunshine in Hildur's life. To date it has not been much of a life. But Hildur, just 10, has made the most of it.

When little more than a baby an attack of infantile paralysis put her in her wheel chair. And the wheel chair couldn't go far away from her house except when somebody pushed it.

But Hildur always has longed to see that world of hers—no matter how small by herself.

To her it was a big world. There was the corner grocery store so far that she placed in her day dream was Paris. Some day she would go to "Paris" by herself.

The ambition could have been relieved, if it was not for a nasty curb that dropped in an abruptness into the intervening street.

Day after day she would propel herself to the brink. There she would sit and dream of Paris, the corner port.

This curb had been a curse on her since time when Mayor Hares P. Pearsons heard about it.

"We'll build special curbs for Hildur," said the mayor. "They'll then make sloping and low so that she can cross easily."

And it was done. "I can't see how glad I am," she says.

TEACHERS MUST GIVE UP HUSBAND OR POSITION

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Young Dutch women of the future who desire to dedicate their lives to training the young minds of their country have to choose between being married and teaching.

Some time ago, according to a dispatch from Amsterdam, the Dutch ministry of education ruled that all women school teachers who were married must leave their positions. Some women who wished to keep both their husbands and their salaries immediately obtained divorces—but continued to live with their ex-husbands as before.

Now along comes the ministry of education with another decree that teachers who have taken such steps must also look for another job.

MILK, BUTTER BY PLANE IS PLANNED IN GEORGIA

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 19.—With the purchase of 500 acres of land near here by Capt. R. R. Lippner, mechanical engineer of Chicago, it was announced that a landing field would be constructed and the transportation by airplane of dairy products throughout the state of Georgia would begin.

It is believed that Lippner said, "I am going to make the milk and butter business in Georgia a big success."

Latest News From Louisiana Towns

NEW ORLEANS.—A tale of mourning and piracy on the high seas when ghosts of John Silver, Captain Flint and Blind Pew apparently sailed upon the West Nags was told by city officers when the vessel arrived at the end of a Mediterranean run.

One fine night four of the sailors raided the storerooms, seized crates of cases, stacks and other articles. High spirits soon gave way to severe agony. Four overboarded skeletons, all of four sailors spent the remainder of the voyage to New Orleans in fits.

PHONOGRAPH RECORDS PLAY 100 MINUTES

BERLIN, Nov. 19.—Twelve inch phonograph records that play for 100 minutes and reproduce whole operas by aid of radio loud speakers without the noise of records scratching have been produced by Dr. Max Hausdorff of this city, working along principles evolved by an English inventor.

The production costs of the new record will be much lower than for the five minute records, it is alleged.

LAMPENE, England, Nov. 19.—The Honeymoon Express—the "cozy coupé" of the air—has made its appearance on the airplane market. It is a baby airplane with the pilot and the passengers seated side by side.

NO. 2.—THE RIDDLE LADY ARRIVES.

"It's the prizes," she exclaimed to Mrs. John.

"Hello, Nancy and Nick," called Jack and Jill when Daddy Gander's magic dust-pan had settled down obligingly before the front porch of the House-That-Jack-Built.

"Hello!" cried the Twins, jumping off the dust-pan and hurrying up the steps where kind Mrs. John, Jack's mother, waited in the doorway.

Daddy Gander tucked his magic dust-pan under his arm (for it had shrunk again into a proper-sized dust-pan) and called out, "I'm going home to get tidied up for the party. What time is it to be, Mrs. John? Mrs. Goose and I don't want to be late."

"The Riddle Lady isn't here yet," answered Mrs. John, "and when she comes I suppose she'll have to rest awhile. I think two o'clock will be about right. It's to be a garden-party, or rather an orchard-party. I can't get all the people into our little house. Everybody will be here."

"They surely will, when there are riddles to guess," laughed Daddy Gander. "Goodbye."

No sooner had Daddy gone than the Riddle Lady arrived in her coach and four.

After her came a footman carrying a large box. "It's the prizes," she explained to Mrs. John. "What is a riddle without a prize, I'd like to know."

"Do come in and take off your things," urged Mrs. John. "The biscuits and tea are getting cold. And I would like to get through, and the dishes cleared up before the company starts to come."

"Of course! Of course!" said the Riddle Lady hastily. "Here I am keeping everybody waiting."

"Well, as for that," said Mrs. John setting the chairs around. "I suppose everybody will be keeping you waiting after while."

Well, everything went along very nicely, and after while lunch was over and the dishes cleared up and the guests began to arrive.

When everybody was there—even Sleepy Head and Slow and Simple, Simon, the Riddle Lady gave out her first riddle.

This was it:

"Sometimes I'm made of feathers, Sometimes I'm made of silk, Sometimes I'm black as furnace coal, And sometimes white as milk."

"Sometimes I'm made of paper That brings the daily news, Sometimes of parchment painted o'er, With birds and flowers and views."

"Sometimes I'm carried proudly To theaters and balls, But sometimes just to decorate The mantelpiece and walls."

"But mostly Chinese use me, Or maids in our Japan, There is no doubt you know my name, You've often seen a —"

That was the riddle and Nancy guessed it right off.

"It's a fan, isn't it?" she said quickly.

CHILD'S STORY OF THE HUMAN RACE

GODS AND SOULS IN INDIA

Today I want to speak of the very old religions of India. I cannot tell you all that might be told, because that would take too long, but I can at least give you a few ideas.

You see pictured these gods of the Indians. (Remember that the true Indians lived in India). Those gods are called Vishnu, Shiva and Brahma.

Vishnu is said to be the one who lived first. One old story says that a lotus plant grew out of his body, and in the lotus flower Brahma was born. The god Brahma is pictured at the right—notice that he has many arms. The more perfect it becomes, the better kind of animal it will live in.

The cow is a sacred animal in India. Perhaps that is because the soul is supposed to dwell in the body of a cow before it is born as a human being.

After the soul comes into human form, it has a chance to take the last step and become perfect. If it succeeds, it passes into bliss. An Indian would say:

"The soul passes into Nirvana."

By that he would mean that it becomes part of "the great one." Never

Three gods of India are pictured here. Each one has four arms. The god Shiva carries a small hatchet in one hand.

At the center is Siva, the evil god. He was supposed to live on top of the Himalaya mountains. He had a wife named Devi, who was just as cruel as he. Many people in India have bowed down in worship to Siva or Devi.

An interesting belief has sprung up in India about souls after death. The belief is that souls have many lives. First they are crude and full of faults. Those faults must be taken away before a soul can find bliss. To get to be perfect, the soul must live in the bodies of all sorts of animals.

There are three sorrow. The soul may even forget that it lived on earth. If a man is bad, his soul is believed to have a hard time. It passes along gloomy paths. Its feet are cut by sharp stones, and burned by hot sands. Glowing coals fall on its bare back. The soul becomes bloody and thirsty, and cries out in pain.

The hell of India is not supposed to last forever. After a soul suffers for a long time, it goes back to earth and lives either in an animal or in human form. It always has a chance to become perfect.
